Public Record

Gerald L. Jandreau, 23, Route 3, was taken to the Canton-Potsdam Hospital early Tuesday morning after a mishap in the parking lot of the Wild Oat Tavern, police reported. Police said that Lisa A. Sharlow, 19, Norwood, told them that she was backing her car out of a parking space when Jandreau walked into the vehicle.

Rebecca Mallette, 19, Route 3, was charged Monday with petit larceny in connection with an alleged shoplifting incident at the Kinney Drug store, Big N Plaza.

Carol Maines, 31, Rensselaer Falls, was ticketed Sunday night on a charge of driving while her ability was impaired. The summons was issued following an automobile accident near 30 Lawrence Avenue that involved the Maines car and vehicles driven by John C. Riordan Jr., Colton and Stephen C. Sumner, 13 Pierrepont Ave.

Michael I. Welch, 20, 105 Main St., was ticketed Sunday morning on a charge of failure to keep right.

Douglas Paul Orr, 21, Little Valley, N.Y., was charged Saturday with fourth degree criminal possession of a weapon after village police discovered that he accidentally shot himself in the leg while cleaning his pistol. Police were called after the Clarkson student went to the hospital with a wound in his left thigh. Although he has a pistol permit, according to police, he was charged with violating a section of the law that requires a student to have written permission to have a firearm on campus.

Scott Basil, 23, 1 State St., was charged Saturday with harassment.

John L. Rodman, 23, Roslyn Heights, N.Y., was ticketed Friday on a charge of operating an uninspected motor vehicle.

Mark Browning, 30 Leroy St., was charged Thursday with issuing a bad check.

Roy L. Glover, 17, Andover, N.Y., was arrested Wednesday on a charge of issuing a bad check.

Susan MacGregor was arrested Wednesday and charged with issuing a bad check.

James E. Usach was charged Wednesday with issuing a bad check.

Danny J. Taylor, 20, Parishville, was charged Tuesday with issuing bad checks.

Douglas A. Gabriel, 22, Colden, N.Y., was ticketed Tuesday on a charge of driving an uninspected motor vehicle.

Robert T. Skuse, 22, Rochester, was charged Tuesday with petit larceny in connection with an alleged incident at White's Hardware store.

November, December Busy Months For Neighborhood Center

Betty Rush, director of the Potsdam Neighborhood Center, reports Potsdam, Norwood, and Colton activities for November and December as follows:

November:

Thirteen new contacts involving 35 people and 47 follow-ups involving 167 people were made by outreach aides Lori Mead, Helen Richardson and Sharon Bonno. One hundred eighty-three people were in the Potsdam and Colton Centers for services and 145 referrals were made to local landlords, Food Stamps, Energy Crisis Assistance Program, Social Security, Senior Opportunities Services, Christmas programs, North Country Legal Services, Thanksgiving baskets, Bureau of Motor Vehicles, Women's Shelter, Office for the Aging, Department of Social Services, Weatherization, Cooperative Extension, Medicaid, WIC, Well Child Clinic, and Winterization Day.

Nov. 3 was Winterization Day. Two hundred and five plastic windows were delivered to 23 families in Potsdam and Colton by Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity. The Norwood Jaycees were responsible for 13 families and 114 windows in Norwood and Norfolk.

Norwood, Colton and Potsdam Neighborhood Center Advisory Boards met in November. Other meetings included Special Friends, annual meeting of Literacy Volunteers of St. Lawrence County in Canton, and Inter-Agency with Linna Miller and Kyle Blanchfield, North Country Legal Services. Hilda Merrill, Cooperative Extension, conducted a nutrition class on apples at the Colton Neighborhood Center. Girl Scout Troop 215 and 4-H girls held their annual food drive for the Christmas program.

December:

Thirteen new contacts involving 50 people, 51 follow-ups involving 186 people, 112 people in the centers for services. One hundred sixty-two referrals were made to Social Security, Senior Opportunities Services, Energy Crisis Assistance Program, Delta Chi Delta Fraternity, Presbyterian Church, Norwood and Colton Christmas Programs, Santa's Workshop, Christmas baskets, WIC, Well Child Clinic, Weatherization, Medicaid, Special Friends, Office for the Aging, High School Equivalency Program, Home Assistance Program, and Cooperative Extension.

"Gifts from the Kitchen" classes were held by Hilda Merrill in Colton and Potsdam Centers. A Special Friends meeting, Colton and Potsdam Neighborhood Center Advisory Boards and Santa's Workshop meetings were held in December. Santa's Workshop was held this year in space generously donated by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Volunteer clerks during distribution days served 37 families, providing clothing and toys for 108 children. Twenty-seven senior citizens and 10 families received food baskets delivered by the Potsdam Rotary. A complete Christmas report is now being prepared, listing statistics and names of volunteers who donated many hours to insure the success of Santa's Workshop.

Colton Neighborhood Center distributed toys, food, and clothing to 25 families, 76 children and Norwood gave Christmas baskets and toys to 41 families, 65 children.
