

Facts and Fallacies.

Entered at the Post Office at Brushton, N. Y., as Second Class Matter.
Published Bi-weekly.

Vol. I.

Brushton, N. Y., Thursday, June 8, 1899.

No. 3.

Copy for Advertisements SHOULD be received at this office not later than next Thursday to ensure appearance in the next issue.

Sample Copy.

If you receive this paper as a sample copy please take it as an invitation from the publisher to subscribe: we need your subscription to make this publication a success and we shall highly appreciate an early subscription from you.

If you do not care to support a home paper, or for any other reason you do not want this little sheet, you will confer a favor upon the publisher by so informing him. We are willing to give our time to this publication for a little while without any financial remuneration if we have the encouragement of the public; but we do not care to sink money in the venture if there is no possibility of its eventually being successful.

Only 50-Cents a Year, Subscribe!

LOCALS.

Other local matter on inside pages.

Steve Paddock of Malone did business in town Tuesday.

Last week Wednesday night Mila Gale disappeared from home and has not been heard from since, he left a note for his wife saying he had gone to get work. There seems to be a sort of a mystery about the matter as there is no apparent cause for the action. His wife and child went to Brandon, Vt. her former home, last Thursday.

Mrs. A. B. Allen and Mrs. A. E. Barnett are in New York attending the commencement exercises of Columbia University from the medical department of which E. LeRoy Barnett graduates with high honors. Through merit Dr. Barnett has secured a most excellent position in one of the best hospitals in the City. He will not take up his duties there until after a vacation at home.

Ralph Hulett returned from a visit to Heuvelton, Tuesday.

Will Frye and Mr. Kelsey of Ft. Covington were in town Saturday.

Miss Tessie Kelley was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Newcombe, over Sunday.

Malone will celebrate the Fourth.

G. C. Greenleaf and family expect to go to Lake George soon, to pass the summer.

Lawyer Monteith has returned and has a law office at his residence on Main St.

There is a large attendance at the Holy Mission being held in the B-C church this week.

Fred Millington returned with his wife and child from Plattsburgh Monday night. Mrs. Millington is quite ill.

O. A. Babcock and Lewis Childs spent Sunday in town.

G. C. Greenleaf is making some repairs on his house that is occupied by Prof. Hulett.

Ralph Britton, who has been visiting at Mrs. Jarvis' the past two weeks returns to his home in Montpelier, Vt. this week.

The last legislature passed an amendment to the election law making it obligatory for each town to vote upon the license question at each town meeting:

Shipman's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. exhibited to a packed tent Monday evening. Their entertainment was quite good but somewhat abridged.

Ernest Frew returned May 30th, from Cala, where he has been for the past few months since his discharge from the army. In company with Arthur Phelps he will conduct the Oneita Hotel, situated near Everton, this season.

J. E. Brady left for New York last Thursday where he goes to represent North Star Lodge F. & A. M. at the Grand Lodge of the State. He made several stops on the way down, visiting his sister at Springfield and friends in Hartford.

Somebody left a grip at the corner near Rice's store Saturday night, it must have been a mistake as it contained three bottles of whiskey, but perhaps they did not want it for there seems to be plenty of the stuff around judging from the noise on the street nights after the stores are closed.

For
Dress Suits,
Business Suits,
Over Coats,
Trousers,
Fancy Vests,
Bicycle & Golf Suits

In Correct Styles,
at Lowest Prices,
and Made to Order

Go to
Paddock & Haskell, MALONE, N. Y.

Camera Contest.

The person presenting the largest number of the following coupons at this office on or before August 1st, will receive a Ray Camera FREE.

These coupons will appear in each number of this paper up to August 1st.

This Coupon counts One

This Coupon when filled out and accompanied with Fifty cents for one year's subscription to Facts and Fallacies counts the same as twenty-five single coupons.

Please send Facts and Fallacies for one year to the following address, I enclose 50 cents in payment of same.

Address.....

Credit Coupons to.....