

Tarbell-DeLong.

One of the prettiest weddings that has taken place in St. Peter's church for a long time occurred June 28th, when Miss Sara J. Tarbell of Brushton was united in marriage to Mr. Leslie I. DeLong of Bangor.

Promptly at three o'clock the bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Mable Turner. Throughout the ceremony soft music was rendered.

The bride was very tastefully gowned in cream colored corded silk. The maid of honor, Miss Lucia Bradley of Chicago, was attired in a dress of white organdie, and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Mr. Goulden of Potsdam was best man. The brides maids were Miss Althea Creighton of Malone and Miss Orda Woods of Brushton. Mr. Colton of Potsdam and Mr. Howard Hawkins acted as ushers.

The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and daisies.

After the marriage ceremony refreshments were served at Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sargent's. The bride and groom left on the 5:08 p. m. train amid a shower of rice for an extended bridal trip, visiting Burlington, Boston, New York, Albany and Syracuse.

The bride's going away gown was of castor brown covert cloth.

The presents were numerous and beautiful, showing the high esteem in which the young people are held.

North Bangor.

The fire fiend has again visited Bangor, almost entirely wiping out the business portion of the South village.

Newell Lee was in town last week to see if our people think best for him to go to jail next January.

One less candidate, Frank Steenberge has fallen out of the ranks and thinks store keeping is better than the sheriffship.

Mrs. Christine Ellis from Bellville is visiting her many friends in Bangor.

Mumps are still the order of the day. Mr. Elwin Tarbell's family has had the disease; they employed Miss Ellis, a Christian scientist, to treat them and consequently kept about their work while their more unfortunate neighbors employed a doctor and were laid on a bed of sickness.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Carrie Barnum at her residence last Thursday. Mrs. Barnum fell last week on a defective slice and was very seriously hurt. It will probably cost the town quite a large amount unless settled.

Miss Anna Plumb is visiting her sister at Brandon Station.

Mrs. Flora Rouch visited her sister at Buck Mt. and her daughter at McCollom's last week.
