Locals.

Miss Anna Harris is visiting friends in Vermont.

We are glad to see J. S. Quinn about again.

Dr. J. Randolph Quinn, of Brooklyn, visited his mother and brothers last week.

Mrs. Green and children, of Watertown, are spending the summer with her father, E. A. Larkin.

Henry Kelley, of Norfolk, brother of Mrs. Newcombe, is buying berries at the depot, he expects to remain here until after black berries are past.

Mrs. O. C. Taylor and children, of Burlington, Vt., are visiting at her sister's, Mrs. Jennie Belknap, for a few weeks.

Mr. Howe, of Cortland, N. Y. has been engaged as principal of the Moira Union School for the next year. Mr. Saunders resigned and will take up the study of law.

George W. Harris has been appointed D. D. G. M. of the 41st Masonic district, by M. W., Wright D. Pownall, Grand Master of Masons in State of New York.

When one reads of the loss of life and damage by lightning in the near vicinity during the past month, the people in Brushton should feel that they have been very fortunate.

Charles H. Smith has been elected to represent Court Brushton, I. O. F. at the High Court, Independent Order of Foresters, of New York State to be held at Alexandria Bay, beginning 5th of September.

C. A. Loveland and granddaughter, Miss Sarah Bullis started for Grand Isle, Vt. last Thursday, to visit his son. They drove and stopped at Burke and Chazy to visit friends on the way. Mr. Loveland's old home was Grand Isle, he came from there to this place about 50 years ago. This makes the fourth successive season that he has driven there.

A. L. Donaldson will again have charge of the dining hall and general supply store on the camp ground during camp meeting this year. Mr. Donaldson has conducted the dining hall the past two years very successfully and to the satisfaction of all. 21 meal tickets will be sold this year for $4.00, to be used by the purchaser and his family only. Heretofore parties have purchased these tickets and thus secured single meals at a price that is intended for regular boarders only.
