

Canadian Armed Forces transport near Cornwall.

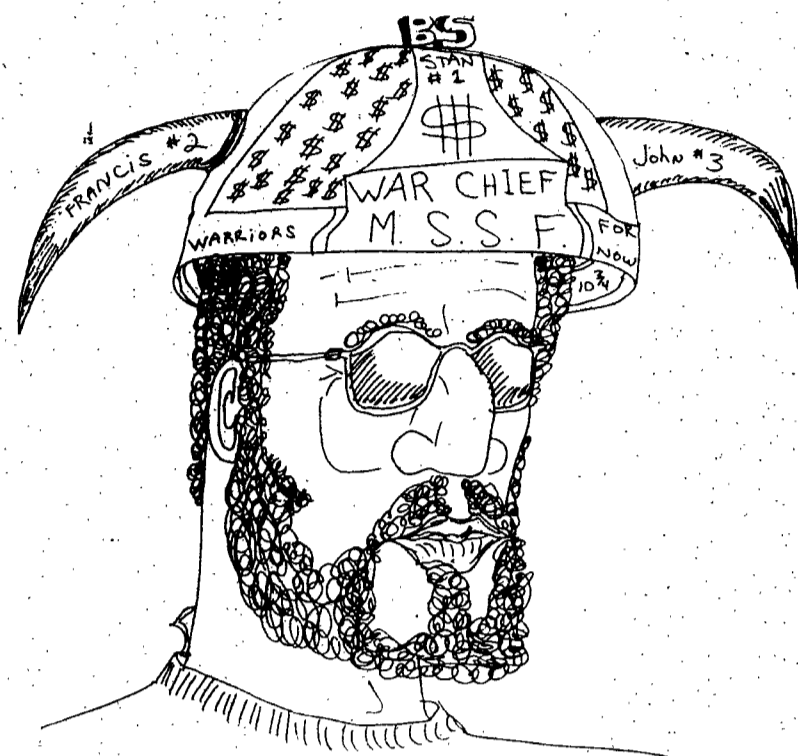

Anti-terrorist police officers observe roadblocks on Cornwall Island.

Armored vehicles of Canadian Armed Forces on stand by in Cornwall Island.

O.P.P. Officer stands guard at the Cornwall Island barricade.

The real WAR Chief

Question: What do we do now STAN?

ANSWER: FRANCIS, Johnny, don't worry, be happy. STAN.

Where Did You Go!

Playing football in the yard with family and friends having fun, laughing and joking talking about friendship until the world ends.

Walking around on a beautiful day neighbours wave with a friendly smile saying hello as you pass by talking and visiting for a while.

Unity days were so much fun until the unity went away friendships and families split apart never expecting to see this day.

Now fighting and shooting is the way we live we lead new normal lives its brothers against brothers and husbands against wives.

Lies and honesty are twisted around people are talking but no one hears a sound.

Now the outside is in and there's nothing we can do the trust still isn't there between me and you.

What will happen now will we ever know peace! Where are you? Where did you go?

Peters '90

Okwarine Gas Station

"Original Home of the Bear" RT 37 - Across From The Akwesasne Emergency Team

- Super & Regular Unleaded, Diesel Fuel
- Dairy Products, Soda, Chips, Stewart Sandwiches
- Cigarettes
- Chewing Tobacco
- Open 24 Hours

Students at Headstart happy to return to their friends and teachers.

Hogansburg Headstart Program Students return to School

Students from Headstart in Hogansburg returned to school May 8, 1990 after forced to close their doors for the sake of the safety of the children. Headstart has been closed since March 23, 1990, when the barricades were set up on Route 37. Since the arrival of the New York State Police, school and tribal officials were assured of the safety of the students and staff. Barbara Parnell, program specialist of the Health and Human Services Division of the federal government, which funds Head Start, agreed to extend the school year by two weeks. This will allow students to meet requirements of the program. Classes will end on Friday, June 8.

Vervilles Flowers
 "The Home of Flowers with Flair"
 Happy Easter '90
 Our Own - Easter Parade Bouquets
 *Starting at $15.00
 Easter Showcase - Plants & Silks Galore!
 plus
 FTD and Teleflora Easter Specials
 235 E. Orvis St. 769-3581 Massena

Mexicali Rosa's

Willie and Lucy Papineau, along with the staff would like to thank you for your patronage. It's been a great year! The restaurant has been a tremendous success.