On Saturday May 2, the guys laced up their sneakers and hit the floor of the Water Street Arena. Last year Oionkwahonwe Enterprises took over half the season to get their first win. Last week they won their first regular season game over last years Champions Roundpoint Construction, Final score 8-7. Peter Burns Jr. continued his scoring touch from last year as he recorded three goals plus an assist. Scott Thomas, Vaughn Arquette, Lewis Morris and Mark Jacobs scored one each to round off the scoring for the win. Jacobs picked up two assists and Thomas got one assist. Louie Mitchell scored three goals for Roundpoint. Bruce Roundpoint had a pair and Mike Mitchell and B.J.

MacDonald chipped in with one each. Roundpoint also had three assists and Mike Mitchell scored two. In game two, Brian Hein scored two as Ray-Co dropped Okwarine Fuel Station 10-4. Tom Dawley scored twice and Dick Jock, Danny Oakes, Robert Seymour, Larry Garrow and Joe Oakes helped out with one goal each. Jock had two assists. Alex Roundpoint, Ron Cree, Rheel Struthers and Dave Sunday did the scoring for Okwarine. Goaltender Ray Day picked up an assist. He and She Clippers led by Oliver Hills four goals defeated Benedict Lacrosse 10-8. Alan MacDonell, Jerry Burns, Danny Thompson, Boss Bucktooth, Mac Thomas and Art Sinfield scored for the Clippers. Thomas got four assists and Hill two. Lax. Vet Dave White scored four goals for Benedict Lacrosse along with one assist. Russell Roundpoint, Roger St. Louis, Ernie David and Bill Kennedy scored one each. First year player Ben Benedict collected three assists. In goal for Benedict was Frank Thompson and on the other end Belson Tarbell. The evening featured a tribute to Lacrosse legends Angus "Shine" George and John Jacobs. The faithful fans stayed for the entire night and are appreciated. There were games played last night but Indian Time went to press prior. These match-ups will be in next weeks issue.

Pine Trees Win Island Tournament

by Derrick Paul/Staff. The rain did not keep the Cornwall Island Pine Trees and other teams off the floor in the tournament on Thursday April 30. The event was part of Native Heritage Week at the school. Other festivities included a fashion show and an exhibition tyke lacrosse game in the AMS gym. In game one the Pine Trees fell short of Tyendinga 5-3. Kody Thompson and Rudy King scored for AMS with Mandy Francis assisting twice. The Bay of Quintes top scorers were Craig Fuller and Brian Brant, each with two. Ben Green scored the other goal for the visitors. Penny Peters was in nets for the Island and she performed admirably for the rest of the Tournament. In game two Jimbo Barnes scored Salmon's only goal as they fell short of Kahnawake 3-1. Brandon Cross scored twice for Kahnawake with Eugene Cross chipping in with one. Each team was assessed eight minutes in penalties in this affair. In game three of this round robin event, the second Cornwall Island team, the Akweks were trounced by Tyendinga 8-1.

Fuller and Brant went to work again with Brant scoring four and Fuller scoring once. Clint Brant scored twice and Ben Green scored once but added two assists. The visitors had seven goals on the board before Heather Cook set up Shawn Chubb for their goal. Game four saw the Pine Trees and Kahnawake battle to a two all tie. Nick Sunday scored both goals for the home team, Chris Simon and Shannon Hemlock getting the markers for Kahnawake. In game five, Jimbo Barnes and Troy Benedict did all the scoring for Salmon River as they dropped the Akweks 9-4. Shawn Chubb scored two goals with Mindy Delormier and Brennan Thompson adding one goal each. Tyendinga took on Kahnawake in game 6 and extended their unbeaten streak with a 5-2 win. Fuller again stole the show for Quinte Bay as he racked up the hat-trick. Other goals came from Jason Maracle and Brian Brant. The two goals for the opposition were by Sunshine Snow. That same Kahnawake played next against the AMS Akweks and pulled off a 7-2 decision. Three goals were scored by Eugene Cross for the visitors. Single tallies were from Sunshine Snow, Duke Lebergne, Chris Simon and Shannon Hemlock. Mindy Delormier and Shawn Chubb scored for the Akweks. In the next game (#8), The Pine Trees took a tough game from Salmon River 7-5. Once again Jimbo Barnes scored three goals with Troy Benedict picking up one. Jeremy Jacobs scored three for AMS. Peter Hopps and Rudy King each scored twice. Hopps also picked up two assists. The two teams from Akwesasne faced off in game nine with Brennan Thompson scoring twice for the Akweks and Dany David scoring three for the Pine Trees. The Trees won the game 7-3. T.J. Point scored the other Akweks goal while Kody Thompson, Jimmy-John Jock and Nick Sunday scored one each for the Trees. In game ten Craig Fuller and Brian
