

Salmon River Students Recognized for their Native American Project/Contest

Misty Garrow - Best Overall Project

Corene Deer - Best reading & drawing

Donna Johnson - Most Resourceful

The theme for this year's reading/writing contest was First Americans. Students in Mrs. B. White's remedial reading classes were given project choices of short biographies of Native Americans from history, present day Native Americans, or legends.

Some students read a legend, drew a scene from the legend, then recorded the legend on audio cassette and wrote their short interpretation of the legend.

Others read about a Native American, drew a scene from his/her biography and wrote a short paper on why other students should learn about this particular person.

Another creative group of five students read a short "coyote" fable, adapted it into a play, and presented it to Mrs. Savage's third grade class.
