Akwesasne Mohawk Police Report

On the 29th of March, 1996, Central Dispatch received a report of a house fire on Recreation Road on Cornwall Island. The Akwesasne-Hogansburg Volunteer Fire Department and the Akwesasne Mohawk Police Service attended the scene. The residence, rented by Esther Square Thompson, was extensively damaged by smoke and water and the victim lost all her belongings. The Akwesasne Mohawk Police and Fire Investigator James Lazore have determined the cause of the fire to be arson. There are no suspects at this time and the Police are urging anyone with any information regarding this fire to contact the Mohawk Police at 613-575-2340 or Crime stoppers at 1-800-265-TIPS or 937-8477.

On March 30, 1996, officials at Canada Customs contacted the Akwesasne Mohawk Police reporting they had detained a male subject for Impaired Operation of a motor vehicle. James Buckshot, 30 years of age was arrested and charged. He appeared in Provincial Court in Cornwall on the charges of Impaired Operation, Refuse to provide Breath Sample and Breach of Probation.

On the 6th of April, 1996, Canada Customs notified the Akwesasne Mohawk Police to report they have detained an intoxicated female subject for Impaired Driving. Deborah Ann Morin of Cornwall was arrested and charged for Impaired Operation and Refusal to provide Breath Sample. She was released on a Promise to Appear and scheduled to appear in Provincial Court at a later date.

On the 8th of April, 1996, the Akwesasne Mohawk Police received a report of a Break and Enter & Theft on Pilon Island. Investigation into this incident is ongoing as well as prior incidents of the same nature. Anyone with information are asked to contact the Akwesasne Mohawk Police.
