

—Miss Hazel Weed has returned from a month's stay in New York.

—Mrs. Frank Wright visited her friend Mrs. Jesse Crossman, at Colton the past week.

—O. S. Htokok left Saturday for Westville, Franklin Co., where he has a position as teacher.

—Miss Villa Walrath of Madrid Springs is spending a few days in town the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Snell.

—Another one of those good 15 cent teas to be served this evening, (March 2nd) by the W. R. C. ladies up in the G. A. R. Hall. Supper served from 5:30 till 7.

—The village fathers have adopted a curfew law to take effect April 1, after which date the youngsters will have to watch out for the cops when the bell rings.

—One of the pleasant dances of the season was held in the I. O. O. F. hall the evening of February 23. About 65 couples were in attendance, the Gull orchestra furnished music, refreshments were served and everybody enjoyed themselves.

—The paper makers of the present day are turning out a very poor and inferior grade of paper. It is all wood pulp, brittle and easily torn, and we don't blame readers of newspapers for kicking at the poor quality of paper used. The paper is so poor that it is actually difficult to run it through the press without tearing it.

—The Comedian of the Chas. T. False Comedy Co., Mr. Frederick H. Wilson, quitted the organization last Saturday and will remain in Potsdam a few weeks. He is heavily engaged upon a new play entitled "In the Service of Mankind." It will be finished in the course of a fortnight. His spring tour opens April 4th in "As You Like It."

—Miss Edith Brown, who has been teaching grade work at Dist. No. 17, has resigned to accept a position as teacher of sewing and dandy in the schools of Grand Rapids, Mich. Miss Brown is daughter of Richard Brown of Colton, and has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Little for several years. She holds a Domestic Science certificate from the Tech. Her place in No. 17 is being supplied by Mrs. R. K. Fobes.

—Mr. S. S. Stone has resigned his position as leader of the Potsdam Military Band, thus enabling him to give his entire time to his studies at the Clarkson Tech, where he finishes the course in Electrical Engineering next year. Mr. Stone has been leader of the band for the past nine years, and during that time has maintained a high standard of musical excellence. Negotiations are being made by the managers to secure the services of Mr. O. H. Vance to fill the vacancy. Mr. Vance needs no eulogy from us. He is a recognized conductor and musician of well known ability and it is to be hoped that he may be engaged to carry on the work so successfully started by the retiring leader.

—The anxiously awaited game of basket ball between the local team and the team which took place in the Normal gymnasium Thursday evening, and was witnessed by a large, enthusiastic and amused audience. It was a game full of interesting and unexpected movements on the part of the players, and when they took inventory at the close of the performance the score of baskets and fouls was found to be alike for each side, the recorded score being 4-4. Nearly all the players were able to take up their regular work the following Monday, and a return game is scheduled for the same date next leap year. At the beginning of the game the teams were as follows: Local—J. F. Smith, F. A. Wood, Dr. Deans, J. R. Weston. Faculty—Prof. Rosegrant, Prof. Bailey, Prof. Bond, Prof. Allen, Prof. Hathorne. The performance netted about $80 for the gymnasium fund.

—The following program has been arranged for the Browning Club, which will meet with Mrs. Streiber March 14th. Topics, Karahlah, Discussion, Mrs. Jessie Giffith, Paper, Hibernia Synopsals of Browning, Dr. Kirby, Book Review, Cooks Poets and Problems, Mrs. Botsford, Questions on Karahlah.—1. Would you place "Karahlah" among Browning's great poems? Where? 2. Reason for unusual amount of detail in poem? 3. Clearly state the case from medical point of view. 4. Examples of scientific knowledge and technical caution on the part of the physician, Karahlah. 5. What do you regard as the special point in the tale? 6. Why did Browning introduce the leopard? 7. What was the meaning of the name, "some say Vespadore, some say his son." 8. Value of introducing theories as to cause? 9. Meaning of expression, "Who liveth there in the Pyramid"? 10. Why is the poem a remarkable study?

—Mr. William J. Woods, a prominent lawyer of New York city and son of Mr. John Woods of this village, died in New York last week. Mr. Woods was born in Ogdensburg thirty-eight years ago. He entered St. Lawrence University where he took high rank as a student graduating in the class of '88. About two years later he entered the law department of Columbia College graduating with honors. While in St. Lawrence University he was a member of the Alpha Omicron Chapter of A. T. O. fraternity and has always remained loyal to that fraternity. While in Columbia College, in company with Ernest J. Murphy, another St. Lawrence man, he assisted in founding a chapter of A. T. O. Since his admission to the bar he has pursued his profession in New York and has been very successful. A few weeks ago he underwent an operation for appendicitis and pneumonia followed this. He was, however, recovering when he became afflicted with pneumonia and died from its effects. Among those from Northern New York who attended the last sad rites were his parents who were called to the city by his illness, and District Attorney C. E. Ferris, of Potsdam, who came to St. Lawrence. Interment took place in New York. Besides the wife two children survive.

—Mr. John Butler is passing the cigars on the birth of a nine pound daughter yesterday.

—Mrs. Dan Lewis has returned home from Canton, where she has been during the illness and death of her sister Mrs. Chas. Caldwell.

—Henry Emery was called to Stowe, Vt. last week to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Steven Hood, who died very suddenly of apoplexy.

—The Young People's Dramatic Club will present "Out of Bondage" at the Opera House Thursday evening, March 17, for the benefit of St. Mary's church.

—The third lucky holder of a key to L. O. F. Ball's cash box turned up Monday. It was Mr. O. C. Connolly and he took the remaining four silver dollars.

—Mrs. Dennis Murphy is expected home this week from Cohoes, where she has been attending her daughter Mrs. Brown, who has been having a run of typhoid fever.

—The motor for the fire alarm has finally arrived and the bell has been kept clanging for the past few days, testing the apparatus. It will be ready for service soon.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Mead are entertaining her brother Mr. O. E. Valley, wife and daughter Dorothy of Wisconsin, who has been absent 21 years and also a brother A. H. Valley of Watertown, N.Y.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sanford left Monday for New York, and expect to visit Palm Beach, Fla. and other southern points before their return. The Board of Directors of the Peoples Bank at their annual meeting in January gave Mr. Sanford a leave of absence to suit his pleasure.

—On Monday Mr. James Lemmon celebrated a half century of business in the stone store. In March 1854 he purchased the place of A. T. Hopkins, and began business with H. N. Allen as a partner. He enjoys the distinction of being the only merchant on the street who has had an uninterrupted business career of 50 years in the same place.

—On the evening of February 24, a very pleasant birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Austin on the Hopkinton road. It was a very stormy evening but a goodly number of relatives and friends joined them in honoring the day. The evening was passed pleasantly with games, songs and recitations, after which a bountiful repast was served and with best wishes the gathering broke up.

—The sociological section of the Fortnightly Club will meet Monday evening, March 7th, with Mrs. Lovelace. Social effects of transportation will be the subject for discussion. Dr. Reynolds will read a paper on, "The effects of transportation of commodities." Mrs. Sumner will discuss in a paper "The effects of modern facilities for travel and communication." Recent sociological happenings reported by Mrs. Cols, Mrs. Countryman and Mr. Coubly.

—At Brookville Thursday evening Levi Jackson, a well known painter of that town, was married to Miss Florence Hamilton of Potsdam. The ceremony which took place at the residence of the groom's stepfather, James Ingraham, was performed by Rev. O. G. Dobbs, pastor of St. Paul's church, and was witnessed by upwards of sixty guests. The happy couple were attended throughout the ceremony by the groom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alice Jackson of Ogdensburg. At the conclusion of the ceremony supper was served, after which the guests tripped the light fantastic until the early hours of Friday morning.

—On the evening of Feb. 23 the relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Garlough gathered at their pleasant and hospitable home on the South Canton road to properly observe the eighteenth anniversary of their married life. The evening was very pleasantly passed with recitations and singing, after which Mr. W. F. P. Seely in a few well chosen words spoke of the presents and the good cheer shown and said that such gatherings were a benefit to us all binding us closer together and keeping us young and in touch with our neighbors. A very nice lunch was served, after which by request, Mrs. Austin led in singing "God Keep us till we meet again." The company then broke up leaving their kind regards and wishes of many returns of the day.

FOR VILLAGE OFFICERS

Republicans Nominates and Democrats Endorse.

Purposely to call the Republican caucus was held in Freeman's Hall Friday evening. The organization was made by the election Dr. F. L. Dewey, chairman; H. H. Fay and L. J. Eastman, secretaries; and R. L. Simon and W. M. Hawkins, tellers. About 180 were present, and all nominations were unopposed except for collector, where Mr. B. S. Bronson and Mr. J. S. Kellogg were contestants, Mr. Kellogg receiving 86 and Mr. Bronson 75 votes. The tickets as nominated is: President, George Lewis; Trustee, W. N. Seely; Trustee, L. C. F. Ball; Assessor, M. H. Abnam; Collector, J. S. Kellogg; Treasurer, J. P. Bonney; Reading Room Trustee, C. E. Sanford. The old village committee, C. S. Ferris, W. T. Hinman, E. W. Flagg, H. H. Fay and C. A. Barnett, were reappointed, with power to fill any vacancies which might arise in the ticket.

The Democratic caucus was held Monday night and organized with Ed Lenney, Chairman; George Barnet, Secretary; J. P. Butler and Theo. Woods, Tellers. There were about 40 present, and an earnest discussion arose regarding the nomination of a ticket. It was finally decided however that the best they could do was to endorse the Republican nominees, and which the caucus proceeded to do. The village committee, C. A. Murphy, F. H. Peck, and Jerry Donnan were re-appointed.

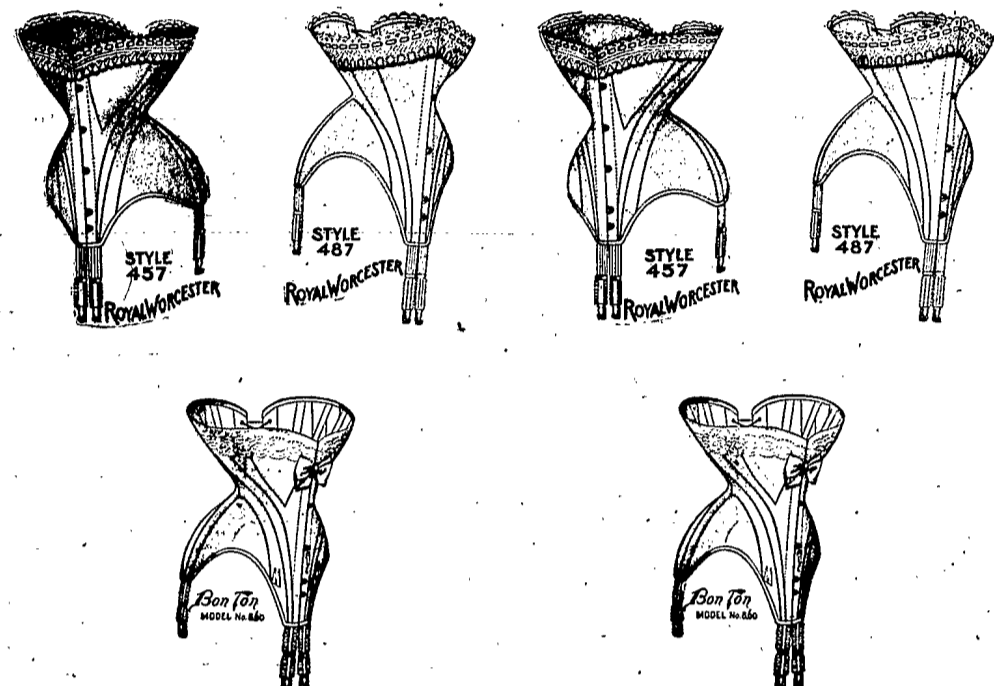

Underhill pays express, telegraph or telephone necessary on orders of five dollars and up to Potsdam.

The simplicity of its construction is one of the reasons why the Franklin is the best. I. W. Gray, Agent, 302 3 Taggart Block, Watertown, N. Y.

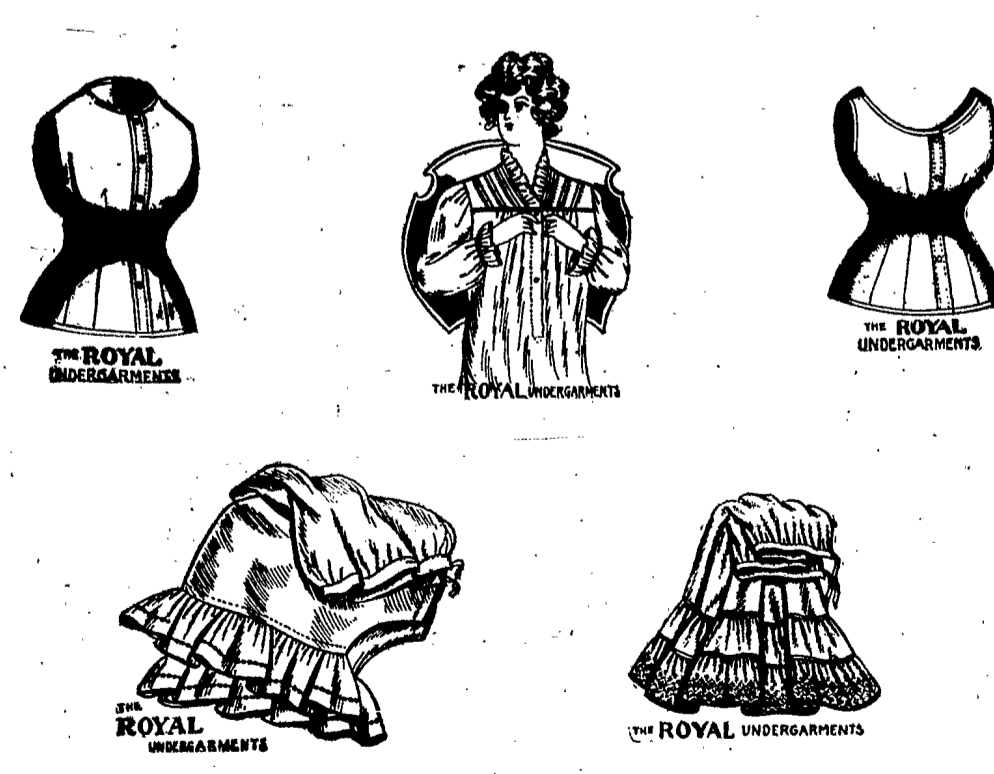

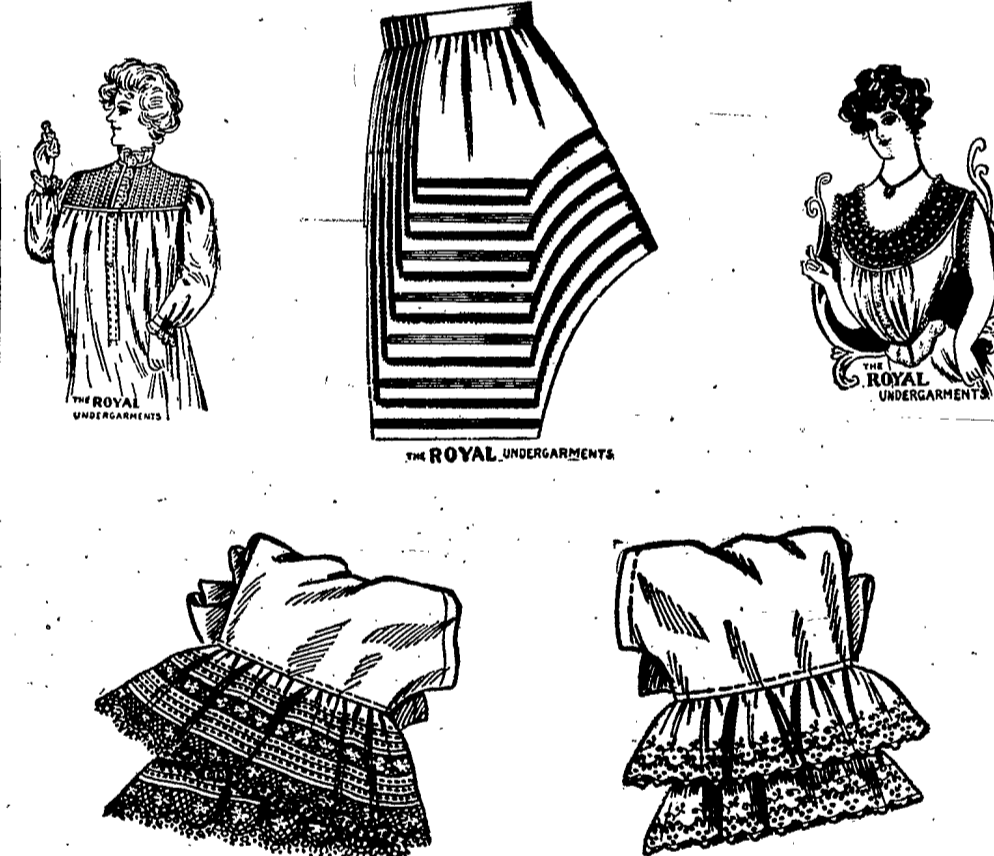

COMBINATION SALE

Every Lady Should Be Interested.

Royal Worcester Corsets.

Royal Muslin Underwear.

The Howe Millinery and Cloak Store POTSDAM, N. Y.

Dissolution Sale

The partnership existing between H. M. Story Jr. and E. E. Olmstead under firm name of

Story & Olmstead,

is to be dissolved by mutual consent of all parties concerned. Our stock is about $3000 larger than the basis of the dissolution calls for and

THIS STOCK MUST BE REDUCED.

To do this we shall make some Remarkably Low Prices on all kinds of merchandise in stock. THIS IS NO FAKE SALE. We are in earnest. Original cost of goods not to be considered. The more reasonable the goods the less cut in the price. The more out of season the goods the greater cut in the price. Our store is well filled with good desirable and up to date dry goods of all kinds. A chance to supply your wants now Regardless of the Cost of the Merchandise.

This Sale Will Continue the Balance of the Week, Ending Saturday, March 5.

Space will not admit of a quotation of the changes of prices in our stock. Only to say that the Reduction of Price extends throughout the store. The public are well acquainted with the reputation of this store to do just what it advertises in every particular. Our policy has not and will not change. Give us an opportunity to sell you Dry Goods at prices that will surely be satisfactory to you.

The Story & Olmstead Store Next to People's Bank, Potsdam, N. Y.

The Great Combination Sale

FROM FACTORY AND STORE AT

The Big Store

Will Begin Thursday, March 3rd, and will Continue Two Weeks.

This Sale will embrace Every Department in the store and particularly WHITE GOODS, LINENS and MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

At the same time we will place on sale all our Odd Lengths of LACE FLOUNCINGS that have accumulated in our Factory during the year, ranging in length from one to twenty yards. The price made on these goods are a mere fraction of their actual value.

SEE OUR HAND BILLS FOR PRICES ON

Bleached and Unbleached Sheetings, India Linens, Long Cloths, Mercerized Waistings, Lawns, Table Damasks, Table Napkins, Mill Ends of fine Irish Linen Damask, 2, 2 1/2 and 3 yd. lengths:

A Big advance has taken place on Crash Towelings. We bought a big quantity for this Sale before the advance, you will get them at the old price and a 10 Per Cent. Discount in buying them by the piece.

Special Low Prices on Carpets, Lace Curtains and Window Shades during this sale. Ready-to-Wear Goods of every kind at Reduced Prices. Ladies Suits from $4.98 up. Fur Boas, Muffs and Ladies, Misses and Childrens Coats go at One-Half Price.

Sale Begins Thursday March 3. Note Low Prices Quoted in Our Hand Bills.

Cadzow & Greig.

20 New Lasts.

We have just received 500 Pairs of the Celebrated W. L. Douglas Shoes for Spring.

Twenty New Lasts of the Greatest Shoe having more intrinsic value than any other on the American Market. We will have the greatest pleasure in showing them because we are convinced that we can easily fill every want for a stylish and servicable shoe.

$3.50 Shoe

We are in receipt of so many New Spring Goods of every kind in our line that it keeps us studying where to place them.

Come in and look at them, as the New Styles in Furnishings and Clothing for Spring are Special attractions.

GOLDSMITH'S The Strictly One Price Clothing and Shoe Store, Potsdam, N. Y.

