

Republican Town Caucus. A caucus of the Republicans of Potsdam...

Mr. C. M. McCann is in New York looking up the latest ideas in spring millinery.

Miss Grace Kellam of Becherstown, visited her cousin, Miss Ida Chambers, last week.

A new comic opera has made a great hit in New York this winter. Come and see selections from it at Town Hall, March 24th.

The milk receiver here has been dismantled and Mr. Griffin has moved his family to West Camden to take charge of a cheese factory there.

Mr. H. H. Swift went to Rochester Monday, taking a handsome pair of Shepherd dogs which he has entered in the dog show now being held there.

The A. Sherman Lumber Co. has built a row of piers from the head of Fall Island up the East channel to Mathews Shore.

The old row of piers across the river will be taken out, and logs will be driven down on the East side instead of going around by the cemetery.

At the head of Fall Island the logs will be taken across to the West branch as there is no log slide to the new stone dam.

The piano pupils of Mrs. F. E. Hathorne gave a musical at her home on Elm street, Saturday afternoon March 12.

Several were prevented from playing by the grip. The program was presented with great credit to both pupils and teacher by the following: Winifred Franklin, Mabel Chase, Eva Allen, Margaret Riggs, Leah Jenkins, Gladys Hawkins, Bertha Tuttle, Florence Mallen.

Archibald and William Cole, sons of Rev. Leonard T. Cole, of West Stockholm, have been awarded each a scholarship of $100 a year, for four years or $800 by Rev. E. D. Warfield, D. D., LL. D., President of Lafayette College, Easton, Penn., whenever they are ready to enter that institution.

The scholarships are granted in recognition of Rev. Cole's labors in the Presbyterian denomination, and on condition that the boys do good work and maintain good conduct both before and after entering the institution.

Mrs. Jane Fuller, a lifelong resident of Potsdam, died at her home March 9. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Pierce, pioneers from Vermont, and was born here November 28, 1818.

In 1840 she married Henry H. Fuller, and for more than thirty years they lived on the farm beyond the one now owned by B. E. South. For many years she has lived in the village with her daughter Mrs. Bowker, and by her cheerful spirit, kindly ways and loving disposition, she gathered a host of friends.

She leaves four children, Mrs. Henrietta Bowker and Miss Emma Fuller, of Potsdam; Mrs. Ella D. Manning, teaching at Tupper Lake, and Mr. Eugene A. Fuller, principal of a Ward School at Bronville, Greater New York. Funeral services were held at her late home Friday, Rev. E. B. Saunders officiating, and the remains were interred in the family lot in Garfield cemetery.

During the past week additional spaces for windows in the new M. E. church have been reserved by Rev. W. D. Marsh, Mr. C. G. Rogers, Mrs. L. C. F. Ball, Mrs. H. L. Mattoon and the little folks of the primary class. Out of about fifty windows in the entire church not over a third are left.

The subject of the Christian Science service for next Sunday is "Reality." Services are held at 47 Main street every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and every Wednesday evening at 7:15.

The Woman's Missionary Society will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Swan, No. 4 Pierpont ave., next Thursday at 9 o'clock.

The Fortnightly Club. The Sociological section of the Fortnightly Club will meet with Mrs. Norse, 31 Waverly street, March 21. Topic: "The Social Influence of Public Schools." Programme: The Influence of Association, Mrs. Helene Bonney; The Influence of Common Teaching and Ideals, Dr. Stowell.

The Browning Section of the Fortnightly Club will hold its next meeting on Monday, March 22nd, with Mrs. Griffith, 72 Main St. Prof. Flegg will have charge of the discussion. Programme: Paper, "Browning in Italy," Mrs. Simpson. Gleanings about Browning from Visit to Italy, Miss Charles.

Poems to be discussed: "Abt Vogler," "Poetics of Gelpert?" Questions: The force of the illustration of the building of Solomon's temple? Technically speaking, what is the significance of stanzas two and three? Relate the imagery in stanza five to the musical structure of the artist. Where in the poem is the climax of his vision? It is Browning's creed that perfection on earth is made impossible by the limitations of this life; what were the musician's limitations? What in the life and work of Abt Vogler attracted Browning? Is it the true mission of art to create some outward thing of beauty? What is the argument in stanza nine? How can the world be utilized as a means of growth? In this poem does the transitoriness of music show its superiority as an art? As being more intangible than other arts does it better accomplish the high purpose of art? Interpret stanza twelve in terms of the musician's experience. Is the spirit here one of regret, resignation or confidence?
