

Republican Town Caucus.

A caucus of the Republicans of Potsdam will be held in the Town Hall in the Village of Potsdam on Saturday, April 2, 1904, at 10 o'clock a. m. for the purpose of electing three delegates to the County Assembly before the Convention on Monday, April 4, at one o'clock a. m. and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the Convention.

Mr. L. J. Brownell, who has been suffering from a very severe attack of grip is able to be out again.

Miss Jane Harrington is in New York buying her spring goods and looking up the latest styles in millinery.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Bogue of Syracuse are in town visiting Mrs. Bogue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hartford.

Mr. Eugene Jewett, formerly of Potsdam has recently become sole proprietor of a wholesale and retail tea, coffee and spice store in Rochester.

Mrs. F. M. Heath and family returned to Yonkers, Monday night. It is said they will return at an early date to Potsdam, and remain until the season opens at Lake Ontario.

Thursday evening March 18th, Elizabeth Randall and Nellie Cottrell both of Potsdam N. Y. were united in marriage at the M. E. parsonage Colton N. Y. by Rev. Joseph Lobb.

Mrs. Sarah E. Starbuck, District Deputy Grand Matron of the 10th Eastern Star District, will make her official visit to Vega Chapter, No. 89, O. E. S., on Friday evening, March 25, 1904.

Rev. C. C. Mayfield, who is now one of the State Evangelists of the Baptist church, is doing good work in Connecticut. The Moosup Journal says of him: "Rev. Mayfield is an earnest powerful speaker. The whole town has been stirred."

Mr. S. S. Wood, one of the oldest residents of Potsdam, died at midnight Sunday at his home two miles South of town. The funeral will be held from the home at 10 o'clock Thursday morning and burial will be at So. Canton. The deceased was in his 88th year.

Mrs. Wm. Frank died Sunday morning at her home in Colton aged 87 years. She has been a resident of that place nearly all her life and was beloved by all who knew her. She leaves to mourn her loss four daughters and eight sons besides a host of other relatives and friends. The greatest sympathy is felt for her bereaved family.

Now that the Fire Department has its new quick hitch harness, it has a fire equipment which is equalled by but few villages. The fire alarm system, the hose, the hose wagon, the ladder and the new harness enable them to handle any ordinary conflagration in good shape. The rapidity of reaching a fire largely determines the loss, and as a test of quickness, Trustee Bryson sent in an alarm from the Bay Street box one day, and in 3 1/2 minutes the wagon was at the spot. Such fire protection not only saves property but materially aids in reducing insurance rates.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Buitolph of Norfolk threw open their home for a birthday party to Miss Jane Cross on her sixteenth birthday, Saturday, March 20. Miss Cross was invited over there by the guests. She had a very pleasant party and was very happy to return of the day. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in visiting and music and then at 5 o'clock they were served to tea on the porch. Miss Cross was best as could be expected. Twenty-two dollars and numerous other useful presents from her Norfolk and Potsdam friends.

The community was startled Sunday morning to learn of the sudden death of Miss Della Harrington. She had been staying at the residence of C. E. Sanford during their trip South, and on Saturday called in a doctor. Nothing serious was apprehended however, but in the early morning death occurred, heart weakness from which she had long been a sufferer, being the cause. Miss Harrington was born in Stockholm 33 years ago, the daughter of John R. and Eliza Green Harrington. Most of her life has been spent in Potsdam, where she has engaged in the occupation of dress making. Notwithstanding her deformity and constant suffering, she was always industrious, and obedient, and though alone in the world, she did her work as best she could, uncomplainingly. Funeral services were held from her former home with Mr. and Mrs. Cornell on Chestnut street Tuesday.

A very delightful entertainment was provided at the opera house last Thursday evening when the Dramatic Club of St. Mary's Church presented the drama "Out of Bondage". The play was a difficult one for amateurs, and the ability displayed in its production showed unlimited work by the participants, and was unqualified applause from the audience. The parts were taken by M. G. Barnett, R. L. Barnett, R. S. Rivers, W. J. Coleman, James Hurley, Fred Brown, Miss Rose Toney, Miss Joe Crowley, Mrs. Mattie Hall, Miss Alice Brown, and Miss Ann Thayer, and they were all stars in their respective roles. An interesting program of specialties was also provided, one of the best being some charming dancing by the little Nightingale sisters. Other specialties were given by Mr. F. H. Wilson, Earl Brown and Fred Brown, and the Roman orchestra furnished several beautiful songs. Mrs. Fannie Towrie Clark and Mr. F. T. E. Slason, who were on the program for solo were unable to appear. Mrs. Clark being afflicted with a sore throat, and Mr. Slason being called out of town. The hall was packed to the doors, the rending applause and the illustration of how Methodists folks buckle faith and work together. The congregation pledged or paid upwards of three hundred

—Mr. F. T. E. Slason was in Albany last week.

—Mrs. W. N. Sealy, who has been ill, is now convalescent.

—Mrs. R. H. Simonds and little daughter, of Pierpont Manor, spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Miles.

—Mr. Fred Kaxiner has taken an appeal to the appellate division against the judgment of conviction for violation of excise recently given at County Court.

—The Athletic Association at the Normal, assisted by the faculty will give a concert in Normal Hall tomorrow evening which promises to afford an evening of unlimited fun. The program is given in another column.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roble came up from Watertown Saturday, where Mr. Roble is engaged in the City Hotel. He returned Tuesday and Mrs. Roble will remain some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Stone.

—Mr. J. A. Hale received the pleasing news last week that he and his children had each received a legacy of $5,000, left them by Mr. Hale's half-brother, Mr. Alvina Hayward of California. Those receiving $5,000 are: J. A. Hale, J. E. Hale, H. J. Hale, Mrs. J. A. Magnon, Mrs. E. Sackett, Mrs. E. E. Kinball.

—Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Stone leave for New York Friday to visit their children. There will be five of them. Mrs. Emma Stone Jameson who lives in Brooklyn; Misses Ida and Minnie Stone who are teaching in New York, Mr. Geo. Stone who is teaching in Newark, N. J. and Mr. Roy Stone who is at Cornell. Including the grand-children there will be a family reunion of ten.

—The house belonging to A. L. Lockwood and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan on Pine street caught fire about noon Monday. There was no one at home when the fire broke out, and it apparently started under the roof near the chimney. Mr. Sullivan got his furniture out safely. There was considerable damage done to the house, the roof being burned through, and the whole place being badly water soaked. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

—The St. Patrick's ball given in Macabee hall, March 19th, although not very largely attended, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The Gaiety orchestra did nicely and rendered their popular and up-to-date music in a very pleasing manner. The supper was served by caterer Miles and his corps of waiters was certainly beyond criticism. That Mr. Miles is a connoisseur in the line of catering all will agree who have had the pleasure of being where he served.

—Last Monday morning the train leaving Potsdam at 7 o'clock ran into an open switch at Dekalb. The engineer did not notice that the switch was open until the engine was almost up to it, when he applied the air brake. Some of the passengers were thrown from the train there in the aisle, among them being Mr. L. E. Ginn. The sudden stop threw him to the floor, bruising his arms and chest, and causing a gash over his eye which had to be stitched up. One of the trunks was thrown into the head. The passenger locomotive and several freight cars were smashed, and if the train had not been running slowly the damage would undoubtedly have been considerable.

—W. W. Pearl and D. D. Bryson attended the committee meeting of the Foresters held at Government Monday. There were 200 candidates reported for the class initiation to be held at Canton April 10. The next meeting of candidates will be held at Potsdam April 11, and all who drive in will have their horses taken care of by W. W. Pearl. The Foresters are making preparations for a big initiation, and hope to secure enough candidates to make St. Lawrence the banner county. Dr. Oronybrataga, Supreme Chief Ranger, will confer the degrees, and other supreme court officers will be present. The Foresters are one of the largest fraternal associations in the country, and have a flourishing court here.

Among Churches.
