SIGNED BY THE GOVERNOR

Governor Higgins has signed all the important bills which were before him including the mortgage tax bill, the gas bills, the Electric Commission bill, the railroad commission bill, the excise bills and the appropriation bills.

In closing the work the Governor took occasion to pay a well merited tribute to the [illegible] work of the legislature. He said:

"A few meritorious [illegible] of passage, but in view [illegible] become a law. On the [illegible] The liquor tax law [illegible] the labor law and [illegible] have been substantial [illegible]

[illegible]

City has been [illegible] gas and electric companies have been placed under State control and much has been done to curb the exactions of the lighting monopoly in New York City. The burdens of taxation have not been increased by any avoidable expenditure. Provision has been made to meet the deficiencies of previous years and the extraordinary expenses of this year by strengthening the present tax laws and by taxing transfers of stock rather than by raising the rate of taxation on property or resorting again to the home, the farm and the factory."

Among the Churches.

The Christian Science Society will hold the following services at their rooms 56½ Market street: Wednesday, Testimonial meeting 8 p. m. Sunday, Lesson 11 a. m. subject, "Is the Universe, Including man, evolved by Atomic Force?" Sunday School 12 M. The reading room is open every afternoon from 2:30 until 5 o'clock.

The Methodist ladies will continue the cooked food sale next Saturday June 10 in the Weed hardware store.

Mr. Lelon T. Botsford, who has been on a concert tour with a quartet under the auspices of the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, assisted Trinity Church Choir last Sunday morning and evening. It was a genuine pleasure to again hear his voice in the tenor section of the choir. His singing added much to the rendition of the offertory anthem "How Lovely are the Messengers" from the oratorio "St. Paul" by Mendelssohn. In the evening Miss Gladys Botsford sang an aria and obligato by C. von Weber arranged and adapted by Spicker to the words "No One is Like Unto Thee O Lord, and No Work is Like Unto Thy Work." This melody seemed specially fitted to Miss Botsford's voice, and the evidence of self-consciousness which affects so many when singing in a church service lent an added fervor to her voice. Next Sunday evening the choir will sing the chorus from Gaul's "Holy City", "List the Cherubic Host", with soprano and baritone solos and obligati. Next Sunday week it is expected Mr. Botsford and a bass and baritone from Syracuse will assist the choir in some special music.

There will be a regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. at Mrs. Grace Lockwood's at 2:30 p. m. Friday June 9.

THE CREATION.

A Very Successful Musical Event Under the Direction of Miss Crane.

A large audience, which practically filled Normal Hall last Thursday evening, listened with rapt and appreciative attention to the production of Haydn's oratorio the "Creation", under the direction of Miss Julia E. Crane.

This was the second oratorio given this season in Potsdam by a chorus and soloists who are either residents of our town, or are sojourners in our midst, and the product in vocal art, to a greater or less extent, of our excellent vocal instructors. This achievement may be justly said to place Potsdam in the front rank of localities of its size in the march of musical progress. Rightly estimated, too, it is a potent force in the upbuilding of the moral and spiritual character of our community.

From the opening recitative by Mr. Lowen E. [illegible], baritone, in the role of Raphael, which announced that "In the beginning God created the Heaven and the Earth," to the last Hallelujah of the chorus, "Achieved is the Glorious Work," the [illegible]

The always difficult part of accompanist was admirably done by Miss Eliza McIlwayne, her artistic work forming an invaluable adjunct to the solo and chorus effects.

Miss Crane and the chorus are to be congratulated on this their latest success, and we learn with pleasure that it is expected to make these productions of oratorio semi-annual musical events.

The Racquette River Transmission Company was incorporated with the Secretary of State to furnish electricity for light, heat and power purposes throughout the State generally. The capital is $50,000. THE FORTNIGHTLY CLUB.

The Travel Section very appropriately journeyed to the hospitable home of Dr. and Mrs. Finnimore for the last meeting of the year on Tuesday evening May 30. The invitation also included the Browning and Art Sections and many personal friends.

The largeness of the welcome, the fact the "work is over and we are free to sport and play" and the interest in combining to cover the distance, which was too short, by walking, driving or motoring, put the guests in a mood to enjoy the evening.

The program consisted of an instructive paper on German University Life by Prof. Willhofft of the Tech, to whom the Club has not had the pleasure of listening before. Several musical numbers rendered by Misses Dowsey, Alber and Orr and Mr. Chas. Sisson and Mr. Hoppy, were much enjoyed and encores were responded to in lighter vein. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and the Club adjourned to meet June [illegible] Harmewa.
