The World's Most Hygienic Water.

The Water that Prevents and Cures.

My Dear Mr. Cutting:

It gives me pleasure to write you in brief my experience with Adirondack Ozonia Spring Water. Some twelve years ago while ca_ping in the vicinity of this spring we were attracted to it by recommendations of its virtues by many of the old hunters and guides. Since that time I have used the water myself and have recommended its use to many of my patients. I have found it of benefit in many forms of bladder, kidney and liver troubles, and I believe it a good water for any person to drink. Wishing you success in placing this splendid article on the market, I am, very truly yours,

C. A. BARNETT, M. D.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Nettie E. Fletcher, wife of William A. Fletcher and daughter of Darius and Mariam Tucker, was born in Hopkinton, N. Y., May 10, 1866, and died in Hopkinton August 6, 1905, aged 39 years, 2 months and 26 days. She has spent her life in the town of her nativity where she received her education and christian training which qualified her for the varied stations in life she has been called to fulfill. She was married with Mr. Fletcher Sept. 24, 1884, and they have had 21 years of happy wedded life with nothing to [illegible] [illegible] There have been given them [illegible] [illegible] Mrs. Fletcher had entered [illegible] to make a pleasant [illegible] family who took [illegible] comfort in each [illegible] They lived to enjoy [illegible] that makes the separation all the more sad. She leaves, besides the husband and four children, a dear mother and many kindred and friends. Seldom has the community received such a shock as in the death of Mrs. Fletcher.

A large gathering of the neighbors and friends assembled at the home Tuesday afternoon Aug. 8, to pay the last tribute. Rev. W. F. Tooke took charge of the services, assisted by Rev. Mr. Powley of Parishville Union Church and the Union choir furnished excellent music. The order of Rebekahs of which she was an honored member attended in a body and took charge of an impressive service at the grave. She sleeps in the cemetery near the family home.

Harvard conferred 999 degrees and their conferring was doubtless greeted with three times three.

Grange News

Parishville

Parishville Grange No. 923 met for regular meeting Saturday afternoon, Aug. 5. Worthy Master H. E. Hayden occupied the chair and had charge of the meeting. The farmers were so busy finishing haying and harvesting that only a small number were present.

Brother and Sister Hamlin from Potsdam Grange were with us and Sister Hamlin made a few interesting remarks.

The questions how can the drones of the Grange be changed to workers? andwhat is the cause of so much difficulty of the farmers securing farm help? were discussed by Worthy Master Hayden and brothers L. L. and E. C. Newton, M. A. Welsh, Charles Cutting and others in an interesting manner and some bright ideas were advanced. The Lecturer read an article on Precepts of the Order, also a paper What I would do if I were a woman, written by M. A. Wagner.

Our organist being absent we had no music which was greatly missed.

West Parishville.

West Parishville Grange No. 542 has again been called upon to place in the record of its Grange Bible the death of another member, Sister Edna Brown. In conformity with a usage of our order, and by ages of civilization, we are here to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of a sister who is laid at rest beneath the soil of the [illegible] cemetery. To record the [illegible] of those who have gone from us is [illegible] a duty and a privilege. The death of Sister Edna Brown was sorrowful in the extreme. She left her [illegible] hoping to gain her health [illegible] [illegible] to loving friends her freed spirit took its flight to the heavenly home. [illegible] presided with grace a model rural home. [illegible] her duties and responsibilities of [illegible] her work faithfully and [illegible] As a Granger she endeared herself [illegible] by her pleasing manner and was ever ready to give a kind word to all. The members of the Grange do most sincerely tender our worthy brother our united sympathy in this time of sad bereavement and we trust he will find consolation in the remembrance of the many years he had been blessed with a loving wife and wise counselor.

Ida A. Gates, Committee.

Lawrenceville.

An informal meeting was held Saturday evening at Grange hall to meet the State Grange Chaplain, S. J. Robbins and wife. He gave a very pleasant talk and those who braved the elements were well paid.

Grange meeting Saturday evening of this week. The young people will present a very attractive program.

Last fall an English woman of letters was staying as the guest of an elderly lady at a country house in western Massachusetts. While they were driving one afternoon they had the misfortune to meet the [illegible] [illegible] a sharp turn of the road. The horse, being startled, shied [illegible] against a tree and throwing its occupants out into the road.

The English woman picked herself up uninjured but was horrified to see her aged hostess lying [illegible] unconscious. Running to a nearby farmhouse she knocked for some time before she finally succeeded in rousing a sunburned woman to the door.

"A lady has been hurt thrown from a carriage. She is lying down there in the road. Can you give me some whisky for her?" cried the visitor in breathless anxiety.

"Well, no, we don't never keep no whisky," said the native born after some deliberation. "Would the lady like a piece of pie?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

Excited Gentleman—It's all through your wretched paper!

Editor (who is used to it)—What's the matter now?

Excited Gentleman—You stated the day before yesterday that a thief had entered my room, broken open my desk and stolen a sum of money, but that fortunately he had overlooked the gold watch which usually lies in the bottom drawer.

Editor—Well, the facts are stated correctly.

Excited Gentleman—They're correct enough. But what is the result? The infamous man came again last night and took the watch.—Madame.
