

MAY SOLVE OLD MURDER MYSTERY

SKULL OF HUMAN BEING IS FOUND NEAR OUTLET OF POND.

Reports of the finding of the skull of a human being near the outlet of the pond in the vicinity of the mill of the American Graphite Company at Graphite, in Warren county, may result in solving the mystery which has for 15 years surrounded the murder of Mrs. Orlin Frazer and the disappearance of her husband and his dog.

According to Sheriff Bolton, the belief has always existed in Graphite and that section of Warren county, that Frazer was murdered at the same time his wife was killed and his dog was also killed and that the body of the man and the dog had been thrown into the pond.

Mrs. Frazer was murdered by a shot fired through a window of the dog cabin home at Graphite at the time she was with her infant child. When her body was found the baby was playing happily about the bed. No trace was ever found of her husband, who was about 28 years old, nor his dog. Some residents of the town believed that the young woman was killed by her husband and that he escaped to Canada, taking his dog with him in order that it might not be used in trailing him.

Despite a thorough investigation made by the district attorney, the mystery was never solved. A relative of the woman's husband was held for some time but was released after the grand jury did not indict him.

HADLEY ON BOLSHIEVISM.

Howard D. Hadley of Plattsburg, who is well known all through Northern New York, is unusually well versed on conditions in Russia, having been for some months attached to the United States Consular Service at the time of the Bolshevik revolution. Mr. Hadley is therefore exceptionally well qualified to speak on the Bolshevik and his words carry weight, particularly here in the North Country where he is best known. In the course of a recent address at Ticonderoga Mr. Hadley said:

"In thinking about Russia and the Russians keep in mind always the distinction between Bolshevist agitators like Lenin and Trotsky and their followers in Russia and the great mass of ordinary, every-day Russian people."

"The Bolsheviks make agreements and treaties only to break them when it becomes advantageous to them to do so. The Russian people themselves always carried out their obligations."

"The Bolsheviks repudiated the debts of Russia, whereas the Russian people have always paid their debts and expect always to pay them."

"The Bolsheviks dispersed and dissolved the Constituent Assembly which had been elected by the Russian people. This denial of rights of the duly elected representatives of the people of Russia was accomplished by force, by machine guns, cannon and bombs. It happened while I was in Petrograd, in December, 1917."

"The Bolsheviks are arbitrary, cruel, barbarous, ruthless—depending upon force, terrorism and unfairness for the maintenance and extension of their regime, whereas the Russian people, generally speaking, are naturally the most kindly, sociable, neighborly, democratic and peaceable people on earth, noted for their love of music and poetry."

"The Bolsheviks under the lead of Lenin and Trotsky made an ignominious surrender to Germany by signing the infamous Brest-Litovsk peace treaty. The Russian people sent 3,000,000 of their bravest young men to death in an unparalleled effort to help to their share in the cause of the Allies."

"Even Czar Nicholas did his utmost in spite of his German wife, to defeat Germany. With all his faults, his weakness, his short sightedness, he was loyal to the cause of the nations with whom his country was allied. The Bolsheviks killed him, and his wife and daughters and innocent little son like dogs."

"The Russian people have respect for the rights of other nations. The Bolsheviks under Lenin and Trotsky from the very first day when they managed, with German aid, to seize power in Russia, have sought by underhand, unfair means to overthrow our democratic form of government here in the United States, using stolen gold with which to accomplish their dastardly purpose."

"And yet after all this record, known to all to be the truth, what do the Bolsheviks have the nerve to ask? They calmly ask us to raise the blockade, enter into negotiations with them, and eventually to recognize them as the government of the Russian people. For pure nerve and impudence I submit this surpasses anything that the world ever saw. I spent twenty months in Russia, more than half of that time in territory dominated by the Bolsheviks, and, believe me, good friends of Ticonderoga, Bolshevism is no cure for envy, hatred, malice, uncharitableness, greed, plague, pestilence, famine, or dishonesty. Quite the opposite is true.

HAVE A LAUGH ON PROPHET DOE

Frank Doe, the Ogdensburg weather prophet, predicted that this winter would not be marked by any long periods of cold weather. In fact, he gave the assurance that the worst of the winter in this respect would be passed early in January.

"We are having the harshest and most of our winter right now," Doe asserted in December. "All the winter that we are to get will terminate shortly after January 5. The balance of the season will be rather mild, yet changeable."

Doe predicted a green Christmas, but the day before snow came and it is still here.

January has had the lowest average temperature of any January since the Canton Weather Bureau was established in 1889.
