

URGE GREATER LENTEN OBSERVANCE

CLERGY OF POTSDAM ADOPT RESOLUTIONS AT MEETING.

At a meeting of the Clergy of Potsdam, held in Trinity Church Rectory, on Thursday afternoon, March 2nd, 1922, the following resolution which was read in local churches Sunday was adopted.

Resolved, That the members of the different churches be asked to observe LENT this year.

That each church holds its own Special Lenten Services.

That all Christian people be asked to refrain from social functions, which are of such a nature as to disturb the religious and devotional atmosphere of this season.

That on Good Friday—Services be held in the respective churches; and that from 11:30 to 3:30 the business men be urged to close all places of business as a mark of respect to the Savior of the World.

Who hung upon the Cross from 12 M. to 3 P. M.

That all the people be urged to be more diligent in Prayer, Bible Reading (especially those portions that deal with our Lord's suffering and death) and Church attendance.

That the students of our school and college be asked to co-operate in making this Season of Lent a time for quiet thought, deeper study and greater attention to religious education, religious duties and the worship of God.

The Clergy have "no axe to grind" but only the greatest good of the town and people at heart.

Therefore they ask the hearty co-operation of all in the work which they are trying to do.

May God bless you this Lent and may a bright and joyous Easter Day be yours.

Custodians were appointed for the gift which the government has assigned to the Legion. The matter of adjusted compensation or bonus was discussed and those present expressed themselves as in favor of the proposition.

Various spring activities were discussed. The Legion is considering two entertainments before long. One of them will be in the nature of a cabaret affair similar to that given in the Clarkson College gymnasium some few years ago.

BAPTISTS VOTE CHANGES
Important Questions Discussed at Meeting Last Week

At a business meeting of the Baptist church Wednesday evening, it was voted, with but two dissenting votes, to grant associate membership in the local church regardless of any affiliation or previous discharge from religious connection of the proposed associate member. The action is a marked divergence from past Baptist practice.

It was also voted to grant letters to other congregations to Baptists who might express the desire of affiliating with other churches. Here before the local church has merely granted letters of dismissal.

The program for Sunday evening meetings for the next two months was outlined. Stereoscopic views will be a feature of these meetings. Polly Anna, and views from the ruined sections of France will be among those shown. An order of service for the summer months, whereby the church service and Sunday school would be combined was also discussed. If finally adopted, it will be effective from June 15 to September 1st.

TO SPEAK ON BOYS.

Mrs. Thompson for sometime has held the office of Probation Officer. Her experience with boys whether through severity or kindness has been so just, that every boy loves her. I was on it Wasn't Here.
A big awkward looking suitcase fell into the aisle just beside my seat. People coming and going made many unkind remarks to me about my baggage being in the way. At last I determined to make the first remark to the next person passing that way.

A young man stopped and looked in a displeased manner at the suitcase beside me, so I said: "It that were mine I would move it, but it isn't."

I was much embarrassed to hear him reply: "Well, it's mine and I can move it."—Chicago Tribune.

TROUBLE ON HAND
Who said Saucier was crazy? Nobody!
What did they say? Well, we said he was foolish for one thing. He has six kids and the oldest is six years old. He is proud of it. And he can support them, too.
He is going to do it by selling wall paper and paint at low prices for quick sales. His home is paid for. If he can do it, he is going to stay in Potsdam forever. He likes this town.
Please let him come and see you. Good luck to all.
