

It's Newspaper Advertising That Gets the Crowds

When the people of this community wish to know what is going on in this vicinity they read The Courier & Freeman. And under the scope of local happenings in which they are vitally interested--what our merchants offer ing this week that I can use? The newspaper is the distributing center for both social and business news to which our people turn when they wish information. Hence your advertisement in this paper will carry your business message to people who are anxious to read it. We have cuts and copy to help you prepare your ad.
