

Colton Victor Over Parishville In Overtime Play

Colton, Jan. 21.—Before an immense crowd and in what proved to be the most exciting game of basketball of the current season, Colton high school won from Parishville hosts, 29-28, in an overtime period Friday evening on the local court.

Junior Frank, Colton's center and stellar player of last season, who has not played much this year, staged a brilliant comeback in the last quarter of the game, making a basket under trying conditions, then two fouls at the end of the game, which made the score 27-27. In an overtime period Parishville made one foul and Colton two, the last one being put in by Bob Thomas, new player.

At the end of the half, Colton had made 13 points and Parishville 17. High scorer for Colton was Weegar with 10 points; for Parishville, Monica with nine points. The referee was Jenkins.

In a preliminary game, Parishville Juniors won from Colton, 18-14. High scorer for Colton was Vernon Gleason with four points; Gleason was also high scorer the previous week at DeKalb with six points.

ornia. His father was born in Colton and went to Iowa at the age of 12 to live with his uncle, B. B. Maloney. Phil served in the Balloon Corps in the First World War.

Mrs. Leonard Rudd will observe her 81st birthday Thursday, Jan. 22. Mrs. Rudd was the former Miss Dolly Bixby and born in Henmon. She has been twice married, her first husband being Chas. Lashbrooks. She had three daughters by this marriage, Mrs. Delmonte Nellis of Leona, and Mrs. Laura Strobeck of Buffalo, and one daughter, Mrs. Lee Lyman, who died several years ago.

After the death of her first husband she married Leonard Rudd and they lived at Stark for several years, moving to Colton, where they have made their home on Maple street. Mrs. Rudd has been in poor health for the past few years and, at present, is confined to her bed.

Mrs. Mary Lahan observed her 80th birthday Sunday, Jan. 18, at her home on east side, where she lives alone. She was born in the town of Hopkinton Jan. 18, 1866, the daughter of John and Nora Finn Leary. She married John Lahan in 1892 and their married life was spent in Newark, N. J. Mr. Lahan died in Newark and Mrs. Lahan continued to live there with her only son, Frank, who was on the police force of Newark. About 20 years ago, due to poor health of her son, they moved to Colton, arriving here in August. The following February he died and since that time Mrs. Lahan has spent her life alone. She is quite active for her years, doing her own housework. She is a member of St. Patrick's church.

Miss Peggy Woodrat of Stark spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert McEwen.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert McEwen observed their 45th wedding anniversary quietly at their home on Sunday, Jan. 11.

There will be a card party at the town hall Tuesday evening, Jan. 27, at 8 p.m., for the benefit of Potsdam Hospital Guild, to assist in raising money for defense purposes. This money is to be used for the purchase of hospital beds and first aid equipment for Potsdam hospital and our own town, where it is expected there will be installed a first aid station. Contract and auction bridge, five hundred and Pedro will be played and prizes awarded. On this same evening there will be similar card parties for this purpose in all neighboring towns, and it is expected there will be eight grand prizes, and those holding highest scores will be phoned in to Mrs. Thomas Watkins at Potsdam immediately after the games to determine the grand winners. Everyone is invited to attend the card party and do their part in aiding in our defense program.

Next Sunday will be the last day the Rev. N. Lascelles-Ward will officiate at the Zion Episcopal church, as he is leaving for Philadelphia, Pa., where he is to be chaplain of the city hospital. So far, there has been no successor appointed here.

Mrs. Olive Woodward has gone to Norfolk for the remainder of the winter to live with her son, Arthur Woodward.

Glen W. Munger visited J. P. Reagan at Massena Tuesday.

Harold Olmstead of Scranton, Iowa, son of Phil Olmstead and grandson of Mrs. Henry L. Olmstead, now living at Lake George, has enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps and is stationed in Calif.
