

NORWOOD

NORWOOD CORRESPONDENT
 Mrs. Elizabeth Jenner
 Correspondent
 NORWOOD, N. Y. PHONE 162

Miss Genevieve Wright, a student at Abbott Academy, Andover, Mass., has arrived home to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wright.

Mrs. Harry Lunderman has returned from Malone where she visited Mrs. Cynthia Naucom.

Misses Geraldine Bennett, Helen Seaman and Marion Daly of Malone and Miss Bennett's mother of Hudson Falls spent Sunday with Mrs. John Daly. Mrs. Bennett is spending this week with Mrs. Daly.

Miss Jessie Parkhurst has returned to her home here after spending the winter in New York City.

Seaman Herbert Richardson has returned to New York after spending a leave here with his wife and two sons, Herbert and James.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Trivittino and three children spent Sunday here with relatives and friends.

Richard Claffey, S. C., who has been on active duty in the Pacific, has returned to duty after spending a leave here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Claffey.

The 14th annual Mother and Daughter Banquet of the First Congregational church of Norwood will be held Monday, June 4 in the church dining room at 6:30. A reception will be held with Mrs. John R. Gee, Mrs. Mark Jenner, Mrs. Leslie A. Hydorn, Mrs. William L. Bassett and Miss Bessie Bradford receiving. Mrs. Edna Martin is general chairman of the banquet, with Mrs. Charles Bartlett as chairman of the support committee. Mrs. Elizabeth Bennett and Mrs. Donald Bidwell are in charge of music and Miss Marion Cranston is chairman of the decorating committee. Mrs. William F. Poole will act as toastmistress and Mrs. John R. Gee will be the speaker. The welcome will be extended by Miss Ella Cranston and Mrs. William H. Andrew will give the toast to the daughters. Mrs. Edward J. Mulholland and Miss Dorothy Bartlett will respond to the toasts. The girls of Miss Eileen Gibson's Sunday School class will sing and Miss Mary Grady and Miss Janice Fuller will render special numbers. Miss Sally Keefe will play a clarinet solo. All women and girls of the church are invited to attend the banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Duckum and daughters, Marna and Mary Ellen, spent Sunday visiting Mrs. Jack Kennedy in Massena.

Earl Curtis of White Plains is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Curtis and family.

Misses Marion Daly, Geraldine Bennett and Helen Seaman of Malone spent Sunday with Mrs. John Daly.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Worley have received word that their son, Pfc. Lyle Worley, who is now hospitalized in England, has been awarded the Purple Heart.

Madrid

Cpl. Bernard V. Smith is spending a ten-day leave enroute to San Bernardino, Calif., with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Smith and family. He has been stationed in Virginia.

Miss Mildred Lockwood and a friend, Mrs. George Furrier of Brooklyn arrived Friday and is at her home here on Elm street. The Lockwood residence has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher of Chipman, who will take possession later.

John McAvoy, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McAvoy of the Madrid-Waddington road is a patient at the Hepburn Hospital at Ogdensburg where he is ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steenburg Sr. of Spencer, have returned after spending several days this week with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steenberg, Jr. and daughter, Linda.

The Thursday bridge club met Thursday evening with Mrs. Lloyd Holmes. High score was won by Mrs. Wilfred Middlemiss and the low score went to Mrs. Allen Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barnes are the parents of a daughter, Marilyn Anne born Tuesday, May 22 at the Potsdam Hospital. Mrs. Barnes is the former Miss Ardis Richardson, daughter of Mrs. Edwin Richardson, and the late Edwin Richardson. Mr. Barnes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Barnes of West Potsdam. Both are well known in this section.

Mrs. Edward Roach, Park street, Norwood, entertained at a party Saturday in honor of the sixth birthday of her daughter, Carol Elaine. Those who attended were: Marjorie Hart, Jean McKenty, Donna Colby, Mary Jane Spear, Linda Gonyeau, Marcia Roach, Laura Wilber, Janice Mackey, Sandra Simonette, Valerie Dailey, Ann and Jane Farrington, and Marcia Fiske and Susan Garner of Potsdam.

The Norwood Kiwanis Club met Monday night at the Norwood Inn for their regular weekly meeting. There was 100 per cent attendance. Sgt. Clay Embury, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Embury was a guest. Clayton C. Bush, president, presided, and announced that collections for the annual auction to be held June 7, will be made Monday and Tuesday. All of the club members signed a birthday card to be sent to the Rev. John Pickens of Paducah, Florida, former club member.

The St. Lawrence District Group meetings of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church were held at Potsdam, May 29 and in Malone on May 31. Meetings will begin at 10. Mrs. Raymond Archer, former Missionary to Malaya will be the guest speaker.

Memorial Day services will be held at the town honor roll on Wednesday morning at 10, Father Riley of the Raymondville church will be the speaker.

Rev. F. J. Brown has returned from the annual conference for the 57th year to assume the pastorate of the Methodist church.

James Grealy has returned from Hepburn Hospital in Ogdensburg where he underwent two operations on his foot.

Mrs. Fred Delair and daughter, Barbara of Norwood and S. C. Marion Delair of Trenton, N. J., called on Mrs. Harold Carr Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Estella Evans, widow of Horace Evans, passed away in Marysville, Tenn. The body was brought to the Evans funeral home in Potsdam. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 in the West Potsdam church with Rev. Charles Hannas officiating. Burial was made in West Potsdam cemetery. Mrs. Evans a sister of Mrs. John Van Kernen, was a visitor at the Van Kernen home a few years ago.

Miss Dorothy Reore was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower at her home on Tuesday evening, May 15th. Mrs. Ida Zappia and Mrs. Mildred Hatley were hostesses. There were 36 present. Refreshments were served. She received many lovely gifts. Miss Reore, a daughter of Mrs. Anna Reore and Nellis French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward French of Chamberlain's Corners, will be married soon.

Staff Sgt. James H. DaDue, 36, formerly of Syracuse, was killed in action in Germany on April 13th. Sgt. LaDue was a half brother of

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Foster, Myron, C. P. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Murray attended the meeting of the Potsdam local Dairymen's League, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Benton Saturday evening, May 26.

On Wednesday morning, May 23, occurred the death of one of our oldest residents, Mr. Willis Emery. His funeral was held at St. Mary's church Friday morning, May 25. In his death the community loses one of its grand old men. The Emery homestead has been in the family over a hundred years.

Mr. and Mrs. John Long, Virginia Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richards, Mrs. Milan Richards, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Sutherland attended the funeral of Mr. Willis Emery Friday morning at St. Mary's church.

Mrs. Berthie Tucker spent Thursday with Miss Claudia Waite.

W. C. Norton and Mrs. Pearl Foster attended a meeting of the town committee held at the town clerk's office, Winthrop, Friday evening, May 25.

R. B. Foster and son, Myron, called on Hal Munson, Winthrop, Friday evening.

The young people of the Methodist church are sponsoring a food sale to be held Saturday, June 2nd at Clarke & Foot's store, Potsdam. The proceeds received are to help send some of the young people to Trenton Institute.

News has been received in a letter from Allen Bogart that he has been released from prison and will soon be on his way home.

Mrs. Lucy Queer and a former resident of Norfolk, Cpl. Carlton M. Hunter, 30, who has been a prisoner of Germany since May 13th, 1944, was liberated by Russian troops on April 22 according to a letter received from him by his mother, Mrs. Joseph Hunter of Great Bend. The Hunters are well known in Norfolk, being former residents.

The June meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will be held at the Methodist parsonage on June 5 at 7:30. Mrs. F. J. Brown, hostess. Mrs. Leigh Steinbarger in charge of the program.

Miss Dorothy Reore was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower at her home on Tuesday evening, May 15th. Mrs. Ida Zappia and Mrs. Mildred Hatley were hostesses. There were 36 present. Refreshments were served. She received many lovely gifts. Miss Reore, a daughter of Mrs. Anna Reore and Nellis French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward French of Chamberlain's Corners, will be married soon.

Staff Sgt. James H. DaDue, 36, formerly of Syracuse, was killed in action in Germany on April 13th. Sgt. LaDue was a half brother of

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Foster, Myron, C. P. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Murray attended the meeting of the Potsdam local Dairymen's League, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Benton Saturday evening, May 26.

On Wednesday morning, May 23, occurred the death of one of our oldest residents, Mr. Willis Emery. His funeral was held at St. Mary's church Friday morning, May 25. In his death the community loses one of its grand old men. The Emery homestead has been in the family over a hundred years.

Mr. and Mrs. John Long, Virginia Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richards, Mrs. Milan Richards, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Sutherland attended the funeral of Mr. Willis Emery Friday morning at St. Mary's church.

Mrs. Berthie Tucker spent Thursday with Miss Claudia Waite.

W. C. Norton and Mrs. Pearl Foster attended a meeting of the town committee held at the town clerk's office, Winthrop, Friday evening, May 25.

R. B. Foster and son, Myron, called on Hal Munson, Winthrop, Friday evening.

The young people of the Methodist church are sponsoring a food sale to be held Saturday, June 2nd at Clarke & Foot's store, Potsdam. The proceeds received are to help send some of the young people to Trenton Institute.

News has been received in a letter from Allen Bogart that he has been released from prison and will soon be on his way home.

Mrs. Lucy Queer and a former resident of Norfolk, Cpl. Carlton M. Hunter, 30, who has been a prisoner of Germany since May 13th, 1944, was liberated by Russian troops on April 22 according to a letter received from him by his mother, Mrs. Joseph Hunter of Great Bend. The Hunters are well known in Norfolk, being former residents.

The June meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will be held at the Methodist parsonage on June 5 at 7:30. Mrs. F. J. Brown, hostess. Mrs. Leigh Steinbarger in charge of the program.

Norfolk

Final rehearsals of the annual spring opera given by the grade pupils of Norfolk high school are well under way. The opera "Tom Tit Tot" was presented Tuesday, May 29th at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium. Production of the opera was under the general supervision of Mildred LaRue assisted by Virginia Planders in dialogue; Rita Parisian in charge of dances; costumes, Rita Murphy, Ruth Roache, Effie Crabbe, Rosemary Planagan, Eleanor Hayes and Lena Roy in charge of the stage and properties and programs by Margaret Hannan.

Norfolk Branch of the American Red Cross has been busily engaged in helping reformish the home of the Campbell family which was completely destroyed by fire together with all household furnishings several weeks ago.

The St. Lawrence District Group meetings of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church were held at Potsdam, May 29 and in Malone on May 31. Meetings will begin at 10.

Mrs. Raymond Archer, former Missionary to Malaya will be the guest speaker.

Memorial Day services will be held at the town honor roll on Wednesday morning at 10, Father Riley of the Raymondville church will be the speaker.

Rev. F. J. Brown has returned from the annual conference for the 57th year to assume the pastorate of the Methodist church.

James Grealy has returned from Hepburn Hospital in Ogdensburg where he underwent two operations on his foot.

Mrs. Fred Delair and daughter, Barbara of Norwood and S. C. Marion Delair of Trenton, N. J., called on Mrs. Harold Carr Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Estella Evans, widow of Horace Evans, passed away in Marysville, Tenn. The body was brought to the Evans funeral home in Potsdam. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 in the West Potsdam church with Rev. Charles Hannas officiating. Burial was made in West Potsdam cemetery. Mrs. Evans a sister of Mrs. John Van Kernen, was a visitor at the Van Kernen home a few years ago.

Miss Dorothy Reore was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower at her home on Tuesday evening, May 15th. Mrs. Ida Zappia and Mrs. Mildred Hatley were hostesses. There were 36 present. Refreshments were served. She received many lovely gifts. Miss Reore, a daughter of Mrs. Anna Reore and Nellis French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward French of Chamberlain's Corners, will be married soon.

Staff Sgt. James H. DaDue, 36, formerly of Syracuse, was killed in action in Germany on April 13th. Sgt. LaDue was a half brother of

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Foster, Myron, C. P. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Murray attended the meeting of the Potsdam local Dairymen's League, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Benton Saturday evening, May 26.

On Wednesday morning, May 23, occurred the death of one of our oldest residents, Mr. Willis Emery. His funeral was held at St. Mary's church Friday morning, May 25. In his death the community loses one of its grand old men. The Emery homestead has been in the family over a hundred years.

Mr. and Mrs. John Long, Virginia Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richards, Mrs. Milan Richards, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Sutherland attended the funeral of Mr. Willis Emery Friday morning at St. Mary's church.

Mrs. Berthie Tucker spent Thursday with Miss Claudia Waite.

W. C. Norton and Mrs. Pearl Foster attended a meeting of the town committee held at the town clerk's office, Winthrop, Friday evening, May 25.

R. B. Foster and son, Myron, called on Hal Munson, Winthrop, Friday evening.

The young people of the Methodist church are sponsoring a food sale to be held Saturday, June 2nd at Clarke & Foot's store, Potsdam. The proceeds received are to help send some of the young people to Trenton Institute.

News has been received in a letter from Allen Bogart that he has been released from prison and will soon be on his way home.

Mrs. Lucy Queer and a former resident of Norfolk, Cpl. Carlton M. Hunter, 30, who has been a prisoner of Germany since May 13th, 1944, was liberated by Russian troops on April 22 according to a letter received from him by his mother, Mrs. Joseph Hunter of Great Bend. The Hunters are well known in Norfolk, being former residents.

The June meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will be held at the Methodist parsonage on June 5 at 7:30. Mrs. F. J. Brown, hostess. Mrs. Leigh Steinbarger in charge of the program.

West Stockholm

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Foster, Myron, C. P. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Murray attended the meeting of the Potsdam local Dairymen's League, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Benton Saturday evening, May 26.

On Wednesday morning, May 23, occurred the death of one of our oldest residents, Mr. Willis Emery. His funeral was held at St. Mary's church Friday morning, May 25. In his death the community loses one of its grand old men. The Emery homestead has been in the family over a hundred years.

Mr. and Mrs. John Long, Virginia Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richards, Mrs. Milan Richards, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Sutherland attended the funeral of Mr. Willis Emery Friday morning at St. Mary's church.

Mrs. Berthie Tucker spent Thursday with Miss Claudia Waite.

W. C. Norton and Mrs. Pearl Foster attended a meeting of the town committee held at the town clerk's office, Winthrop, Friday evening, May 25.

R. B. Foster and son, Myron, called on Hal Munson, Winthrop, Friday evening.

The young people of the Methodist church are sponsoring a food sale to be held Saturday, June 2nd at Clarke & Foot's store, Potsdam. The proceeds received are to help send some of the young people to Trenton Institute.

News has been received in a letter from Allen Bogart that he has been released from prison and will soon be on his way home.

Mrs. Lucy Queer and a former resident of Norfolk, Cpl. Carlton M. Hunter, 30, who has been a prisoner of Germany since May 13th, 1944, was liberated by Russian troops on April 22 according to a letter received from him by his mother, Mrs. Joseph Hunter of Great Bend. The Hunters are well known in Norfolk, being former residents.

The June meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will be held at the Methodist parsonage on June 5 at 7:30. Mrs. F. J. Brown, hostess. Mrs. Leigh Steinbarger in charge of the program.

Miss Dorothy Reore was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower at her home on Tuesday evening, May 15th. Mrs. Ida Zappia and Mrs. Mildred Hatley were hostesses. There were 36 present. Refreshments were served. She received many lovely gifts. Miss Reore, a daughter of Mrs. Anna Reore and Nellis French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward French of Chamberlain's Corners, will be married soon.

Staff Sgt. James H. DaDue, 36, formerly of Syracuse, was killed in action in Germany on April 13th. Sgt. LaDue was a half brother of

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Foster, Myron, C. P. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Murray attended the meeting of the Potsdam local Dairymen's League, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Benton Saturday evening, May 26.

On Wednesday morning, May 23, occurred the death of one of our oldest residents, Mr. Willis Emery. His funeral was held at St. Mary's church Friday morning, May 25. In his death the community loses one of its grand old men. The Emery homestead has been in the family over a hundred years.

Mr. and Mrs. John Long, Virginia Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richards, Mrs. Milan Richards, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Sutherland attended the funeral of Mr. Willis Emery Friday morning at St. Mary's church.

Mrs. Berthie Tucker spent Thursday with Miss Claudia Waite.

W. C. Norton and Mrs. Pearl Foster attended a meeting of the town committee held at the town clerk's office, Winthrop, Friday evening, May 25.

R. B. Foster and son, Myron, called on Hal Munson, Winthrop, Friday evening.

The young people of the Methodist church are sponsoring a food sale to be held Saturday, June 2nd at Clarke & Foot's store, Potsdam. The proceeds received are to help send some of the young people to Trenton Institute.

News has been received in a letter from Allen Bogart that he has been released from prison and will soon be on his way home.

Mrs. Lucy Queer and a former resident of Norfolk, Cpl. Carlton M. Hunter, 30, who has been a prisoner of Germany since May 13th, 1944, was liberated by Russian troops on April 22 according to a letter received from him by his mother, Mrs. Joseph Hunter of Great Bend. The Hunters are well known in Norfolk, being former residents.

The June meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will be held at the Methodist parsonage on June 5 at 7:30. Mrs. F. J. Brown, hostess. Mrs. Leigh Steinbarger in charge of the program.

Miss Dorothy Reore was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower at her home on Tuesday evening, May 15th. Mrs. Ida Zappia and Mrs. Mildred Hatley were hostesses. There were 36 present. Refreshments were served. She received many lovely gifts. Miss Reore, a daughter of Mrs. Anna Reore and Nellis French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward French of Chamberlain's Corners, will be married soon.

Staff Sgt. James H. DaDue, 36, formerly of Syracuse, was killed in action in Germany on April 13th. Sgt. LaDue was a half brother of

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Foster, Myron, C. P. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Murray attended the meeting of the Potsdam local Dairymen's League, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Benton Saturday evening, May 26.

On Wednesday morning, May 23, occurred the death of one of our oldest residents, Mr. Willis Emery. His funeral was held at St. Mary's church Friday morning, May 25. In his death the community loses one of its grand old men. The Emery homestead has been in the family over a hundred years.

Mr. and Mrs. John Long, Virginia Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richards, Mrs. Milan Richards, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Sutherland attended the funeral of Mr. Willis Emery Friday morning at St. Mary's church.

Mrs. Berthie Tucker spent Thursday with Miss Claudia Waite.

W. C. Norton and Mrs. Pearl Foster attended a meeting of the town committee held at the town clerk's office, Winthrop, Friday evening, May 25.

R. B. Foster and son, Myron, called on Hal Munson, Winthrop, Friday evening.

The young people of the Methodist church are sponsoring a food sale to be held Saturday, June 2nd at Clarke & Foot's store, Potsdam. The proceeds received are to help send some of the young people to Trenton Institute.

News has been received in a letter from Allen Bogart that he has been released from prison and will soon be on his way home.

Mrs. Lucy Queer and a former resident of Norfolk, Cpl. Carlton M. Hunter, 30, who has been a prisoner of Germany since May 13th, 1944, was liberated by Russian troops on April 22 according to a letter received from him by his mother, Mrs. Joseph Hunter of Great Bend. The Hunters are well known in Norfolk, being former residents.

The June meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will be held at the Methodist parsonage on June 5 at 7:30. Mrs. F. J. Brown, hostess. Mrs. Leigh Steinbarger in charge of the program.

Raymondville

Miss Elvah Seeber, cadet nurse of Station A, Ogdensburg, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Seeber.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murray of Winthrop were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Raymo Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walker have moved into the house owned by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sterling of Syracuse.

Earl Selleck and Irving Seeber are collecting funds for an Honor Roll for Raymondville.

The local Home Bureau held a kitchen conference meeting at the home of Mrs. Leo Delosh Thursday afternoon of last week.

M/Sgt. W. Kenneth Marica, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Marica and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Halcott and Anne of Potsdam were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Selleck Wednesday, May 23.

Clarence McComber returned home Wednesday, May 23 from Massena hospital after being confined there for 11 days with severe burns which he received while at work in Massena aluminum plant.

Mrs. Wm. Fallon, 73, passed away at her home Wednesday, May 23. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Raymondville Methodist church with Rev. F. J. Brown officiating. Burial in Hale cemetery, Norfolk. Surviving beside her husband, is a son, Harry Pike of Raymondville and a daughter, Mrs. Mark Leaman, Albuquerque, N. M.

Mrs. Allen Bethel, Miss Elvah Seeber and Irving Seeber were Saturday night shoppers in Potsdam.

The R. N. A. held Memorial services at the Raymondville cemetery Sunday, May 27 for two deceased members, Mrs. Mary Gowen and Mrs. Agnes Farnsworth and at the Catholic cemetery in Norfolk for Mrs. Lena Jandrew.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lacombe of Bombay spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bombard.

Louisville

Mrs. Harriett Hamilton of Utica, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Floyd Salton, of Waddington, visited Mrs. James Smith and other relatives here last week.

Miss June Whiting of Camden, N. J., is visiting relatives here.

Miss J. Carrie Dunnigan was a dinner guest Thursday of Miss Nellie Monihan.

Warren Blanchard suffered a cerebral hemorrhage last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wagstaff and little daughter of Winthrop, were guests Sunday of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alpha Wagstaff and H. A. Wagstaff.

Mrs. J. L. Wright of Perryville, Md., is spending several days with her sister, Mrs. W. M. Alexander and helping to care for her mother, Mrs. M. Beckstead, who is very sick. Mrs. John Thrasher of Chase Mills is night nurse.

The R. N. A. held Memorial services at the Raymondville cemetery Sunday, May 27 for two deceased members, Mrs. Mary Gowen and Mrs. Agnes Farnsworth and at the Catholic cemetery in Norfolk for Mrs. Lena Jandrew.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lacombe of Bombay spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bombard.

Mrs. Wm. Fallon, 73, passed away at her home Wednesday, May 23. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Raymondville Methodist church with Rev. F. J. Brown officiating. Burial in Hale cemetery, Norfolk. Surviving beside her husband, is a son, Harry Pike of Raymondville and a daughter, Mrs. Mark Leaman, Albuquerque, N. M.

Mrs. Allen Bethel, Miss Elvah Seeber and Irving Seeber were Saturday night shoppers in Potsdam.

The R. N. A. held Memorial services at the Raymondville cemetery Sunday, May 27 for two deceased members, Mrs. Mary Gowen and Mrs. Agnes Farnsworth and at the Catholic cemetery in Norfolk for Mrs. Lena Jandrew.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lacombe of Bombay spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bombard.

Mrs. Wm. Fallon, 73, passed away at her home Wednesday, May 23. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Raymondville Methodist church with Rev. F. J. Brown officiating. Burial in Hale cemetery, Norfolk. Surviving beside her husband, is a son, Harry Pike of Raymondville and a daughter, Mrs. Mark Leaman, Albuquerque, N. M.

Mrs. Allen Bethel, Miss Elvah Seeber and Irving Seeber were Saturday night shoppers in Potsdam.

The R. N. A. held Memorial services at the Raymondville cemetery Sunday, May 27 for two deceased members, Mrs. Mary Gowen and Mrs. Agnes Farnsworth and at the Catholic cemetery in Norfolk for Mrs. Lena Jandrew.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lacombe of Bombay spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bombard.

Mrs. Wm. Fallon, 73, passed away at her home Wednesday, May 23. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Raymondville Methodist church with Rev. F. J. Brown officiating. Burial in Hale cemetery, Norfolk. Surviving beside her husband, is a son, Harry Pike of Raymondville and a daughter, Mrs. Mark Leaman, Albuquerque, N. M.

Mrs. Allen Bethel, Miss Elvah Seeber and Irving Seeber were Saturday night shoppers in Potsdam.

The R. N. A. held Memorial services at the Raymondville cemetery Sunday, May 27 for two deceased members, Mrs. Mary Gowen and Mrs. Agnes Farnsworth and at the Catholic cemetery in Norfolk for Mrs. Lena Jandrew.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lacombe of Bombay spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bombard.

Mrs. Wm. Fallon, 73, passed away at her home Wednesday, May 23. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Raymondville Methodist church with Rev. F. J. Brown officiating. Burial in Hale cemetery, Norfolk. Surviving beside her husband, is a son, Harry Pike of Raymondville and a daughter, Mrs. Mark Leaman, Albuquerque, N. M.

Mrs. Allen Bethel, Miss Elvah Seeber and Irving Seeber were Saturday night shoppers in Potsdam.

The R. N. A. held Memorial services at the Raymondville cemetery Sunday, May 27 for two deceased members, Mrs. Mary Gowen and Mrs. Agnes Farnsworth and at the Catholic cemetery in Norfolk for Mrs. Lena Jandrew.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lacombe of Bombay spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bombard.

Mrs. Wm. Fallon, 73, passed away at her home Wednesday, May 23. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Raymondville Methodist church with Rev. F. J. Brown officiating. Burial in Hale cemetery, Norfolk. Surviving beside her husband, is a son, Harry Pike of Raymondville and a daughter, Mrs. Mark Leaman, Albuquerque, N. M.