Norfolk Youths Hurt In Crash

Staff Sgt. Eddie Jones who had been at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Richards, Norfolk, since he was injured in an automobile accident on Thursday was taken to a Pine Camp hospital in an army ambulance on Friday night.

Sgt. Jones was slated to report to the Redistribution Center in Atlantic City, N. J., this week-end after a 30 day furlough. Holder of the Air Medal with Four Oak Leaf Clusters, he was tail gunner on a Flying Fortress in England and has been on 31 missions over Germany.

Sgt. Jones and David Monroe, 17, suffered severe injuries last Thursday afternoon when the car driven by Jones left the Plumbrook Post Nation highway at a curve in front of Dr. Bixby's residence, crashing into a large elm tree.

Jones was treated by Dr. Wheeler for a lacerated knee and bruises and the Monroe youth was taken to Potsdam hospital where he is being treated for a badly lacerated upper lip, lacerated membranes inside the mouth, concussion, bruises and possible fracture.

The youths were on their way to Norfolk about 3 p. m. when the accident happened. The sedan owned by Jones' father was badly damaged. Massena state troopers investigated.
