RATIONING PANEL WRESTLES WITH SUGAR PROBLEM

The communities served by the Potsdam board are Potsdam, Parishville, Colton, South Colton, Winthrop, Stockholm, West Stockholm, North Stockholm, Fort Jackson, Hopkinton, Norwood, Madrid, Nicholville, Knapps Station, Holmes Hill, Eben, West Potsdam, and parts of Lisbon, Hannawa, Norfolk, Lawrenceville and St. Regis Falls.

A total of 8,000 bags of sugar are expected to arrive today at the warehouses of the two wholesalers who supply this district, the E. D. Briggs Grocery Company, and the Northern New York Grocery Company in Massena. This supply should take care of the needs of those who can jelly and jam.

Charles J. Jarrett of the local OPA office, went to Syracuse and asked for 5,000 pounds extra allocation of sugar to Potsdam to be drawn against the July quota, he revealed on his return yesterday. It is expected that his plea will be granted.

Mr. Jarrett pointed out the rumors that coffee, sugar and potatoes were going to be frozen had no basis in fact.

Due to the load on canning sugar and fuel oil the Potsdam Board will be closed to the public on Tuesday morning and Wednesday afternoon, beginning the first week in July through the months of July and August.
