In Memory Of My Sister Lillian

When my soldier-brother comes home,
And our family's together again,
There will only be one of them missing
My sister, whose work on earth is o'er,
Whose earthly chores are thru'
Who has gone to heaven to do her share
And will stay there forevermore
We will see her up there
My dear sister I know
When our chores are thru'
And when we all meet on the opposite shore
Oh what glory we all will share.
