O'Brians Celebrate 54th Anniversary

North Stockholm — Mr. and Mrs. James C. O'Brian of Norfolk celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary at their home, Saturday, Dec. 30, with a family dinner, at which they entertained their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Lee of Alexandria Bay, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O'Brian, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wing of Norfolk, who are friends. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brian were married Dec. 30, 1896, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Chambers, Buckton. The late Rev. Joseph Lobb officiated, and Mr. and Mrs. George Pelsue of North Stockholm, both deceased, were their attendants.

Mrs. O'Brian, the former Miss Elizabeth Anna Chambers was one of a family of five children, three girls and two boys, she is the only one surviving, before her marriage Mrs. O'Brian taught in various schools in this vicinity and in Norfolk.

Mr. O'Brian is the youngest of four children, two boys and two girls, born to Mr. and Mrs. Timothy O'Brian. He also, is the only one surviving. He was born on the family homestead, where his son and grandson also were born. Mr. O'Brian's father cleared the farm and built a log house approximately 90 years ago. The present house was built in 1906, and is located on the Regan road, between North Stockholm and Brookdale.

The couple enjoyed a wedding trip to Montreal, and upon their return settled on this family farm until 23 years ago when it moved to Norfolk.

They had two children: Mrs. Cyril (Belle) Lee, who resides in Alexandria Bay and Bernard O'Brian, who married the former Miss Marjorie Cummings. They too returned to the family farm as bride and groom 23 years ago.

The couple has three grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Their daughter, Mrs. Cyril Lee, has a son, James, of Rochester, who is employed by the telephone company there. He is married and has one daughter. Mrs. Lee's daughter, Mrs. Peter (Carol) Julian, a dietitian, resides with her parents in an Alexandria Bay; her husband is in the navy. She also has a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O'Brian have one son, John O'Brian, who is married to the former Miss Joyce Paterbaugh; they reside in Brookdale. They have a son, James.

James C. O'Brian served as road superintendent for the town of Norfolk for several years. Mrs. O'Brian was on the election board as inspector of elections for many years. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brian are members of Norfolk Grange, and Norwood Congregational Church.

The couple enjoys fairly good health, in spite of the fact that Mrs. O'Brian broke her hip a few years ago.

On their 50th wedding anniversary in 1946, a party in their honor was held at the Norfolk Hopburn Library Hall; over 150 people attended.
