

Soldier, Bride Cut Cake

Ret. and Mrs. Donald L. McCasland cut their wedding cake following their wedding in Hopkinton. Mrs. McCasland is the former Miss Lois Gilbert of Parishville.

AROUND TOWN

by DENNIS WEBSTER

Another tramp came and went last week but with much less ado than was caused by the prowler who wandered about the community in October and November. The vagrant who said he was James Cayer from Canada, showed up on Potsdam streets on Friday.

On Friday night he appeared at the jail and asked for a night's lodging. Chief Gilson gave him a bed.

In the morning the chief found that his guest had drunk the liquid from five cans of canned heat during the night. The tramp was collapsed.

When he was in condition to appear he was arraigned before Police Justice Tom Perrin on a charge of being a tramp. He pleaded guilty and was given a 10-day suspended sentence on condition that he leave Potsdam immediately.

"He went across the bridge towards Canton so fast you could hardly see him," Gilson reported.

Chief Gilson is known as a tough cookie around town. But you, should hear him describe his battle with Mike O'Dowd on July 4, 1917 in Canton. O'Dowd was middleweight champion of the world from 1917 to 1920.

Gilson went 10 rounds but made the mistake of flooring the pro in the fifth.

"From then on," says the chief, "he cut me to pieces. He didn't hurt me much but I never saw so many punches."

The call for cuts in non-defense spending in Washington could affect 408 St. Lawrence County residents personally. There are that many of our neighbors on the federal payroll and they haul away $1,267,984 each year.

It sounds like a lot and shows how "non-defense" spending is an easy target for the budget-cutters.

But here's the joker. There are 265 in postal service and 40 including customs collectors, in the treasury department.

We need our postal service and the treasury men more than earn their way in collections.

The first meeting of the Potsdam civil defense workers will be held tonight at 7:30 in the Potsdam Club. The CD program is staggering for lack of help so far. Every thoughtful citizen should give some time to the protection of his home and the community.

Jim Lahey has been handicapped in his plans by a lack of volunteers. Show up tonight and see what you can do to help.

Clarkson took a rough beating on the ice against St. Lawrence on Tuesday night but it didn't compare to the working over some citizens got in the crush outside the door.

It's too bad there were no officials on hand to police the crowd. A penalty box the size of the arena could have been filled with eager patrons who pulled some of the neatest boarding, hooking, slashing and tripping ever seen in this town.

The college lost a lot of good will when the doors were not opened sooner. Someone should have anticipated the jam for the hot contest.

Potsdam Hospital Facilities Approved By American College of Surgeons List

Potsdam Hospital has again been approved by the American College of Surgeons. The institution was listed in the Annual Approval Number of the College Bulletin, issued Dec. 31.

There are 3290 hospitals in the United States, Canada and a few foreign countries listed, an increase of six over last year. The approved hospitals represent 82 percent of the hospitals of 25 beds and over which are surveyed by the college.

Miss Elliott was graduated from Potsdam High School and the Crane Department of Music of Potsdam State Teachers College. She formerly taught at Canton Central School and is now on the faculty of Norwood-Norfolk Central School.
