CCT Hoopsters Play Norwich, SLU Tilts Soon

In the next seven days two games are scheduled for Hank Graves are scheduled for Hank Graves' Clarkson College basketball team, following a game played last night against Colgate University at Hamilton, too late for publication. A quintet from Norwich University will journey to Potsdam from Northfield, Vt. to play the first of their games in the Clarkson gym Saturday afternoon.

On Tuesday, Jan. 16, the Technicians will play St. Lawrence in the Appleton Arena in Canton. The Clarkson five has won over McGill, Champlain, Kings Point and Toronto in court play this far. The team bowed twice to Cornell and Wagner.

Starting for the Engineers will be Herb Jahn and Bob Hodge at forward, Stu Landersman in the center spot and Lee Colavito and Captain Tom Gatta in the defensive positions. Also getting nods from Coach Hodge will be Lou Critelli, Ron Pigliacampi, Harold Stangler, Ed Siedlecki and Dick LaBeau. Jahn's return to uniform may spell a great difference for the Golden Knights in future games. The fast-moving forward racked up 25 points against Toronto last week, to lead the team in point scored.

Discusses Clutches
"Magnetic Fluid Clutches and Couplings" was the topic discussed at a joint meeting of two Clarkson College professional societies last night.

Tupper Lake High's basketball team will come around the mountain Tuesday night to face once-beaten Potsdam in a Northern New York Interscholastic match which should attract the attention of most of the North Country's high school court fans. Tupper's win over Saranac Tuesday night coupled with Potsdam's loss to Ogdensburg has rearranged the top echelon rankings in the NNY loop. They can be reshuffled a second time by the outcome of next Tuesday's fray.

Potsdam (5-1) dropped into third place Tuesday night. The league is now led by Tupper Lake (5-0), which is trailed by OPA (6-1). The three teams are closely matched, according to comparative scores, and rematches may change the rankings several times before the season draws to a close and playoffs begin.

Ray Harrington will probably show Tupper the same first team which has begun nearly every game this season. Al Sullivan and Al Forbes pace the Sandstone club. They are flanked in action by Joe Calipari, Bobby Regan and Paul Murphy.

Promoted

Marine Pfc. Gordon A. Hartle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Hartle, 30 Pine St., recently completed boot training at Farris Island, S. C. He was promoted to his present rank. During his training he won the silver cross of a marine sharpshooter.

SPEND HOLIDAYS
Mr. and Mrs. David Barr of Ann Arbor, Mich., arrived Christmas Eve to spend the holidays with Mrs. Pauline Casey and family. Other guests for Christmas dinner were Stewart Barr and Robert of Ogdensburg.
