North Stockholm Hound Walks Home 50 Miles from Hunting

North Stockholm—While hunting bobcats in the woods about 50 miles from its home in North Stockholm, Burr Kingsley lost his hound, Sally. For a week Mr. Kingsley returned to the area in which he had been hunting to search for the dog, but was still unable to find her.

Sally, cold, hungry and homesick, found herself, according to Mr. Kingsley. She made the 50-mile alone and arrived on the Kingsley doorstep last Saturday morning. She is now resting, her paws after the long walk.

Mrs. Hazel Bixby of Norfolk is spending a few days with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dyke, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Todd and family.

Mrs. Birt Rockwood, who recently spent a few days visiting Mrs. Claudia Weller at the La-Shomb Home at West Stockholm, returned home last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Wilkins were Sunday dinner guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Orville McComber, at Raymondville. Mrs. Wilkins remained for a few days' visit.

Pfc. Jack Green, who is stationed at the Marine Corps recruit depot at Parris Island, S. C., recently returned to his base after spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Green, at Sanfordville. He had just returned to his base when he received word of the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Eva Green, at Sanfordville. He was able to receive an emergency furlough and arrived home on Wednesday morning in time for the funeral that afternoon.

Mrs. Ethel Wood, tax collector for the town of Stockholm, will be at Dyke's store on Jan. 27 to collect taxes. She will be at Kenneth Armstrong's store on Jan. 20, at the town clerk's office at Winthrop on Jan. 13 and in her own office at Winthrop all other days of the month.

William O'Brien of Canton is spending the winter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Todd, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dyke. He is assisting with the farm work.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sutherland of West Stockholm left by train Monday to spend some time with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Morrison and son at Homer.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Eva Green held from the home of her son, Cecil Green, at Sanfordville on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. William Dyke was an overnight guest last Wednesday of her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. John Dow at Potsdam. She returned home Thursday and Mrs. Dow spent the day with Mrs. Dyke and Howard, and Mrs. Ethel Simonds.

Mrs. James Regan called on Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Regan in Norfolk last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Nichols were dinner guests of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Best, and Bobby of Potsdam, RD 2 last Wednesday.

Mrs. Eugene Scott recently received a letter from her cousin, Mrs. Walter (Helen) Wind, who lives in Berkeley, Calif. She wrote, in part: "Our oldest son, Bob, early this year, constructed an attractive rustic museum in 'Butterfly Park', Pacific Grove, California. In connection with it, he has a gift shop. There are, in this park two old pine trees, where at a certain time each year great hordes of monarch butterflies migrate and cling in great clusters to the branches of these trees. Tourists come from the country over to see them, just as they do for the famous willows of Capistrano."

Mrs. Wind is the former Miss Helen Ables, daughter of Tom and Jennie (Atwater) Ables. Mrs. Ables, before her marriage, was Miss Jennie Atwater, daughter of Henry and Helen Atwater of Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Flannigan entertained the Burlingame families for Christmas as well as Mr. and Mrs. William Daily of Southville.

For Christmas Mr. and Mrs. James Pelsue and family entertained his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Phippen and sons of the Potsdam-Hopkinton road.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Norfolk were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Wilkins and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wilkins and family.

Several residents from here went to the polls in the Norwood Music Hall to vote on the bond issue for the proposed building for the new Norwood-Norfolk Central School last Wednesday at which qualified voters were present from the towns of Norfolk, Potsdam, Madrid, Stockholm and Louisville. The resolution was carried by a 538 majority.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Owney visited Mrs. Grace Vance at Norwood last Sunday.

WSCS Has Meeting In West Stockholm

West Stockholm—The January meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service was held recently at the home of Orle Lamb with Mrs. Trimm and Mrs. Lawrence Mitchell as hostesses and Mrs. Mabel Cheney presiding.

The treasurer's report shows the society in good financial standing. The two coffee makers ordered some time ago, have arrived. The members voted to buy a large gas stove for the church kitchen as well as 30 new hymnals.

It was reported that 41 bags of fruit and other delicacies were delivered to the aged and to shut-ins and 120 bags of popcorn, nuts and candy were given children at Christmas.

The worship service was given by Mrs. Steenberg, the theme being stewardship. The program was in charge of Winnie Hicks, assisted by Mrs. Tracy, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Doud. A covered dish supper followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Bower Noble and Mr. and Mrs. Rett Radway of Cray Mills spent Wednesday evening, Jan. 10, with Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Chaffee.

Callers at Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cheney's on Jan. 10 were their daughter, Mrs. Marlene Wright, and three children of Massena.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sanford, Mrs. Pearl Watson and Mrs. Haight of Potsdam.

The sympathy of this community goes out to the sons and their families of Mrs. Eva Green, who died Jan. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Chaffee were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harland Bancroft, Donna, Bruce and Sally in Massena.

Mrs. Ethel Paul and Mrs. Alda Bronson attended the card party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Dibble in Seaverton for the benefit of the Live Wire Home Bureau.

Mrs. Marion Richardson of West Potsdam called on Mrs. Steenberg last Wednesday.

A sunshiny basket was given Mrs. Lorena Shampine by the WSCS and other friends Saturday, Jan. 13. Mrs. Shampine has been ill for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shanty of Raymondville are the parents of a daughter born Saturday, Jan. 13. Mrs. Shanty is the former Miss Rose Page.

West Potsdam Unit Views Civics Skits

West Potsdam—The West Potsdam Home Bureau met last Thursday night with Mrs. Wilna Forbes. Mrs. Forbes presented the civics lesson in skit form followed by a quiz.

Taking part in the skit were Mrs. Herbert Talcott, Dale Talcott, Ann Grant, Bernard Grant, Mrs. Gerald Pierce, Joretta Pierce and Mrs. Ward Burdick. The lesson will be on Thursday, Jan. 25, with Mrs. Herbert Talcott. Mrs. Fred Trumble will give the second lesson on meat. This lesson will demonstrate the cooking of meats. It will begin at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Walter Collins underwent an operation Thursday morning at Potsdam Hospital.

Mrs. Glenn Heaton is much improved at this writing.

A public card party will be held this Friday night, Jan. 19 with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trumble. The Kings Daughters extend an invitation to all.

The quilt will be given that night. All persons who have sold tickets are requested to get them in by Friday night.

Mrs. Anna West recently returned to her own home. Mrs. West is now able to get around by herself.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Grant spent Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Cornell in Canton.
