STRIKES and SPARES

BY CHARLES T. ARNOLD

In the Commercial Bowling League, the league leaders met the Winters Dariymen and divided the points between them. The Dairymen's handicap had a bearing on the results, but the fact that Wendell Matott and Gerald Bennett did not hit even a 450 triple was the outstanding cause for the 2 and 2 result. Henry LaCoss and Jack Harrington were the leading bowlers on the Roman Gardens team. Schuyler Alverson and David Fenton were high for the Dairymen.

American Legion 1 met the other Legion team and took all four points from them. Ernest Zelbacker, Doctor Parlow, Roger Daniels and Bill Burwell were effective and John Myers had one good game. For the Legion 2 team Charles Arnold was high with a 519 triple. Jimmy Miller began to show ome improvement.

Nicholville Phone met the Putnam-Hawley team and took three points from tthe Building Material men. Sam Chambers and Thurman Hazen hit the pins for over 500 triples while Kenneth Pierce was high with a 513 for the P-H club.

The Colton Flying A's are the men to watch at the present time. They sure are hitting the maples hard and winning points from their opponents. They took three from the ROTC Staff Wednesday evening. Jack Glasgow and Ham Ferry were high for the A's and Thomas Hinchcliffe was high for the ROTC Staff.

The Texas Hot team continues to take most of the points from its opponents. The team won three from the Mohawk Roofing team. Garry LaCoss was high for the Texas Hot boys and W. C. Thomas lead the Roofers. Francis Rishe was way off his usual game.

The Potsdam High School team has hit a losing streak. It lost again, this time to the Nickerson's Shell boys. Adelbert Kingston was the only man to hit over 500 triple for the PHS teachers, while Earl Detlef, Arthur Ingraham and Jack Pochepan hit well over 500 each, and Ernest Erwin, the oldest bowler in the league, hit a 480 triple.

The OWD team met the A & P Store men and walked off with three points. Frank Sisson was high with a 554 trnple. For the A & P. Oliver and Doug Pete hit 500 or better.

The Potsdam Jay Cees came to life with a vengeance when they took three points from the Racquette Valley Dairymen. While Doctor Charles Duncan and Herman Begeal hit a 526 and 510 triple respectively, Don Boyd got hot in his first game and stole the show by hitting a 254 single. He materially assisted his teammates to take the three points. Incidentally, Boyd's single of 254 plus his handicap of 26 makes him high man in the league.

In the Sandstone League the Breckenridge Oilers took three points from the Parishville Hilltoppers. Perry Nichols and Frank Riggs bowled over 500 triples for the Oilers, and L. Mathewson and O. Perry was high for the Hilltoppers.

The St. Lawrence Electrics, with only three men on the floor, took three points from the Maytag 2 team. While handicap had a great deal to do with the results, some of the men on the Maytag team were missing spares and running into splits.

Rialto Theater men took four points from the VFW team. The Vets seemed to have a decided off-night, while MacArthur, McEwen and Van Alstine were hitting the pins hard.

The Firemen upset the Lions Cubs, taking three points from them in decisive manner. M. Sullivan hit a nice triple for the Firemen, while John Miles did the same for the Cubs.

The Lions and Kaplan's Store teams were tied for points a week ago, but are not tied now. They met and the Lions walked off with three points, thus putting them two points ahead of their opponents. Rhue Rickard and Nye Smith Jr. were high for the Lions and H. Murdie and Paul LaBrake were high for the Kaplan team.

Fiacco's Tavern met and took four points from the Community Ice Cream team. Every man on the tavern team hit over 500 triples, with Ham Ferry high with 574 and Louis LaDuke low with 540. Dominic Bronchetti hit a 531 for the Ice Cream boys.

The American Legion team took it on the chin from the McManus Diners. Milan Stark with a 576 and Francis Bresee with a 543 were the only high bowlers for the Legion men, while Arthur Ingraham and Jack Pochepan each hit over 600 for McManus. Earl Piper was low with a 561 triple for the Diners.

Loblaws, last place team in the league, pulled the unexpected when it took four points from the Maytag 1 team, third place in the league. While handicap helped, so did the bowling of Thomas Hichliffe and H. Stevenson. Also Jim Lahey, Felix Shelly, Wendell Matott and Harold Putnam were off-form. Ray Mcarten was the only man on the Maytag team to hit over 500 triple.

School Games Start Today; 12 Entered

Twelve high school hockey teams will compete in the fourth annual Clarkson College invitation tournament on February 1, 2, and 3 at the Clarkson arena.

The schedule announced this week by Athletic Director Henry R. Hodge includes one more team than last year. At the first annual tourney in 1948 only seven upstate high school sextets were entered.

The addition of the twelfth team has brought about the division of the tourney schedule into two brackets. Competing for the class A championship will be Masena High School, Potsdam High School, Onondaga Valley Academy in Syracuse, Rome Free Academy, Clinton Central School and Lake Placid High School.

In the class B division are Clifton-Fine Central School, Fort Covington High School, Norwood-Norfolk Central School, Saranac Lake High School, Alexandria Bay Central School and Watertown High School. Fort Covington is the one new entry this year.

Teams were classified as A or B by a committee of the Northern New York High School League according to the enrollment of the school and the number of years it has participated in interscholastic hockey.

With a lone goal in the second period the Lake Placid High School sextet last year upset the favored Rome Free Academy team to win the third annual tournament. Lake Placid entered the finals with identical 4 to 1 wins over Clinton and Clifton-Fine Central, while Rome easily defeated Onondaga Valley and Alexandria Bay, both by 7 to 0 scores. The Rome skaters were the defending champions, having won the Rufus L. Sisson Jr. trophy in 1948 and 1949. Lake Placid was runner-up in the 1949 tourney.

Tourney play begins this afternoon with the championship game scheduled for Saturday night.
