MRS. JOHN LEONARD

Miss Elizabeth Ann Elliott, daughter of Mrs. J. Conrad Elliott, 125 Market St., became the bride of John Boyle Leonard, son of Mrs. Catherine Leonard of Canton, on Saturday, Feb. 3, in a ceremony performed at 9 a. m. at St. Mary's Church by the Rev. Joseph L. Tierney.

Given in marriage by her brother, J. Conrad Elliott, the bride wore a white satin gown with a sweetheart neckline, a train and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil hung from a cap of white satin and lace. She carried a cascade of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Howard E. Jennings was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a gown of mint-green satin with three-quarter length sleeves and a matching headpiece. Mrs. Jennings carried a cascade of yellow roses.

Robert J. Leonard was best man for his brother. Ushers were Maurice Leonard, John Smith, Ross Levato and Howard E. Jennings.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Elliott wore a gown of forest green with brown accessories and American beauty roses. Mrs. Leonard, mother of the bridegroom, wore navy blue with navy accessories and American beauty roses.

Music during the ceremony was provided by Sister Anchilla, organist, with William Walsh of Canton singing.

Immediately following the ceremony, members of the wedding party and the immediate families attended a wedding breakfast at the Quonset. A reception was held at the Hotel Harrington, Canton, at 1 p. m. Music was provided by the orchestra of the bride's brother.

For travel, Mrs. Leonard wore a wool, checked suit with navy accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Leonard was graduated from Potsdam High School and the Crane Department of Music, Potsdam State Teachers College. She belongs to Agonian Sorority and is a teacher at Norwood-Norfolk Central School.

Mr. Leonard, an attorney, was graduated from Canton High School, St. Lawrence University and Albany Law School. He belongs to Alpha Tau Omega. He served overseas with the army, and is now connected with John D. Van Kennan, law firm in Ogdensburg.

The couple will live at 7 East Main St., Canton.

Trinity Church

The Lenten Season begins on Ash Wednesday, and is a time set apart by the Church for the more serious consideration of our vocation as Christians. It is a time of fasting and penitence, and a time of additional opportunities to come to a more active and demonstrative expression of our belief and faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Make a rule for Lent, and try to keep it. As a minimum of activity, plan to attend Divine Service every Sunday during Lent.

On the six Sundays in Lent, the Rector will preach sermons on "The Personalities of The Passion."

The First Sunday in Lent 9 a.m. Holy Communion 9:45 a.m. Sunday Church School 11 a.m. Morning Prayer, Litany and Sermon, Personalities of the Passion—Peter. 5 p.m. High School Fellowship

Sunday—10 a.m. The Church Bible School, Raymond E. Harrington, Superintendent.

11 a.m. Service of Divine Worship. Anthem by the choir. Message by the pastor: "Making God Clear, and Near and Dear." Man needs a revelation from God. We believe that we have that Word from God. The greatest blessing of life is to know God in loving experience. 6 p.m. Student Fellowship Supper.

6:30 p.m. Student Fellowship 7:30 p.m. Home fellowship at the parsonage.

Wednesday, Feb. 14—7:30 p.m. Union Lenten Service at the Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Orion Hess bringing the message.

Presbyterian Church

This Sunday is the first Sunday in Lent. Let us not view Lent as something extra that we can do and thus gain merit in the eyes of God. Rather let it be the admission that our ordinary living falls very short of what it should be. Thus, in this period of six and a half weeks we try to live more the way we ought to live all of the time, and by its discipline strength is gained to live the rest of our lives according to its pattern. Everyone should keep Lent, but everyone should also scrutinize carefully for what purpose he is keeping it.

"What a Big Saving There Is Since I've Been Doing All My Marketing at A&P!"

Customers' Corner

Did you ever hear of "quality control"?

At A&P this means that we set high quality standards for the food we sell... and then we stick to those standards through thick and thin.

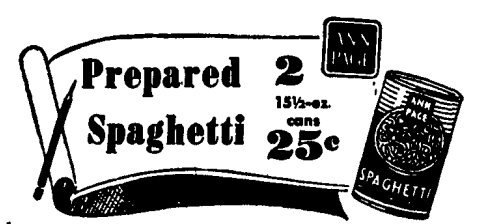

You won't find us lowering our high quality standards because supplies happen to be scarce, or because we want to put on a "bargain" sale.

That is why you can shop at A&P, day in and day out, with complete confidence that if, for any reason, you are not satisfied with any purchase, your money will be cheerfully refunded.

We will be grateful for any suggestions you may have that will help us maintain our high quality standards. Please write:
