

STRIKES and SPARES

BY CHARLES T. ARNOLD

In the Commercial Bowling League, the league leaders, the Roman Gardens team took three points from the Texas Hot boys. The leadoff man for each team was father versus son. This was of particular interest as the father won the first game by 50 pins and the son won over his father in each of the second and third games. The father, Hank LaCoss, beat his son by a total of 28 pins.

Winters Dairy, sparked by the excellent bowling of Earl Lavine and Dave Fenton, took three points from the Mahawk Roofers. Earl Lavine's high triple plus his handicap places him at the top of the list in that he beat out Ben Bowman by four pins.

The Putnam-Hawley team took three points from the Racquette Valley Dairy boys. The Dairy was short a man for the first game, and then Charles Dittan was not hitting the pins as he usually does. Herman Begeal tried to make up for it by hitting a 588 triple, but it was not enough.

The Potsdam Jay Cees and the Nicholville Photo teams, each short a man, fought it out with a finish in favor of the Jay Cees, who took three points. Sam Chambers for the Nicholville boys hit a 585 and Martell, Walt Williams and Ben Bowman had triples of over 500 each. If the Jay Cees keep up the good work they certainly can climb out of the cellar position.

The ROTC Staff tangled with the Nickerson's Shell boys and split the points two each. Art Ingraham tried the strong man stunt by coming in late and starting his first game in the fifth frame. While the score shows only 115 that is the total pins for six out of the ten frames. Not many bowlers could rush in and start in the fifth frame and do as well.

The Colton Flying A's and the Potsdam High School teams also split the points, two and two. Charlie Turcotte startled his teammates and his opponents by hitting a high triple of 565. If he could have added 13 more pins to that score he would have had high triple with handicap. Nice going Charlie.

The American Legion 2 team, helped by the outstanding bowling of Jimmie Miller and Bob O'Driscoll, won three points from the OWD team. Millard Stone, Frank Sisson and Jim Lahey were sure a hard trio to overcome. Leo Eggleston and Cy Everett were way off form. Charlie and Arnold and Art Thompson can do better.

The American Legion 1 team took three points from the A & P store. They were short one man when they did it, but Clarence Parlow and Francis Bresee and Ernie Zelbacker were in rare form, while White and Allen Thompson were below their usual form. Roy Graves, Oliver and Doug Pete sure made it hard for the Legionnaires.

In the Sandstone League Theater and McManis made up a game on Thursday evening. McManis taking three points. Bill Van Alstine and Mac Arthur were hitting too many splits or missing too many spares. Dettel and Piper were trying for a new low for them in their first game.

When the Rialto Theater boys met the Maytag 2 team on their regular scheduled night, they took all four points from their opponents. MacArthur and Bill Van Alstine were back in their usual form, every bowler has his off nights. The best of them slip into splits and miss easy spares. Milton Bacon was high for his team. Bill Oman Sr. wants to look out for his laurels or Bill Jr. will be treading on his heels before long.

The American Legion team bowed to the Lions and let them get away with three points. Milan Stark was not his usual self. Why? Jimmie Green only bowled one game and that was way below his average. The Lions roared in two of the three games and made enough pins to take a total pins. Nye Smith Jr. had a very nice triple for the Lions and Fran Bresee did very well for himself and the Legion team.

The Firemen upset the VFW team and walked away with three points. Herman Hiter and Maurice Sullivan had nice triples. Charlie hit over 500 for the Vets.

The Community Ice Cream boys were off form and hitting into splits and missing spares when they dropped three points to the Lions Cubs. John Miles showed some of his old time form and aided materially by Louis Strickler, did the job. Dominic Bibeck and Dick Klumpson were not hitting their usual stride.

Flare's Tavern continued on their winning ways when they took four points from the St. Lawrence Electric team. The only thing that can beat a good team is a better one, and the St. Lawrence Electric is not that good.

The Loblaw team managed to take one out of four points from McManus Diners. The second game was Loblaw's best game and incidentally, McManus' poorest, which accounts for that one point for Loblaw.

The Breckenridge Oilers took three points from the Kaplan boys. It was close with only five pins difference in the final total score. Louis Etherton, assisted by Paul LaBrake and Ernest Erwin, sure made it interesting for the Oilers. Four or five men instead of three on the Kaplans team sure would have made a lot of difference.

The M.Y.F. met with Miss Jean Rockwell at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Mabel McKee on Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Curtis of Brookdale were guests of Mrs. Lois Turner Friday afternoon.

The Slippery Five team of the Loomis Talc League of Gouverneur came to Potsdam Saturday evening and met a team from the American Legion Post. They came, they saw, they conquered. For some reason, and I think it was the alleys and pins, the Gouverneur boys were shooting way over their heads.

Their handicaps were based on a 200 base and the Legion boys used their handicaps based on 66% percent and 180 base. Knowing that they were going to have a hard time of it, the Legionnaires were good sports and met some good sports from the Marble City return game is planned for Feb. 24.

Three changes in the staff of the military science and tactics department at Clarkson College were announced Friday by Lt. Col. Louis M. Etherton, chairman of the department.

Lt. Col. Alexander G. MacAlister left Clarkson last week to report to First Army headquarters at Governor's Island. He came here last November from Fort Belvoir where he was commanding officer of the 1st School Battalion, TECR.

Later this month, First Sergeant Stephen Ori will leave the Reserve Officers Training Corps staff to become an artillery captain. His assignment will be with the 5th Armored Division in Arkansas. Sergeant Ori, who resides at 130 Canal Street, Massena, served in the military department at Clarkson's Malone Branch before coming to Potsdam.

A new member of the military science department is Captain John R. Dart who reported for active duty last Wednesday. A 1948 graduate of Clarkson, Captain Dart is now an assistant professor. At present he is instructing ROTC members of the senior class in tactics and techniques of river crossing operations.

Other pin rollers making scores of over 400 were: M. Richardson, 497; A. Seamans, 438; E. Claffey, 476; K. Embury, 464; V. Robinson, 447; P. McDonald, 446; M. Borjman, 441; F. Phelps 438; E. Hickey, 435; R. Schoberlein, 433; E. Munson, 430; R. Fisher, 428; R. Powell, 427 and B. Greene, 403.

Shepherd's held the leading points with 54 followed by Dailey Brother's with 52 and Norwood Hardware with 45. Hunters total was 32 points followed by H. M. Kinsman Company with 29 and Royce Clothing with 28.

Girl Scouts to Mark World Thinking Day

Potsdam Girl Scouts, parents and their leaders will meet together Monday, Feb. 19, at 4 p.m. in the American Legion room at the civic center to celebrate Thinking Day.

The anniversary of the birth of Lord Baden-Powell, founder of the Boy Guides, is marked as the climax of International Month and is observed by Girl Scouts and Guides throughout the world. The program will be under the direction of Mrs. J. Richard Christian.

Dorothy Hess, Karen O'Brien and Beth Aiken of Troop 3 will present their playlet illustrating "Democracy in Our Troop and School". Members of Troop 3 will sing the camp hymn.

Highlight of the entertainment is expected to be the "information please" quiz on scouting which will feature scout leaders and their assistants as an answering panel.

Potsdam Girl Scout Council members, troop committee members and interested parents are invited to attend.
