

Sandstoners Trim
Gouverneur, 9-1;
Donah Gives 3 Hits

Gouverneur—Behind Don Donah's three-hit hurling, Potsdam High School swept away the Wildcats of Gouverneur Tuesday afternoon, 9 to 1. It was Gouverneur's third loss of the current Northern New York League season and Potsdam's second win in three starts.

Potsdam walloped Gouverneur pitchers Bresette and Narrow for a total of 11 hits. The Sandstoners got underway early in the first chukkers when three runs crossed the plate. Another score was chalked up in the second, two more in the fourth and three more in the sixth.

The lone Gouverneur tally was scored in the fourth inning.

The line score:
PHS 310 203 0-9 1
Gouverneur 000 100 0-1 3

Vermont Nips
Tech, 7-6, in 13-Inning Tilt

The University of Vermont ran through three Clarkson pitchers and after 13 innings of play owned the Golden Knights, 7 to 6, on Snell Field Saturday afternoon.

The Techmen outthrew the visitors 15-11 committing two misplays to three errors for Vermont.

Don Smith, who walked on the mound in the 11th got the loss after Stan Mroczkowski struck out six, walked three, and Bill Chamberlain struck out one, and walked nine. Smith walked two and got no strikeouts.

The contest seasawed for nine innings when the score was deadlocked at 4-4. The 10th brought two runs for each club and the unlucky 13th defeated Coach Hank Hodge's men as Vermont pushed over the winning run and then held Clarkson scoreless in their half of the frame.

Tech threatened to break up the ballgame in the last of the 11th when Smith and Don Palozzi each got singles. But with two down, Bucky Rohi lined out to end the inning.

George Frank was high man at the plate with three hits, one of them one of the longest homers hit in Snell Field in many a day. The ball rolled under the right field football stands.

The line score:
Vt. 100 002 001 200 6-7 11 3
CCT: 001 001 200 200 6-6 15 2

SUNSET (DRIVE-IN) THEATRE

Canton Ogdenburg Road

Thursday and Friday
May 8, 9

DORIS DAY in
"Starlift"

—Also—BOWERY BOYS
in
"Angels in Disguise"

Saturday, May 10

ROD CAMERON
in
"Cavalry Scout"

—Also—
ABBOTT and COSTELLO
in
"Little Giant"

PHONE 973

ROBERTS NEW SHOE STORE

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

PHONE 973

SPORTS

THURSDAY, MAY 8, 1952

Indians Open SLV Loop Wars May 18;
To Face Waddington in Western Division

Potsdam Indians baseball team opens its St. Lawrence Valley League season on Sunday, May 18, with a journey to Waddington, according to the schedule issued this week by the league.

The Indians will be playing in the western division of the league this summer. Opponents will be Norfolk, Winthrop-Brasher, Russell, No wood and Raymondville, sell, Norwood and Raymondville. In the eastern division of the loop are Burke, Chateaugay, Constable, Helena, Hogansburg, Fort Covington, North Lawrence and St. Regis Falls.

The first home contest for the Indians will be on May 25 against Winthrop-Brasher. The rest of the schedule:

June 1, Russell at Potsdam; June 8, Potsdam at Massena; June 15, Norwood at Potsdam; June 22, Norfolk at Potsdam; July 6, Waddington at Potsdam; July 15, all-star game at Raymondville; July 20, Potsdam at Winthrop-Brasher; July 27, Raymondville at Potsdam; Aug. 3, Potsdam at Norwood; Aug. 10, Massena at Potsdam; Aug. 27, Potsdam at Russell; Aug. 24, Potsdam at Norfolk; Aug. 31, reserved for make-up games.

Representatives of all teams will meet at the Woodlawn Hotel in Massena on Sunday, May 11, at 2 p. m.

Teachers Club
ATI, 13 to 9,
For 3d Victory

Potsdam State Teachers' ball club kicked off to a five-run start in the first inning Friday in Canton and wound up downing Canton Agricultural and Technical Institute, 13 to 9, for their third consecutive win of the season.

Leon Perry, Potsdam southpaw, never really got started. He gave up nine hits and struck out two Red Raiders.

The Massena cause was hindered by six errors, while Potsdam made four misplays in the field.

The Sandstoners drew first blood in the third when Art Travis scored on a couple of errors. The visitors forged ahead with two runs on two hits in the fourth. Gary Prosper's round-tripper to right center brought in Warnie Lizette who had singled.

Potsdam tied it up in the fifth when John Marich and Joe Hall collided trying to field Sherburne's long fly to left center and Obie Bancroft, who got on with a single, scampered home.

But that was all there was left in the Sandstone scoring drive. Massena scored on two singles in the sixth. Then the visitors scored two more tallies in the seventh on one hit, an error at home by catcher Paul Murphy and a long fly by Russ Patnode which scored Hall after the catch.

The line score:
PHS: 001 010 0-2 3 4
Massena: 000 201 2-5 9 6

Perkins, Scibilia
Elected at Tech

Richard R. Perkins of Syracuse was elected president of Clarkson student board of governors, and Anthony Scibilia was elected student representative to athletic board of control in balloting Monday.

Mr. Perkins defeated Bill Drummond, Montreal. Mr. Scibilia was victorious over Al Sellers of Potsdam. These four final candidates were elected in primary elections held a week ago.

Mr. Perkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Perkins, Syracuse, is a junior business administration student, majoring in accounting. He played football and is a letterman on the hockey team playing defense. He is a member of Clarkson Society of Accountants and Lambda Iota fraternity. He has been on the dean's list for past semester scholastic honor grades.

Mr. Scibilia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Scibilia, Silver Creek, is a business administration student. He was a member of the football team and won his varsity "C" letter for that sport. He also has been assistant manager of the baseball team.

Boy Bowlers Dine; Give Bouquet, Gift to Coach

Junior Tenpins, a boys' bowling team, held its annual banquet Monday at Morgia's Restaurant. Members presented their coach, Miss Irene McIntyre, with a bouquet and a gift in appreciation for her work with the team during the past season.

Stanley McDonald, Dan Hall and George Levi had high score averages for the year. Other members attending the banquet were Peter Crumb, Kit Dunn, Garth Everett, Marshall Garner and Dan Given.

Student Places
In Area Test

Merle S. Day of Kenmore, Clarkson senior, placed third in the technical paper contest at American Society of Mechanical Engineers regional student conference held at University of Massachusetts last weekend.

The region includes 19 engineering colleges and universities in New England and upper New York state. Prize winners were first, Yale University, second, the University of Rhode Island, third, Clarkson, fourth, University of Connecticut, and fifth, Tufts.

In the last seven years, Clarkson students have placed five times in ASME contests. According to scoring system used, Clarkson has acquired more points in the last seven years than any other college. Yale and Clarkson men have been among the winners for the last three consecutive years.

Rochester Doctor to Talk To County Medical Society

Dr. Alfred L. Lane, director of physical medicine, Rochester General Hospital, Rochester, will address the St. Lawrence County Medical Society at a meeting to be held Thursday, May 8, at 4 p. m. at Clarkson College. Dr. Lane will have for his subject, "Physical Medicine in the Doctor's Office and the Patient's Home."

This postgraduate instruction is arranged by the Medical Society of the State of New York with the cooperation of the New York State Department of Health.

3 Games on Tap
For PSTC Club

Coach Sam Molnar's Potsdam State tilters hope to continue their winning ways when they meet three opponents during the next week.

Tomorrow, in a contest to be played on Snell Field at 3:30 p. m., they will meet the Canton Agricultural and Technical team in the first home contest of the season. These two teams are strong rivals and in a contest played recently at Canton, the Maroon and Gray dismantled Potsdam emerged victorious by score of 13 to 9.

Dick Lemot is leading the local hitting with a .583 average in three contests on 7 hits in 12 times at bat. Mac Lindahl, local first sacker, follows with a .417 average on five hits in 12 times at bat. Arnold Dunn, freshman flinger, has pitched two victories to date.

Coach Molnar will probably stand pat with his starting lineup of Dan Hurley, Ken Van Orman, and Fred Pepper in the outfield, Lindahl, Dick Heller, Ed Husted, and Lemot stationed around the infield, and Fred Chase handling the catching. The hurling assignment will be drawn by either Arnold Dunn, John Aryassian, or Hank Levy.

On Saturday, May 10, PSTC will travel to Oswego to meet the State Teachers College team in an afternoon game. Oswego State scored a win over the locals last season at Potsdam in the first contest played between these two schools.

Champlain College will be host

3 Contests Face
Tech in Week

Three games, only one of them at home, face Hank Hodge's Clarkson College baseball team in the next week.

On Saturday, Tech plays host to a Camp Drum team in the first of a home-and-home series. Game time is 2:30 p. m. on Snell Field.

On Tuesday Clarkson faces Brockport State Teachers College at Brockport. The following day Clarkson moves on to Rochester to face the University of Rochester.

Pitching duties will probably be divided between Bill Chamberlain, Stan Mroczkowski, Don Smith or Bill Byszewski.

Teachers Club
ATI, 13 to 9,
For 3d Victory

Potsdam State Teachers' ball club kicked off to a five-run start in the first inning Friday in Canton and wound up downing Canton Agricultural and Technical Institute, 13 to 9, for their third consecutive win of the season.

Leon Perry, Potsdam southpaw, never really got started. He gave up nine hits and struck out two Red Raiders.

The Massena cause was hindered by six errors, while Potsdam made four misplays in the field.

The Sandstoners drew first blood in the third when Art Travis scored on a couple of errors. The visitors forged ahead with two runs on two hits in the fourth. Gary Prosper's round-tripper to right center brought in Warnie Lizette who had singled.

Potsdam tied it up in the fifth when John Marich and Joe Hall collided trying to field Sherburne's long fly to left center and Obie Bancroft, who got on with a single, scampered home.

But that was all there was left in the Sandstone scoring drive. Massena scored on two singles in the sixth. Then the visitors scored two more tallies in the seventh on one hit, an error at home by catcher Paul Murphy and a long fly by Russ Patnode which scored Hall after the catch.

The line score:
PHS: 001 010 0-2 3 4
Massena: 000 201 2-5 9 6

Perkins, Scibilia
Elected at Tech

Richard R. Perkins of Syracuse was elected president of Clarkson student board of governors, and Anthony Scibilia was elected student representative to athletic board of control in balloting Monday.

Mr. Perkins defeated Bill Drummond, Montreal. Mr. Scibilia was victorious over Al Sellers of Potsdam. These four final candidates were elected in primary elections held a week ago.

Mr. Perkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Perkins, Syracuse, is a junior business administration student, majoring in accounting. He played football and is a letterman on the hockey team playing defense. He is a member of Clarkson Society of Accountants and Lambda Iota fraternity. He has been on the dean's list for past semester scholastic honor grades.

Mr. Scibilia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Scibilia, Silver Creek, is a business administration student. He was a member of the football team and won his varsity "C" letter for that sport. He also has been assistant manager of the baseball team.

Boy Bowlers Dine; Give Bouquet, Gift to Coach

Junior Tenpins, a boys' bowling team, held its annual banquet Monday at Morgia's Restaurant. Members presented their coach, Miss Irene McIntyre, with a bouquet and a gift in appreciation for her work with the team during the past season.

Stanley McDonald, Dan Hall and George Levi had high score averages for the year. Other members attending the banquet were Peter Crumb, Kit Dunn, Garth Everett, Marshall Garner and Dan Given.

Student Places
In Area Test

Merle S. Day of Kenmore, Clarkson senior, placed third in the technical paper contest at American Society of Mechanical Engineers regional student conference held at University of Massachusetts last weekend.

The region includes 19 engineering colleges and universities in New England and upper New York state. Prize winners were first, Yale University, second, the University of Rhode Island, third, Clarkson, fourth, University of Connecticut, and fifth, Tufts.

In the last seven years, Clarkson students have placed five times in ASME contests. According to scoring system used, Clarkson has acquired more points in the last seven years than any other college. Yale and Clarkson men have been among the winners for the last three consecutive years.

3 Games on Tap
For PSTC Club

Coach Sam Molnar's Potsdam State tilters hope to continue their winning ways when they meet three opponents during the next week.

Tomorrow, in a contest to be played on Snell Field at 3:30 p. m., they will meet the Canton Agricultural and Technical team in the first home contest of the season. These two teams are strong rivals and in a contest played recently at Canton, the Maroon and Gray dismantled Potsdam emerged victorious by score of 13 to 9.

Dick Lemot is leading the local hitting with a .583 average in three contests on 7 hits in 12 times at bat. Mac Lindahl, local first sacker, follows with a .417 average on five hits in 12 times at bat. Arnold Dunn, freshman flinger, has pitched two victories to date.

Coach Molnar will probably stand pat with his starting lineup of Dan Hurley, Ken Van Orman, and Fred Pepper in the outfield, Lindahl, Dick Heller, Ed Husted, and Lemot stationed around the infield, and Fred Chase handling the catching. The hurling assignment will be drawn by either Arnold Dunn, John Aryassian, or Hank Levy.

On Saturday, May 10, PSTC will travel to Oswego to meet the State Teachers College team in an afternoon game. Oswego State scored a win over the locals last season at Potsdam in the first contest played between these two schools.

Champlain College will be host

3 Contests Face
Tech in Week

Three games, only one of them at home, face Hank Hodge's Clarkson College baseball team in the next week.

On Saturday, Tech plays host to a Camp Drum team in the first of a home-and-home series. Game time is 2:30 p. m. on Snell Field.

On Tuesday Clarkson faces Brockport State Teachers College at Brockport. The following day Clarkson moves on to Rochester to face the University of Rochester.

Pitching duties will probably be divided between Bill Chamberlain, Stan Mroczkowski, Don Smith or Bill Byszewski.

Teachers Club
ATI, 13 to 9,
For 3d Victory

Potsdam State Teachers' ball club kicked off to a five-run start in the first inning Friday in Canton and wound up downing Canton Agricultural and Technical Institute, 13 to 9, for their third consecutive win of the season.

Leon Perry, Potsdam southpaw, never really got started. He gave up nine hits and struck out two Red Raiders.

The Massena cause was hindered by six errors, while Potsdam made four misplays in the field.

The Sandstoners drew first blood in the third when Art Travis scored on a couple of errors. The visitors forged ahead with two runs on two hits in the fourth. Gary Prosper's round-tripper to right center brought in Warnie Lizette who had singled.

Potsdam tied it up in the fifth when John Marich and Joe Hall collided trying to field Sherburne's long fly to left center and Obie Bancroft, who got on with a single, scampered home.

But that was all there was left in the Sandstone scoring drive. Massena scored on two singles in the sixth. Then the visitors scored two more tallies in the seventh on one hit, an error at home by catcher Paul Murphy and a long fly by Russ Patnode which scored Hall after the catch.

The line score:
PHS: 001 010 0-2 3 4
Massena: 000 201 2-5 9 6

Perkins, Scibilia
Elected at Tech

Richard R. Perkins of Syracuse was elected president of Clarkson student board of governors, and Anthony Scibilia was elected student representative to athletic board of control in balloting Monday.

Mr. Perkins defeated Bill Drummond, Montreal. Mr. Scibilia was victorious over Al Sellers of Potsdam. These four final candidates were elected in primary elections held a week ago.

Mr. Perkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Perkins, Syracuse, is a junior business administration student, majoring in accounting. He played football and is a letterman on the hockey team playing defense. He is a member of Clarkson Society of Accountants and Lambda Iota fraternity. He has been on the dean's list for past semester scholastic honor grades.

Mr. Scibilia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Scibilia, Silver Creek, is a business administration student. He was a member of the football team and won his varsity "C" letter for that sport. He also has been assistant manager of the baseball team.

Boy Bowlers Dine; Give Bouquet, Gift to Coach

Junior Tenpins, a boys' bowling team, held its annual banquet Monday at Morgia's Restaurant. Members presented their coach, Miss Irene McIntyre, with a bouquet and a gift in appreciation for her work with the team during the past season.

Stanley McDonald, Dan Hall and George Levi had high score averages for the year. Other members attending the banquet were Peter Crumb, Kit Dunn, Garth Everett, Marshall Garner and Dan Given.

Student Places
In Area Test

Merle S. Day of Kenmore, Clarkson senior, placed third in the technical paper contest at American Society of Mechanical Engineers regional student conference held at University of Massachusetts last weekend.

The region includes 19 engineering colleges and universities in New England and upper New York state. Prize winners were first, Yale University, second, the University of Rhode Island, third, Clarkson, fourth, University of Connecticut, and fifth, Tufts.

In the last seven years, Clarkson students have placed five times in ASME contests. According to scoring system used, Clarkson has acquired more points in the last seven years than any other college. Yale and Clarkson men have been among the winners for the last three consecutive years.

TWIN VALUE Sale!

$2.98

Tyer's FLEETWOOD

Child's 5-12, Misses 1-9-3, 2.27 to 2.88

- Canvas Oxfords
- Croge design sure-grip soles
- Comfortable arch-type support
- Red, Blue, White

Sizes 6 1/2 to 12

PHONE 973

ROBERTS NEW SHOE STORE

Rialto Theatre

Thursday and Friday — May 8 & 9

He had millions and the court said she was to tell him how he could spend it.

M-G-M presents the brightest comedy of the year!

Just This Once!

AD. MAT. NO. 111 10c-15c (14 LINES)

Saturday — May 10

DOUBLE FEATURE

TWO ACADEMY AWARDS! JOHN FORD

Stagecoach with PAUL HENREID and JOHN WAYNE

Sky High with MARIE LYNN

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday — May 11, 12, 13

There just ain't... Never wuz... and never will be anybody else like him.

PHONE 2280

Wednesday and Thursday — May 14, 15

The picture nominated for 12 Academy Awards.

"A Streetcar Named Desire"

VIVIEN LEIGH MARLON BRANDO

At popular prices... last chance to see this big hit!

SILVER DOLLAR DAYS

ARE BIG SALE DAYS AT THE RODGER RADIO CO.

SEE OUR ADS IN ANOTHER PART OF THIS NEWS-PAPER. DROP IN THIS WEEKEND FOR OUR BARGAINS.

- PHONE 4368
- PHONE 5082
- PHONE 2280
- PHONE 2570
- PHONE 2687
- PHONE 5435

RODGER RADIO COMPANY

25 Main St. Phone 369

SILVER DOLLAR DAYS

FRIDAY & SATURDAY

FREE HAT with each Michael-Stern Suit

One Lot $4.00 Dress Shirts 1.98

4 Pairs Nylon Work Sox 1.00

20% Off for 2 Days

ODD TROUSERS
SPORT SHIRTS
PAJAMAS
POLO SHIRTS — JACKETS — RAINCOATS

ONE RACK

Men's Suits and Gabardine Raincoats 19.49 up

Crosby Square Shoes Knox Mats 20% Off

Manhattan Shirts — Suspenders — Belts — Etc.

Pincus Store

Big Values All Through the Stock