

POTSDAM HIGH-LIGHTS

by JUDY LOWE

When the floodlights dim tonight at 8:15 in the high school auditorium, the curtain will rise on the three-act comedy "Spring Dance" under the direction of Herbert Dewey. This production is being given by the Potsdam section, troupe 1102, of the National Theatrical Society. A cast of 13 including Hubie Rogers, Bill Champney, Paul Weatherup, Keith DeHise, Katherine Sullivan, Margaret Adams, JoAnne Yette, Marion Doyle, Ken Mochel, Susan Terry, Tom Covell Margaret Hough, and Barbara Grant along with Mr. Dewey and the stage crew has worked hard for the past month on this.

The setting of the play centers around a girls' boarding house in a college town. For this production there will be two sets used. The curtain opens on the living room, but in act one, scene two, the scene changes to a girls' study and bedroom. After that it changes back to the former.

A program has been arranged to fill in between the scenes and act. A girls' trio, composed of Judy Conroy, Carole Hughto, and Rose Dokianos, a clarinet trio, and the little German band will send music to your ears. You had better come early so you don't have to stand in line long. Remember now, that's 8:15 at school tonight. If you don't come, you'll kick yourself after you have read the reviews.

A tentative date of May 29 has been set for class day. That's the Thursday before Memorial Day and the long weekend. On this date scholastic and athletic awards are given out and each class presents a 10- or 15-minute skit. The emphasis this year is going to be more on the skits than the awards. Usually a whole afternoon is devoted to this program. More about this later.

Our baseball team has a record of one lost and one won. They defeated Ogdensburg 10-3 and bowed to Massena 5-2. They traveled to Gouverneur on Tuesday. This Friday Tupper Lake comes here to play. Let's talk up two more victories here.

Yesterday the three French classes went to Canton in order to see a French movie. They do this every year. Mademoiselle Lille of St. Lawrence University orders a French movie and she invites the French students from surrounding towns. It was shown in Appleton Arena. Those who wanted to, stayed for supper. It was quite an afternoon.

Roy Ellis, a personnel director from General Electric is coming to school soon to talk to the junior and senior boys. This should prove interesting because GE has so much to offer.

In the May Festival last weekend these were the ratings our solists received. The higher the grade the more difficult it is. Peter Spurbeck, A in grade 6; Carleton Wood, A in grade 5; David Kendall, A in grade 4; Gale Stillman, A in grade 6, Gerald Barnett, B in grade 2; Mary Ellen Stevenson, a festival entry; Polly Young, A in grade 5; Rodney Jennings, A in grade 4; Judy Conroy, A in grade 4; and Herb Lashombe, A in grade 3. The piano entries ratings weren't posted in time for print. This is a good showing for our school. Our hats off to you.

Last Thursday Nancy Stiles left for Albany to attend a church conference. Then on Monday she went up to Lake Placid for another conference. She didn't return until Wednesday. Too bad, it's a little too cold for swimming. Art Travis left for Lake Placid on Monday to spend two days.

A track meet between Canton, Gouverneur, and Potsdam is going to be held here this Saturday. This is not part of the league competition. The league opens the following Saturday.

A number of our high school students entered the science fair in Canton last Saturday. Here are the results: Richard Kendall, first; Dave Parmale, first; Ken Mochel, second; Peter MacComber, third. Dick received two special awards: The best chemistry exhibit in the fair awarded by the Chemical Society of St. Lawrence University (he tied with another entry for this), and the best exhibit in the fair given by Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering society of Clarkson. Dave also received a special award. Dick and Ken were in Fair at Hartwick College in On-

RETURNS TO COLLEGE

Miss Noreen Murphy, a senior at College of St. Rose, returned to Albany last Saturday. Miss Murphy celebrated her 20th birthday Apr. 17 at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Clohosey, who gave a dinner in her honor.

conta on May 17.

Another high school senior girl is planning to join the married couples club. This Saturday Arletha LaBaff is going to marry Kermit Ford. She still plans to graduate in June. Good luck to you.

Winthrop Man Dies of Burns

Everett Carr, 70, RD 2, Winthrop, died yesterday at 3:40 a. m. at Potsdam Hospital from severe burns of the body received in a grass fire Saturday.

Mr. Carr had been fighting a grass fire near his home when his clothes caught in a fence as he attempted to climb over. Flames spread to the clothing and he was badly burned around his waistline before he could free himself and extinguish his burning clothing. Neighbors took him to the office of Dr. Cudlipp, Winthrop, who ordered his removal to Potsdam Hospital.
