That the immortality of life will appear as one realizes his true spiritual identity, will be explained at Christian Science services next Sunday. The subject is "Mortals and Immortals."

The Golden Text is from Romans: "They that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you." (8:8,9)

Included in the selections to be read from the Bible will be: "For he that soweth to his flesh shall the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall the Spirit reap life everlasting." (Gal. 6:8)

One of the passages to be read from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will be: "It is only by acknowledging the supremacy of Spirit which annuls the claims of matter, that mortals can lay off mortality and find the indissoluble spiritual link which establishes man forever in the divine likeness, inseparable from his creator." (p.491:12-16)

Presbyterian Church

Life is not to be understood in human terms alone. Beside our human existence there are strange, unaccountable excite-ments, yearnings and surprises that play upon our lives with the force of an Unseen Personality.
Learning to live in response to that Personality and in fellowship with Him is one of the highest arts and skills in life. Religion and church exist to help you to discover this great adventure of the spirit. Like any other skill or art it cannot be mastered all at once, but requires diligent practice.

Come and worship with us.
9:30 a.m. Sunday Church School.
11 a.m. Worship and sermon,
