Hospital Reports 370 Admitted

A total of 370 patients were admitted to Potsdam Hospital during the month of April, according to a report issued last week by Frank L. Cubley, secretary. Add to that figure 69 births during the month and total admissions during the month equal 439.

The total number of patients during the month was 859, including patients left in the hospital from the previous month and emergency first aid patients.

There were 11 deaths in the hospital during the month; 444 patients were discharged.

At the hospital, 204 operations were performed during the month. Seventy-one of these operations were classed as major and 133 were classed as minor.

There were 36 county welfare in-patients and four welfare out-patients in April.

The hospital kitchen served 6886 meals to patients, 3300 to employees and 27 to guests, to make the total number of meals served 10,013.

The answers to everyday insurance problems*
By JIM LAHEY

QUESTION: We have an old barn at the back of our place which is a favorite playground of the neighborhood children. The barn is falling apart and I'm always afraid some child will be hurt playing there. Also I'd like to know if our Comprehensive Liability Insurance would cover our liability in case one of the children was hurt.

ANSWER: Of course if the barn is dangerous and serves no good purpose you should tear it down to be certain no accidents will occur. Your insurance does cover that type of accident however.

*If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.
