POTSDAM HIGH-LIGHTS

By MELODY STEINBERG

Don't forget the Senior Jamboree, this Saturday, Nov. 11. A variety of new ideas has developed such as miniature golf, a turkey raffle, and the choosing of a king and queen for the Senior Ball. Of course, there will be the repeat of all the old games including a favorite from last year, Dunk the Senior. I wonder just why everyone seems to get such a thrill out of that one?

The preceding show promises to be very enjoyable, also. All the participants have been practicing their skits or single acts so they'll be perfect for the big night.

Tonight, Back - to - School Night, parents of PCS students will be entertained by our band and the Boys' Chorus in the auditorium. They will then follow the regular school-day schedule, spending eight minutes in each class. Members of the Student Council will act as guides and the Honor Society will serve refreshments in the cafeteria.

The Varsity Club held a very successful dance last Saturday, Nov. 4. A few of the boys helped out D. J. Con Elliot and showed everybody their talent.

GARRY MOORE LETTER — The following letter was received by Thomas Molnar of the Jamboree committee from Garry Moore, as the theme of the celebration will be on Garry's TV show. The letter follows:

Dear Tom: Just a note to wish you and the senior class of Potsdam High School luck on your show for the Senior-Jamboree. We are honored that you have chosen "The Garry Moore Show" for your take-off and feel sure that you'll have as much fun as we do.

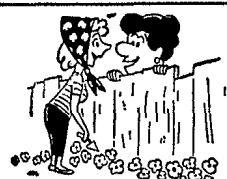

Again — thanks for selecting our show and best wishes.
