NNCS Open House Is Successful; Mrs. Regan Celebrates 97th Year

By MRS. LAWRENCE DEAN, EV 4-4310

Norwood-Norfolk Central school, in cooperation with the Parent-Teacher Assn., held an Open House last Thursday evening, at the Junior-Senior High School, in observance of National Education Week. Teachers were in their home rooms throughout the evening, to confer with the parents, Supervisors and administrative officials, as well as some members of the Board of Education, were also on hand to meet and welcome the visitors. Punch and cupcakes were served in the Home Economics Room throughout the evening.

Members of the Student Council acted as guides, helping the visitors to locate the various teachers on their lists. A parent with two or three children climbed a lot of stairs and walked what probably seemed miles, in an effort not to miss anyone. Everyone seemed to be pleased with this opportunity, however, and, at the time we checked the lists, about 100 persons had registered.

In the grade schools of the District, Open House went on all week, with a good attendance of parents almost every day. It seemed like every organization we belong to had a meeting that week, but we weren't sorry we took time to visit the school—for one thing, we learned that we are "a very kind lady" (to quote my third-grader!). Also, it's worth any parent's time to just look around the classrooms and see what these young children are doing. A display of electricity in one room at Norwood made us feel sure we have some budding geniuses in our midst. And the Science displays in all rooms were just marvelous.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marisseau were guests at a Communion breakfast held Oct. 29 by the Norwood C.Y.C., in honor of Catholic Youth Week. Marisseau spoke on "Religion and Philosophy." Mothers of the members prepared and served the breakfast.

97th Birthday
Mrs. Catherine Regan, 12 Pleasant St., Norwood, believed to be Norwood's oldest resident, observed her 97th birthday Nov. 9 at her home here. Following her usual custom, Mrs. Regan began the day with attendance at Mass at St. Andrew Catholic Church. She is also an active member of the Altar Society of the church, and a charter member of the Norwood Catholic Daughters of America.

Mrs. Regan, the former Catherine Connolly, was married to Daniel C. Regan on Sept. 15, 1886 at the Church of the Visitation, Norfolk. The officiating clergyman was Father Kelleher, at that time pastor of both the Massena Catholic church and the Norfolk church. Mr. and Mrs. Regan operated a dairy farm on the Regan Rd., Norfolk, until 1924 when they moved to the Pleasant St. address in Norwood.

Mrs. Regan is the mother of seven children: Frank W., Palm Beach, Fla.; Mrs. Mark (Mary) Mahoney, Lonsville; Miss Helen Regan, at home; Daniel, Jr., Utah; Miss Agnes Elizabeth, Norwood; James, Regan Rd., Norfolk; Vincent, New York. There are also 13 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

All-State Festival
Several Norwood students participated in the 1961 Sectional All-State Music festival of the N. Y. S. Music Association, held in Potsdam Nov. 3-4. Rehearsals were held all day Friday and Saturday, culminating in a concert in the College theater at SUNY.

Philippine Psychiatrist Speaks Here Friday
Dr. Oscar Jaurigue, psychiatrist at the Ogdensburg State Hospital from the Philippines, will speak in Potsdam Friday on "Insights into Church Work in the Philippines." He will speak at a special service in the Church of the Nazarene.

The service, which begins at 7:45 p. m., is open to the general public.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kingsley have received word that their son, Richard and his family are getting settled and acquainted in Ankara, Turkey, where Staff Sgt. Kingsley is stationed with the U. S. Air Force. The boys attend an American school, but the family lives in a Turkish neighborhood and Mrs. Kingsley says that the Turkish women are very friendly. The entire family is learning to speak Turkish.

Mr. and Mrs. David Kingsley, Cemetery road, Norwood, are the parents of a son, David Robert, born Nov. 8 at Potsdam Hospital. This is the couple's first child. Mrs. Kingsley is the former Judith Fetterly of Massena.
