Area Receives First Snowfall; Katherine Chapman 4-H President

By MRS. MILDRED JENKINS, FL 3-4520

Although uninvited, Northern New York received its first snowfall of the season, last Wednesday night and Tuesday, Nov. 8-9, but we are delighted that it did not rain with us very long. Our weather over the weekend was ideal "Indian Summer Weather", too good to last at this time of the year, which ended with rain Sunday night and Monday, and again, turning colder.

Most parents visited a school this past week, in commemoration of "American Education Week," to analyze education as it is today, where they visited their children's teachers, observed the classrooms and viewed the handwork on display. The local central schools held open houses during the past week, sponsored by the teachers and the PTA, returning to the cafeteria for refreshments and a chance to get acquainted with teachers, and other parents.

Mr. and Mrs. George Murray observed their 41st wedding anniversary, Nov. 7.

Callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murray that day were: Mrs. Murray's mother, Mrs. Janet Paterson, Chase Mills; Mrs. Murray's sister, Mrs. Guy McElwain, Potsdam; and Mrs. Eva Cruse.

The North Stockholm WSCS sponsored a bazaar and food sale at the church hall Wednesday. Mrs. Eva Cruse was in charge of the arrangements.

A Fellowship covered dish supper, was served in the North Stockholm church hall Sunday evening, for members of the North Stockholm Methodist church, their families, and friends. Following the supper, Rev. Wilbur Clark, pastor, showed colored slides of his recent trip to Germany and Switzerland. Miss Lucille Jenkins, Beechertown, and Mrs. Sadie Stark and son, Charles, Brasher Falls, also attended the supper, and saw the interesting pictures.

Miss Ethel Delair, Tupper Lake, spent the weekend with Mrs. Eva Cruse.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis LaComb, Depauville, spent the weekend with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Easdel, Brookdale.

The North Stockholm Sunday School sponsored a Halloween party for the members of the Sunday School, on Monday evening, Oct. 30th, held at the church hall. Twenty-five little folks were present. Games were played and refreshments served.

Miss Ruth Hagan with her sister from Saranac Lake, visited Mrs. Eva Cruse, Sunday afternoon.

The Jolly Brook and Dale 4-H Club, of Brookdale, elected officers for the coming year, at a recent meeting. Kathleen Chapman was elected president. Other officers are Allan Jones, vice-president; Lloyd Chapman, treasurer; Beth Chapman, secretary; Keith LaSieve, reporter; and Vernon Brothers, song leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Moulton, with Mrs. Olivia Hunter, Winthrop, RD 1, visited Mrs. Moulton's uncle, James Snettinger, in Cornwall, Ontario, Oct. 26. Snettinger observed his 81st birthday, that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gibson Jr. and family, who have been living in the downstairs apartment in the Cyrus Home, have moved near West Stockholm.

Mr. and Mrs. Chmielewski and family, Ontario, Canada, are tenants in the Raymond Munson house.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parker, of Maryland, visited at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker and family, where they remained for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Cheney and Nancy, were in Canada, recently and, where they attended a wedding of a relative of Mrs. Cheney's, Duane Cheney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Cheney, spent Saturday and Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. Donald Cheney.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Gould, Taftsville, Vt, visited recently at the home of Mrs. Gould's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Orville McConber, Raymondville. They also visited Mrs. Gould's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wilkins and family, North Stockholm.

David Dean, Guy Conger Get Eagle Rank In Boy Scouting

Madrid — Two local youths have recently been awarded the Eagle Scout Badge by the Boy Scouts of America. They are David Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dean, and Guy Conger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Conger.

Dean joined Troop 14 of Madrid in February 1959 and transferred to Troop 75 in 1959. He became a second class scout that same year and in 1960 became first class scout. He held Star and Life Badges in 1961 and has 26 merit badges.

Dennis Clary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Clary, who is attending an Electronics College in Chicago, Ill., is ill, and is at his home, here. He will receive x-rays and tests, before returning to College.

Miss Veronica Ober, who is employed in Rochester, spent a weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Ober and family.

Ralph Porter and Donald McElwain visited Sheryl, where they toured the Conde Milking Machine Plant. Porter is a Conde Milking Machine representative for this area.

Bernard and Stanley Moulton, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Moulton were ill at their home with Chicken Pox, recently.

Miss Karen Taylor, spent a weekend at the home of her mother, Mrs. Irene Taylor and Pamela. Karen is attending Business College in Albany.

An Advisory Committee Workshop meeting of the Dairy-men's League Cooperative Association Inc. for the five Northern Counties of Jefferson, Lewis, St. Lawrence, Franklin and Clinton, inclusive of the officers of the Young Cooperators and Home Service Department, was held here Nov. 7.

A. G. Stillman, Potsdam, Manager of the Northern Membership area, conducted the meeting.

Topics discussed included many important problems confronting dairy farmers and the Dairy-men's League, to be discussed at the annual local unit meetings to be held throughout the five counties within the next three months.

Present from this area were the following: Claude Moulton, Potsdam, RD 2, Senior Adviser; Joe Lord, Potsdam, Field Representative; Mrs. Theda Wells, Potsdam, Young Cooperator Senior Adviser; Stillman, Potsdam; Howard E. Jenkins, Win-St. Lawrence County sub-district secretary and treasurer; and Mrs. Mildred Jenkins, Potsdam, RFD 2, Publicity Agent.

Miss Hilyard Enters Scholarship Contest

Miss Nancy Jeanne Hilyard, daughter of Mrs. Edna B. Hilyard, 24 Pine St., Potsdam, will compete for a scholarship in the Pyrofax Gas Teen-Age Baking Contest to be held at Livonia, on Saturday.

Miss Hilyard received word Monday from the Pyrofax Gas Corp., New York City, that she had been selected by the judges to be one of the contestants.

She won the right to compete on the basis of her essay, "Why I Want to Go to College," and a cake recipe she submitted. She is a senior at Potsdam Central School and plans to continue her education to go into the nursing profession.

David Fife, Louise Babcock Win Trips For Poultry Project

The 4-H Poultry Committee met at the beginning of November in the 4-H office to correct poultry records. About 85 members completed poultry as one of their projects.

Winners for the GLF Poultry trip to Albany on Nov. 15 and 16 were selected. They are: David Fife, Madrid; Dale Costo, Ogdensburg; Mary Lou Trombley, Heuvelton; and Louise Babcock, Winthrop.

They were selected on the basis of how well their records checked were completed, their placing in the best dressed and heaviest division when returning their birds, and the age of the boys or girls was taken into consideration.

On the committee were Carol Henderson, Canton; Don Merckley, Ogdensburg; Walter Theobald, Potsdam; and William Martin, Gouverneur.

Fallout Course Enrolls 44 At Potsdam High

A new adult education course in radiological monitoring at the Potsdam Central High school has attracted a class of 44 men and women, John G. McMann, supervising principal, reported today.

The subject concerns radiological fallout and teaches laymen how to use equipment such as a geiger counters to trace fall-out.

McMann said the class is one of the largest ever held in the adult education program. He added that first aid classes have been popular the past few years, especially among members of the rescue squad.

John Paxton, civil defense director for St. Lawrence county, has been encouraging the installation of these classes in all schools. Schuyler W. Alverson is the instructor.
