A Thanksgiving-time Family Party has been planned at the Potsdam Town & Country Club for Friday, Nov. 24, according to Mr. and Mrs. George Garner, chairman of the affair.

The family party will begin at 6 p.m. with a spaghetti supper. Square dancing led by Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Smith of the Potsdam Polka Dots will start at 8 p.m.

The dinner hour has been set at 6 p.m. so that those going to the Clarkson-Michigan State Hockey Game that night can have time for supper, attend the game, and come back to the party afterwards, Mrs. Garner said.

The supper will include spaghetti with meat sauce, tossed salad, Italian bread, spumoni, coffee and milk. Reservations should be made by next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith taught square and folk dancing at the Country Club this past summer and their return is in answer to requests for another such informal evening. Casual clothes and low heels for the ladies are suggested.

David Palmer, Jr. has been selected for membership in University of California at Berkeley Glee Club. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. David Palmer, Sr. of 62 Elm St., Potsdam. Palmer graduated from Potsdam Central and Princeton University and is doing graduate work in architecture. He plans to make a career out of the army.

Mrs. Lillian Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Snyder, and Leon LaBrake look a trip to Gloversville, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Snyder and Emily were recent callers in Brushton.

Mrs. Lucille D. Bostick, 33 1/2 Main St., has received word from her son, Daniel G. Bostick of Garden Grove, Calif., that he was commissioned Chief Warrant Officer, second, Sept. 1, at Long Beach, Calif.

Chief Warrant Bostick graduated from Potsdam High School in June, 1942, and in September enlisted in the Navy at Albany. He served in the Pacific during World War II. At present he is serving on the USS Kearsarge at Bremerton, Wash.

Mrs. Bostick is the former Edna Millagar of Boston, Mass. She and their three children, Robert, Carol, and Debra, are living in Garden Grove until next spring, where Chief Bostick will report to Quonset Point, R.I.

Prof. and Mrs. Walter Weitzman, Potsdam, are the new parents of twins, born Nov. 12, at 6 a.m., in the Canton Hospital. Their infant boy was named Curt and the twin girl, Erika. Prof. Weitzman teaches history at the State University College at Potsdam.

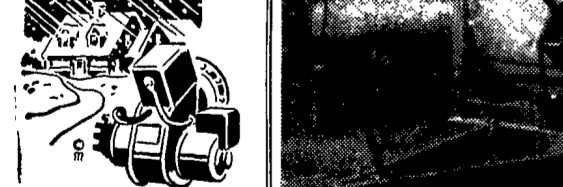

A former Potsdam resident, Stanley McCracken, of Farmington, Conn., has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McCracken, Hopkinton road. He is associated in business with a Texan whose varied ventures sound as vast and impressive as those of Paul Getty. Stan arranges management and personnel of these multi-million dollar enterprises. His brother, Roy

The latest publication of the "Presbyterian" magazine carries a cover picture and long article on the activities in Geneva, Switzerland, of the Rev. Dr. John Paul Frelick and that of his wife Brenda, as heads of International House maintained in that city for students from all over the world who go to Geneva to study. John Paul will be remembered in Potsdam as the son of the late Rev. Mr. H. Victor Frelick, a former pastor of the Potsdam Presbyterian Church, and of his wife, Ruth Scott Frelick, daughter of the late Brayton Scott, a prominent Potsdam merchant, and his wife, Maggie Wood Scott, both long-time residents of Potsdam. Mrs. H. V. Frelick was a recent visitor in Potsdam, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rodgers, at the time of the celebration of the observance of the Presbyterian Sesquicentennial.

A card party, sponsored by the sisterhood of Temple Beth-El was held Saturday, at 8 p.m.

Dental Society Honors Dr. Deans

Dr. Edwin V. Deans Sr., of Potsdam, who began the practice of dentistry in Potsdam 85 years ago, was honored by the St. Lawrence Dental Society at their November dinner meeting held in Potsdam.

Dr. Daniel T. Spence, president of the society, presented Dr. Deans with an engraved plaque with the following inscription: "Presented to Dr. Edwin V. Deans Sr., with esteem and affection, by the St. Lawrence County Dental Society in honor of his 89th birthday, September 23, 1961, and 65th year in the active practice of dentistry. His high standards, his profession and fine character have endeared him to all his colleagues and associates."

Those present to honor Dr. Deans were from Canton, Gouverneur, Massena, Ogdensburg, Potsdam, and the surrounding villages.

HONORED — Dr. Edwin V. Deans Sr., of Potsdam, who has practiced dentistry 65 years in this village, was honored by the St. Lawrence Dental Society recently. Now 89 years old, Dr. Deans still carries on a full-time practice.

McCracken, he reports, is in Asia, with the Air Force and is due to retire in two more years.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sisson have moved from Denver, Colo., to Kadoka, S. Dakota, where Sisson is in charge of the development of another missile base.

Among other ironical twists to the devastating Los Angeles fires, the Ben Kendalls had to leave their home on Roscomare Road, Bel Air, with the patio furniture burning and the bedroom corner of their newly remodelled house ablaze, only to have the amazing good fortune to have a fire-fighting airplane drop a borax bomb that landed in their yard. Their home was saved while homes surrounding were destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey DeLisle spent last Saturday and Sunday in Syracuse where they attended a television showing. They also took in a performance by Jimmy Durante at the Three Rivers Inn.

Mrs. Celia Nye and Mrs. Henry Hilsdorf are sisters of the late Albert Tiernan, Syracuse, who was killed in a train-truck accident last week at Voorheesville. His son, a graduate of the Clarkson College, made a brilliant record at that institution. The Tiernan family resided on the Madrid road.

The National Association of Social Workers has elected Miss Loretta A. Walker to the Academy of Certified Social Workers. Miss Walker is Supervising Psychiatric Social Worker at the St. Lawrence County Mental Health Clinic, Potsdam.

Miss Walker, a graduate of Syracuse University, received the degree of Master of Social Work from the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., in 1952. She came to Potsdam July 1, 1959, when the County Clinic was opened and lives at 30 Leroy St. Miss Walker is a charter member of the National Association of Social Workers, the professional society for trained social workers.

Word has been received that Col. Myron Bittkofer, a former member of the Clarkson College faculty, died in Sacramento, Calif., on Oct. 28.

Josephine Fisher and the couple had two daughters and a son. His first wife died, and in 1939 he married Madele Chaney.

Dr. Deans is an ardent golfer, as all who play against him can testify. He and his son have won many father-son matches held around the County.

The presentation of the plaque was followed by a meeting of the Society and election of officers for 1961-62, as follows:

President, Dr. Louis Stein of Canton; vice president, Dr. Robert C. Riggs of Potsdam; secretary-treasurer, Dr. Emmett J. Folger of Massena.

New A&P Market Opens Nov. 29

The new A&P Supermarket will be open for business on Nov. 29. It was announced this week by Allen Mitchell, manager of the local A&P store. He stated they were still in the process of adding the final touches to the store but everything should be in order by late next week.

Hon. Judge Donald Sanford informed the Courier that he had been aware of Daniels' intent to seek the GOP nod but had heard nothing official as yet.

When asked if he would be a candidate for re-election, Sanford stated "I probably will but I have not decided as yet."
