Frosh Hockeymen To Open Tonight Against Brockville

The 1961-62 Clarkson Tech frosh hockey team will open its campaign here at 8 p. m. tonight against the Brockville Flyers in the Clarkson Arena.

The Flyers are a unit team from Canada who have competed in the Clarkson Arena in the past. Last season the Flyers tied the freshman 12-12 in a thriller.

This year's freshman squad is one of the largest in history with 15 players. Coach Len Ceglarski has been priming his charges for several weeks in preparation for the opening contest this Tuesday. The schedule for the first semester includes four home games and one road contest.

The defensive members of the squad includes goalie Robert Birrell of Eastview, Ont.; defenseman Jon Barry of Belmont, Mass.; Dan Dexter of Brockville, Ont.; Brad Swain of Norfolk, Conn.; and Brian Pector of Troy, N. Y.

The forwards on the squad include Gary DeLaney of Simcoe, Ont.; Bruce Kinsella of Ottawa, Ont.; Roger Moody of

Veterans To Bolster PSC Cage Personnel

Bolstered by nine veterans, including six lettermen, the Potsdam State basketball team will launch a 17-game schedule Dec. 5.

Coch Chip Hunter's 1961-62 Potsdam five will meet six other State University Colleges—Plattsburgh, Oneonta, New Paltz, Brockport, Albany and Oswego. Also on the Maroon and Gray's schedule are New York Maritime College, Rochester Institute of Technology, Utica College, Roberts Wesleyan and Siena.

Six lettermen are among the nine experienced players on the squad, which has been working hard to prepare for its Dec. 5 opener against Plattsburgh State.

Back from last season's starting team are guards Barney Deshaies of Massena and Hall Miller, New York City, leading scorer of 1960-61 and one of the outstanding defensive players in the state.

Others are Bob Anstett, center from Clarence, top rebounder until he was sidelined by injuries last season; John Nethaway of Johnstown and Dick Eckert of Amsterdam, both forwards, and center Stan Watson, Philadelphia, who captained the squad a year ago.

Watson, a senior, will not be eligible to compete during the second semester.

Also back from last season are Mike McCabe, sophomore center from Ogdensburg, and tallest man on the squad at 6 ft. 4 inches; junior Ron Dinehart, guard from Hudson and Pete Burvenich, lanky sophomore from Bay Shore.

Newcomers to the Potsdam State squad include two freshmen, Rick Stopa, Floral Park, and Jim Porcher, New York City. They are aided by Nick Verini, Levittown sophomore, leading scorer of last year's junior varsity club.

The girls grandmothers were present for the occasion and after a program, the Brownies served tea and sandwiches.
