

Josephine Creighton Wed To W. J. Murray

Miss Josephine Creighton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Creighton of Pierrepont, became the bride of Walter J. Murray, son of Mrs. Clarissa Murray and the late Leo Murray of Ilay street, Potsdam in a double ring ceremony, in St. Mary's Church Potsdam Nov. 18. Monsignor Robert McCarthy of Gouverneur officiated at the nuptial mass and read the Papal Blessing received by the couple from Pope John following the ceremony.

The altar was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, Mrs. John Murray, sister-in-law of the groom was organist, and Mrs. Charles Halcott of Norwich was soloist.

Mrs. Maurice Ramsdell, sister of the bride was maid of honor, Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Jane Murray Potsdam, sister of the groom, Miss Janice O'Gorman of Colton, friend of the bride, and Miss Bonnie Mulvey, Gouverneur, cousin of the groom.

John E. Murray of Amsterdam, brother of the groom was best man. Ushers were Joseph Creighton of Norfolk, James Creighton of Pierrepont, and Robert Connelly of Massena. David Wilson, West Potsdam, nephew of the bride was ring bearer and Jennifer Waite of Pierrepont, Cousin of the groom was "flower girl".

The bride given in marriage by her father selected a street-length gown of silk organza over a sabrina neckline with a shirred cummerbund and a large bow and streamers in front of the cummerbund, a voluminous skirt with a wide hem. She wore a crown of iridescent sequins and pearls which held

Former Resident Dies In Conn.

Washington, Conn. — Funeral services were held for Frederick A. Stoughton, Nov. 25, at the First Congregational Church here with the Rev. William L. Inderstrodt officiating. Burial was in the West Cemetery, Plymouth, Conn. Stoughton died Nov. 21 in White Plains.

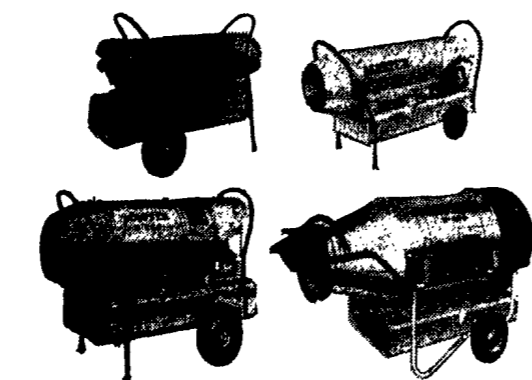

Born in Plymouth, Conn., he was the son of Cornelius and Cornelia Blakeslee Stoughton, and spent his early life in New England. He married the former Virginia Marvin. Stoughton later resided in Washington, Conn. He was a direct descendant of Rev. Thomas Hooker, one of the founders of Hartford, Conn., and of William Stoughton, an early governor of Massachusetts.

He was an executive of the Aluminum Company of America for 32 years and general superintendent of the Aluminum Company plant at Massena. He was influential in the Hydroelectric Development of the St. Lawrence River Power Company and the acquisition for Alcoa of valuable utility property.

He took over the management of Potsdam and Shaurnigan Falls, Canada, and several public utility corporations. At the time of Stoughton's resignation from Alcoa in 1933, he was president of the Niagara-Hudson Power Corp. and St. Lawrence Utilities.

He was a pioneer member of the Lake Placid Club, and a charter member of the University Club, Niagara Falls. He is survived by his wife, Virginia, one sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Schosfield, New York City, three nephews, Richardson Stoughton, Boston, Frederick Stoughton, New Jersey, and Hooker Stoughton, New Port Beach, Calif.

HOMEMADE CRUMB CAKE

Easy as a mix... twice as good

BUTTER-CRUMB CAKE

1/2 cup soft butter
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons Davis Double Acting Baking Powder

3/4 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, well beaten
3/4 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Cream together butter and sugar until fluffy. Sift together dry ingredients, add to creamed mixture; mix well. Remove 1/2 cup of mixture and set aside for topping. Combine liquids, add gradually to first mixture, beating well. Pour into greased 9" x 13" x 2" baking pan, sprinkle with reserved crumb mixture. Bake in a 350° oven, about 30 minutes. Serve warm.
