MRS WILLIAM S. OLMSTED

Susan E. Williams Weds Wm. S. Olmsted

Miss Susan Elizabeth Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raymond Williams, 84 Leroy St. was married Saturday morning to William Stephen Olmsted, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Olmsted of South Colton.

The ceremony was performed in Saint Mary's Roman Catholic Church by Monsignor Francis P. Devan, who also celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a formal gown of ivory satin designed with circle-neckline, with reem-broidered Alencon lace, lace applique fitted bodice featuring long tapered sleeves, and bouffant princess skirt extending into a Cathedral train accented by garlands of Alencon lace.

Her veil was of silk illusion caught to a crown of pearls. She carried a cascade of white Fiji mums and pompons with greens of eucalyptus.

Miss Mary Ann Logan was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Joan Hollister, Vivian O'Brien, cousin of the bride, Robin Sisson and Phyllis Tennant.

The bridal attendants wore long peau de soie gowns in winter violet cut in princess silhouette with empire bodice, and bow held flowing hack panel. They carried cascades of blends of white Fiji and lavender mums.

Paul Olmstead was his brother's best man. Stephen Williams, the bride's brother, Dean Talcott, Rogers James and Bing Huckle were ushers.

Mrs. Olmstead graduated from Potsdam High School and attended Cazenovia College. The bridegroom is a graduate of Colton-Pierrepont High School.

After a wedding trip in the Laurentians, the couple will leave for San Antonio, Texas, where the bridegroom will be stationed in service of the U.S. Air Force.
