State Attorney General Holds Essay Contest

Should the New York State drinking age be raised to 21? Would off-track betting be a boon or bane?

Does any national crisis justify restraints on the four freedoms? Should non-paying members be expelled from the U. N.?

High School students in New York State will have an opportunity to express their views on these issues of current public interest in the sixth annual essay contest sponsored by the New York State Department of Law, Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz has said.

The students who write the winning essay will be named "Attorney General For-A-Day." The annual essay contest was initiated by Attorney General Lefkowitz in 1957. All high school students in New York State are eligible to participate.

Attorney General Lefkowitz noted that the essay contest to name the "Attorney General For-A-Day" has met with great success because of the cooperation and assistance of high school principals throughout the State and the wide-spread participation by students.

It is my feeling that such contests are a forceful instrument in providing incentives for the many conscientious and right thinking young people.

West Stockholm Church Reports 157 Members

West Stockholm — The Commission on Evangelism report of the West Stockholm Methodist Church was given by Mrs. Ethel Dorothy, chairman for 1962. It reads as follows: "The commission has been organized according to the discipline. The members were Ethel Dorothy and Shirley Hartson. The others are Mr. and Mrs. Claude Moulton, Gerald Rice, Doreen Carey, Grace Curtis, Ronnie Williams, Clifford Dorothy, Elmer Austin, Orma Page and Lora Franklin.

There are 157 on the membership roll, 42 new members on the profession of faith and three transferred from other churches. The average attendance is 75 as compared to 70 last year.

A home visitation is being planned to be carried out by 11 two-member teams. A goal of 150 in church attendance each Sunday is set for this year. The pastor's many visits to individual homes have been the major factor influencing the increase in members.

Our week of Samod was begun with an evening honored by the presence of Bishop Ward, District Superintendent, and the Rev. Merle O. Brown and the Rev. L. Beckman, the visiting minister preaching on the mission of Christian Discipleship, were also present.

Plans are being made for a reception for the members who have joined the church since Rev. Clark came to preach."

John Ackerman has been spending a few days at his home here. He is a student at Syracuse University.

Mrs. Hazel Loucks and brother, Horace Nye, were in Parishville Wednesday night to attend a covered dish supper and an open installation of the Order of Odd Fellows.

Mrs. Ernest Crump is ill and in the Potsdam Hospital.

Mrs. Lillian Reed had as supper guests on Wednesday night her grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Benjamin. Mr. Benjamin has just received his master's degree at an Alabama college and has accepted a teaching position at Lyons Falls.

The WSCS is meeting each Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 4 to study the book "Who Cares". Mrs. Clarence Hicks is the leader. All ladies are invited.

The Wesleyan Service Guild will meet Thursday, Feb. 14 at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Sherman.

The next membership class will be received into the church on Palm Sunday, Apr. 7. The sermon topic next Sunday in the Methodist Church will be "Let Us Worship."

The WSCS was held at the home of Mrs. Bernice Green in Sanfordville on Friday afternoon with 14 ladies attending. The topic was "Reports From Lands of Decision." The next meeting will be in March with Ruth Wilcox.

Supper guests of Mrs. Ethel Paul on Jan. 29 were her niece Mrs. Ralph Edmonds and children of Liverpool, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Paul of Colton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hailand Bancroft of Norwood spent Wednesday evening with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Chaffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Tracy of Massena spent Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tracy.

Mrs. Sam Bunstone is in Potsdam Hospital. He underwent surgery last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cheney entertained the Harold Cheney family for supper on Monday, Feb. 4 in honor of Harold Cheney's birthday.

On Friday evening the West Stockholm Church is extending a welcome to all who have united with this church during the present pastorate. The whole church will be open for inspection. Refreshments will be served. This event is under the sponsorship of the commission on membership and evangelism. All members are invited to attend.
