Sunday Rock — North And South

The Coltons — The weather rates notice again. Cold, cold on Sunday and early Monday. Heard from Maurice Trimm that for a change he and Ham Ferry agreed on the early morning temperature — 30 below zero. Guess that's cold enough to brag about, even for real north-country folk like them.

There will be pancakes, sausage and good coffee Sunday morning at Hepburn Library, so drop in before or after Church and enjoy the spread set out by the High Falls Masons.

They will start serving at 8 a.m. for early risers and continue till noon. This will be a good chance to give the cook at home a rest, and see the folks you've missed because of slippery roads.

News reached Ruth Wood that Edna and Tom Thibault, former Colton residents, are the proud parents of their fourth daughter. She's Julianne Marie, born Jan. 3 in Danvers, Mass.

Bernice Corbitt has been in Croghan for the past week due to the illness of her Mother, Mrs. Charles Monnat. Mrs. Monnat underwent surgery on Monday. We wish her a speedy recovery.

* * *

The death of her father, Omar Kieb, in Whitesboro has taken Judith Black from her Homemaking teaching at the School this week.

I'm happy to report that Robin Thomas, four-month old daughter of Marion and Glen Thomas, is rapidly recovering from the illness that caused her stay at the Potsdam Hospital.

At present the family is staying in South Colton with grandmother Swift, and will return to their home in South Edwards when their Doctor gives the word.

Gloom — gloom. Clifton-Fine 72, Colton 51. But we basketball fans never say die. Next game the varsity will bounce back.

The Junior Varsity topped their opponents by a score of 34-22 the same evening, last Friday, so there were some light hearts.

I must mention the C-P alumni seen at the game: Sally Gotham, from Rochester, Duncan Mackey, working in Rochester, Kathy Miller, from Albany State, Al Fisher and Carolyn Bonner who work in this area.

A date has been set for the Colton Community Minstrel. Mark it on your calendar right now — Saturday evening, Mar. 9. As usual it will be at the School, curtain at 8:15 p.m.

We have assembled a fine group of talented folks. Bill Champney will be in the center of the circle as Interlocutor, and as a feature of the Oleo portion there will be a chorus line of local lovelies.

The chorus will present many of the "good old" songs with a few of the current crop of favorites added.

A real evening of fun for all North and South of Sunday Rock.
