Norwood Legion Plans May Minstrel Show

In most places, Spring turns thoughts to love or baseball or gardens or such, but in Norwood, N. Y., Spring usually means thoughts of Minstrel Shows, and thus it does not come as a great surprise that the Norwood American Legion announces that another of its fabulous Minstrel Extravaganzas will be staged on May 27 and 28 at the Norwood-Norfolk Central School Auditorium.

Few people have forgotten the last memorable minstrel show staged by the Legion in the Spring of 1961, and many of the same "ingredients" which went into making that the success it was, will be back again this year. Impresario Mike Molnar of Norwood, producer-director of the show, has announced that the Legion has again secured the services of Mrs. William (Evelyn) Riehl of Colton as Musical Director of the show. Mrs. Riehl was musical director of the last show, and directs the well-known Colton Community Minstrel each year.

In addition, Molnar has announced that many of the same local "personalities" who are standard favorites will be back in their usual positions as end men and soloists. A complete list will be released once plans are final.

The 1964 Legion Minstrel version will be divided into two sections — the traditional Minstrel Circle as part One with old-fashioned minstrel tunes and the antics of the end men, as well as soloists and novelty numbers. The second portion or Olio part of the show will be based around the "Fair" theme this year, in honor of the New York World's Fair, and Molnar has announced that he is now busy rounding up some of the top talent in the St. Lawrence Valley to participate. Another favorite sure to be on tap for the opening curtain will be the Fireman's Dixieland Band.

Several preliminary meetings of interested persons have already been held, but Molnar says that there's still plenty of room for anyone and everyone, and he urges all those interested to contact him at FL 3-2180 before this week end. Chorus members are still badly needed — especially men — and there are still end men positions available. The end men will hold their initial meeting Sunday, while the full chorus will rehearse on Sunday afternoon, May 3.
