Bernice Delosh Transforms Sweet Tooth Into A Business

By EVA DEAN

Mrs. Leo (Bernice) Delosh of Norfolk never intended to be a Career Woman . . . she just sort of 'slipped' into that category, almost without volition.

It all started when she began to exercise her imagination and artistic talent in concocting new and different decorations for the cakes she has always baked and arranged for special events for her friends and local organizations.

Birthdays, wedding anniversaries, bridal and stork showers, Grange, Home Demonstration and church affairs . . . over the years, all these have been graced by Mrs. Delosh's personal touch on the masterpieces she labored over, 'just for fun.'

Then she began noting and trying to copy the creations clipped from the society pages of fashionable papers and magazines, until, before she quite knew what was happening, she had a business of her own, and she's kept supplied with more orders than she can handle, without solicitation or any advertisement other than word-of-mouth.

Mrs. Delosh's husband constructs the complicated base and fashions the columns for her creations, making them so that each layer may be separated for transportation. She says that only once did he ever disarrange or break a decoration on the cakes he has moved for her!

Her most recent cake, pictured in the accompanying photo, is also her most ambitious one to date. It stands 38 inches high and is 24 inches wide at its base. The lower of its four tiers contains a complete replica of a bridal party, including the altar with hand-made candlebra, and vases of flowers, the bridal party and clergyman.

The second layer of the cake is supported by eight white columns, with lesser numbers of similar columns used to support the remaining tiers.

This delectable and intricately-fashioned confection was three days in the making, and was used to grace the wedding feast of a niece, Miss Bonnie Delosh and Louis Roy at Massena.

Mrs. Delosh and her husband live on the Plumbrook Road out of Norfolk, where they used to operate the family farm. During recent years, however, the farm has not been in operation and Mr. Delosh is employed by Barrett Division of Allied Chemicals at Norfolk.

They are the parents of three daughters, all married and living away from this area: Mrs. Manuel (Gloria) Lopez, Syracuse; Mrs. Thomas (Marie) Marshall, Gustine, Calif.; and Mrs. Henry (Leona) Hutt Jr., Norfolk, Va.; and several grandchildren.

Surely this could be described as the 'sweetest' career we've described yet!

Gloria Moulton Becomes Bride Of J. S. Matheny

Miss Gloria Ann Moulton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert F. Moulton, Route 2, Potsdam, became the bride of James Stephen Matheny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Barber, 214 Kontner St., Nelsonville, Ohio, at 11 a.m. Saturday, April 4, in St. Mary's Church, Potsdam, with Msgr Francis Devan officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Floral arrangements of pink pom poms decorated the altar. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Victor Minotti.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original street length gown of bridal taffeta trimmed with alencon lace, iridescent sequins and seed pearls. It was styled with a fitted bodice, low neckline, three quarter length sleeves and a bell skirt. Her silk illusion shoulder length veil fell from a silk taffeta bow. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Sylvia LaLond, Potsdam, was matron of honor. She wore a street length dress of blue taffeta with nylon overlay, and a white veiled hat and shoes. She carried a petite colonial bouquet of pink carnations and white pom poms.

The best man was A 1/C Allyn De Angelo, Plattsburgh.

The ushers were Charles Moulton, brother of the bride, and Joseph LaLond, Potsdam.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother chose a lavendar suit dress with black accessories and wore a cymbidium orchid corsage. The mother of the groom wore a teal blue suit with white accessories and wore a white orchid corsage.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Roman Gardens, Potsdam. The four tiered wedding cake was baked and decorated by the bride's mother, Mrs. Rupert Moulton.

After the reception, the bride and bridegroom left for Plattsburgh. For traveling, the bride wore a blue striped silk dress with white accessories and a rsage of red roses.

The bride is a graduate of Potsdam Central School, and has been employed as a secretary at the Ray Brook Hospital, at Ray Brook.

The bridegroom attended high school in Ohio and for the past five years has been with the U.S. Air Force.

The couple is now at home at Underwood Estates in Plattsburgh where A 1/C Matheny is stationed at the Air Force Base there as an Air Force Policeman.

At The Markets

Salad greens, cucumbers, celery, and carrots from the Southwest and Florida, are among the low cost per serving vegetables, according to Elizabeth Isenberg, Home Economist for the St. Lawrence County Extension Service. Asparagus from California and New Jersey was seen at the markets as were artichokes, peas, and squash from California.

Oranges and apples continue to be seen in good supply at the markets, and bananas, Hawaiian pineapple, Mexican cantaloupes, and Chilean honeydews are also becoming abundant.

According to reports, the freezing weather that hit the Carolinas, Georgia, and Alabama on March 29 and 30 destroyed 70 percent of the peach crop. Alabama's plums and pears were hurt, as were North Carolina's Delicious and Stayman apples and strawberries. The North Carolina blueberry crop was a complete loss.

Consumers may expect to see high price tags on early fresh peaches, pears, and blueberries from these states as a result of the freeze.
