Most older folks select a nutritionally good diet. But some aren't eating proper foods for good health, untrinitonists find. More women than men have poor diets.

Honor Society, and organized by Mrs. Marguerite Barkley, guidance director, was conducted at the Madrid-Wadsworth Central School.

Seven area foreign exchange students arrived at 8 a. m. to spend the day as a junior or a senior does in this school. Present for the occasion were Constance Steinacker, Austria, now at the Canton Central School; Wolfgang von Sileski, Germany, now at Gouverneur; Joannette Morene, Venezuela, now at St. Lawrence Central, Winthrop; Ernesto Gallardo, Philippines, now at Edwards; Ephraim Biryabaho, Uganda, now Norwood-Norfolk; Win Kheunromme, Thailand, now Potsdam; and Alejandro Russell, Argentine, now Massena.

During the day each visitor attended classes with host students assigned to them. At 1:15 p. m. an assembly was conducted for all students Grades 7-12. After opening remarks by Supervising Principal D. J. Connor, the program was in charge of the Honor Society Vice-President, Bernard Pierce, in the absence of the President, Katrina Clegg.

Student Council President, William Hosmer, was called upon to lead the Salute to the Flag. The local foreign exchange student, Nan Trabolt from Denmark then acted as moderator for the panel of exchange students who were in turn introduced by the following local students: Roy Cameron, Leslie Bower, Tom Ruddy, Sharon Pierce, Louise Richards, Mildred Marceau and Richard Cardosa.

At the close of school the guests attended the monthly meeting of the Honor Society and enjoyed refreshments before departing for their respective American homes.
