CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON: CREATION
"Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay." This verse from Isaiah (29:16) will be a major theme at Christian Science churches this Sunday. The subject is "Adam and Fallen Man," and the responsive reading opens with Genesis (1:27): "God created man in his own image." The Lesson will conclude with these lines from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The great truth in the Science of being, that the real man was, is, and ever shall be perfect, is incontrovertible; for if man is the image, reflection, of God, he is neither inverted nor subverted, but upright and Godlike (p. 200).

Area Witnesses Set To Attend 3-Day Meet

Jehovah's Witnesses of Potsdam and vicinity will leave this week to attend a three-day assembly to be held Friday through Sunday, May 8-10 at the Clinton Arena, Clinton. Over 900 persons are expected to attend from 18 congregations in upstate New York, according to Marshall Cummings, presiding minister.

Convention features will include Bible lectures by prominent speakers, and the first showing in Central New York of a two-hour color film entitled "Proclaiming 'Everlasting Good News' Around the World." According to Cummings, the film was produced by the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society as part of the around-the-world series of assemblies held from June 30 to Sept. 8, 1963.

Over 580,000 persons from 161 lands attended the 24 conventions in principal cities of the U.S.A., Europe, Asia, Australia and the Islands of the Pacific.

Principal convention speaker will be Frank Spaci from the Brooklyn world headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses. He will speak each day of the convention, and his main address on the subject, "Facing Up to the Urgency of Our Times" will be delivered at 3 p.m. Sunday, May 10 at the Arena.

Since most of the Potsdam Witnesses will be attending the convention at Clinton, all local meetings regularly held in its Kingdom Hall here have been cancelled for the week end, it was announced by Cummings.

Helen Hosmer Speaks In N. J.

"In the family, women are the transmitters of the central values of our culture," Dr. Helen M. Hosmer of The State University College at Potsdam told 350 women students this Tuesday at Centenary College for Women, Hackettstown, N.J.

Dr. Hosmer, director of the State University College's Crane department of music, was guest speaker at Centenary's Fine Arts Festival and Tuesday night was guest conductor at a choral concert concluding the festival.

Speaking on the topic "Wilder Women?" Dr. Hosmer urged the women students to be indefatigable in improvement. Don't be an empty do-gooder but make yourself felt positively wherever you are. Look back into history and dream by looking forward through the path of continuous and dynamic interest, curiosity and learning.

A good guide for lighting the farm shop is to have a 100-200-watt lamp for each 100 square feet of floor space.

Baptist Church Continues Series

REV. DONALD BARTON

REV. C. B. GILBERT

A series of challenging addresses on the theme of "The Good News" have been offered as a part of the Preaching Mission sponsored by the Diaconate Board of the First Baptist Church of Rochester. Each evening during the week members and friends of the congregation have assembled at the Church at 7:30 p.m. to seek a deeper understanding of the nature of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

This evening the Rev. Clarence B. Gilbert, executive secretary of the New York State Baptist Convention, will bring the message on the theme of "The Same Lord Is Lord of All."

Mr. Gilbert comes from Wisconsin and received his education at the University of Minnesota and the Colgate Rochester Divinity School. He has served as pastor at churches in Cuba, N. Y.; Haverhill, Mass.; and Rochester, N. Y. His experience has included work with the YMCA and with the Board of Education and Publication of the American Baptist Convention. He came to his present responsibility in 1962. A brief reception will take place following the meeting for Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert. Worshipers are invited to attend.

The closing service on Friday will be led by the Rev. Donald W. Barton, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Gouverneur. Mr. Barton is a native of Ogdensburg and attended Ottawa University and the Colgate Rochester Divinity School. He has had extensive experience as a pastor of several Methodist churches and as Assistant Director of the Men's Service Center in Rochester.

He is currently serving as Moderator of the St. Lawrence Baptist Association. Mr. Barton will speak on "I Have Overcome the World."

127 MAIN STREET, CANTON N.Y.

She thought she was alone among strangers... until an unexpected friend helped.

Sometimes it seems people are too busy these days to take time to help someone in trouble. But lots of folks are still ready to help, as one elderly lady discovered this year. Somehow, in the rush-hour swirl of New York City's huge Pennsylvania Station, she missed her connection for the last train to Gainesville, Florida, where her daughter was expecting her. Upset, tired, a stranger in New York... she wasn't sure what to do next.

And then she saw a friendly face. She stepped up to Mrs. Helen MacBean, the New York Telephone operator on duty at the station's public attended phones. And Mrs. MacBean did help. She sat down with the lady over a cup of coffee. She learned about the missed train, and that the lady might have to spend the night in New York... somewhere. Mrs. MacBean knew what to do. She arranged to change the lady's train ticket for the following day. She reserved a room for her to stay overnight. She saw her safely to a cab, making sure all details about tomorrow's train were clear. Then Mrs. MacBean phoned Gainesville and told the folks who were waiting what had happened.

Later, Mrs. MacBean received a letter—

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for being so nice to my mother, and for phoning to tell us what had happened that night.

"It is now two weeks since you phoned the second time to ascertain that mother had finally reached Gainesville and I thought you might like to know that she is safely home....

"May people always be as nice to you!"

Do people take the trouble to help strangers any more? Yes. Lots of them do. Telephone people do. We're glad when they do.
