RECEIVING SINGLE HONORS — These women keglers proved tops in individual categories in the Ten Pin League, and were so honored at the banquet Monday night. (From left) they are: Katherine White, high individual average; Marge Harrison, most improved bowler; Marge Bradshaw, high singles without handicap and high triple without handicap; Rose Ramsey, high triple with handicap; and ReJean Schyberg, high single with handicap.

Sandstone Nine Drops 4 Games Through Errors

The baseball fortunes of Potsdam High took a bad tumble last week, as the Sandstoners lost four games in a row, one to Massena, 13-7; one to St. Mary's of Ogdensburg, 9-8; and a doubleheader to Watertown High, 4-3 and 11-0.

Fortunately, for the forces of Coach Hal Gillete, all of these were non-League battles, which still leaves Potsdam in a tie with OFA, Canton, and St. Mary's for second spot in the Northern Loop, while Norwood-Norfolk remains on top of the League. The Sandstoners will attempt to pick up ground this week meeting Gouverneur thi. afternoon in Gouverneur, and Madrid-Waddington at home on Monday, May 18 in League tilts, and hosting Masena next Wednesday, in a non-league contest.

Against Massena last week, Potsdam tallied seven runs on eight hits and committed four errors to Massena's 13 runs on eight hits and they were charged with two errors. Tom Long started and lost for PCS with Steve Miles and Jim Calnon relieving. Long and Bill Gilmore had two hits each.

In a close battle last Thursday, Potsdam knocked out 11 hits, but committed two errors, while St. Mary's could only muster seven hits and had two errors, winning 9-8. Gilmore started for Potsdam and was relieved by Calnon. The Sandstoner hurlers had trouble with walks, issuing three in the fourth inning plus two hit batters, as St. Mary's garnered seven big runs on only two hits. Terry Sharlow was hitting king for Potsdam with three-for-three including a double and two singles. John Snyder smacked a triple and single, while Long and Doug Perault both hit two singles.

In a stiff wind Saturday, Potsdam lost both ends of the Watertown twin bill. It was close in the first game, 4-3 with Miles doing an excellent job on the mound for all eight innings. However, Potsdam continued to make errors, enough in the first inning for Watertown to secure three runs. PCS had five hits, nullified by four errors. Calnon and Perault had two hits apiece in the opener.

Coach Gillette let his benchmen take over in the second game, but Gilmore was the pitcher. Calnon relieve Gilmore, Potsdam committed seven errors in the tilt, and Snyder hit a triple and single.

Potsdam Hi-OFA Meet 'Blown Away' Recently

An "ill wind" made Potsdam High "ill" last Saturday, when they found awaited meet with Ogdensburg Free but by 1 p.m. it was evident that the the North Country would make it impo ssible to run a track meet with any kind of accuracy. It has been rescheduled later this month.

Track Coach Bill Lewis and his team quite that they were forced to cancel their long- Academy here. OFA made the trip here, 40 to 50 mph winds which howled through SLU STAR — Sophomore first baseman Dave Snyder, Potsdam, is batting .310 with the St. Lawrence University varsity baseball Larries this spring. Snyder, a powerful 6-1, 195 pounder, has fielded his position flawlessly in nine games. SLU is 6-3 prior to week end home dates with Hobart and the University of Rochester. The son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Snyder, 1 Castle Drive, Dave broke into college ball on the 1963 Saint freshman team. He batted .333 and was the rbi king. Snyder skated an important role with the Saints on ice last winter when Coach George Menard's sextet earned runner-up honors for the Eastern Championship. Next season the husky Potsdam High School graduate will be one of the chief defenders with the Larries along with All-America goaler Bob Perani. Snyder will be throwing more weight around Eastern circles. At the clip he is working, Snyder will end up with six varsity "L" awards at SLU for hockey and baseball.

Meanwhile, the amazing runners of Potsdam scored one of their most impressive wins in several years on the Tupper Lake track last week against Saranac Lake, 191½ to 87½. This Saturday, they will meet the Massena Red Raiders at Massena.

Potsdam had a "field day" against Saranac, copping all first place slots but one — 12 to be exact. They split the relays, garnered nine second place finishes and one tie for second plus seven third place finishes.

The only disappointment of the afternoon was that the Potsdam Medley Team, which won its event by over 50 yards and set a school record of 3:53.6, was disqualified because of a bad pass of the baton in the middle. The 880-yd. relay team of John Kidd, Harry Bell, Chuck Williams, and Bill Putnam, ran 1:37.6 to win also by 50 yards in their event.

Potsdam High Golfers Remain Undefeated

The Potsdam High golfers, Section Ten winners last year and undefeated, continued their winning ways thus far this season, as they have already copped two League and three non-League victories.

The Sandstone linksmen, who are undefeated in 17 matches dating back to 1962, will meet Malone and Clifton-Fine in a Triangular Meet at the Potsdam Town and Country Club tomorrow, and will meet Massena High and Tupper Lake at the Massena course next Friday afternoon.

This year's PCS Squad is composed of Bob Reed, Jerry Hayes, Bob Bicknell, and Steve Clarridge. In non-League play, they have defeated Massena, Holy Family, and OFA. In Triangular play, Potsdam eked out a victory over Saranac Lake 6½ - 5½ and OFA 8 - 4 here last Friday.

The closeness of the match last week was due to the fact that Bicknell, a Freshman and fine left-handed glofer, became ill early in he match, and had to forfeit thre points to each team. Reed was medalist for the match with Hayes following.

WSCS Slates Pledge Ritual

Children's Day will be observed in Buckton Methodist Church Sunday, May 17, with the service to begin at 9:45 a. m. Mrs. Lawrence Wagstaff, Sunday school superintendent, is in charge of the program of recitations, songs and instrumental selections by the children and young people.

Billy Dougan attended the 39th annual convention of the New York State FFA at Attica Central School last Saturday. Billy, as the delegate from St. Lawrence Central chapter of the organization, received the silver seal and $25 award on behalf of the local chapter for its crop demonstration last summer.

Miss Margaret Wagstaff, Syracuse and Arlene Wagstaff, Morrisville, spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wagstaff and family.

Bear Hurlers Lose To Oswego

Oswego State made a pair of early runs stand up as they held off a ninth inning threat by Potsdam State's baseball team at Oswego Tuesday afternoon to win 2-0. The game was a tight pitcher's duel between Oswego's Kevin Kronau and Potsdam's Bob Smith with Oswego making the most of their scoring opportunities.

The Lakers, defending State University Conference champions, picked up a single run in the opening frame on a single and three bases on balls. Oswego picked up its second tally in the third on a hit batter and singles by Milt Brown and Jim Husted.

Potsdam was able to garner only three hits off the offerings of Kronau for eight innings, but threw a scare into their hosts in the top of the ninth when Bill Turcotte drew a pass and Jon Rider singled. The two base runners advanced to second and third on a fielder's choice, but Marty Ryan relieved Kronau on the mound for Oswego and put out the fire.

Friday Potsdam State returns home for a 4 p. m. game with Rochester Institute of Technology.
