Rescue Squad Plans Horse Show And Chicken Bar-b-que Sunday

by Mrs. Earl Clark
DA2-8913

Madrid — The Madrid Rescue Squad will present its fifth annual horse show and chicken bar-b-que on Fathers Day, Sunday, June 20. The giant parade is slated for 12 noon with the bar-b-que at 11:30 a.m. and the horse show commencing at 1 p.m.

Through the courtesy of Alfred Pryce, the show will again be held on his field one-half mile from Madrid on the Canton Road.

Final preparations are being made for the midway on the field. This year it will include the bar-b-que at the field as well as at the library. There will be games and pony rides for the children.

Everyone is cordially invited to come out and help "Dad" celebrate his day in a family tradition of fun and enjoyment for all.

Vacation church school will be sponsored by the Waddington and Scotch Presbyterian Churches with the following dates: from July 6-10 there will be nursery for three-year olds from 9:30-11:15 a.m. in the Waddington and Chipman Churches; nursery for four-year-olds from 12 noon to 2 p.m. in the Waddington and Chipman Churches; kindergarten from 9:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. at Chipman. Grades one and two will meet at Chipman from 9:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. and grades three and four at the same time.

Children are asked to bring a sack lunch. Milk will be furnished. Also children should bring a Bible and a pencil. Transportation will be provided each morning from the home church at 9 a.m.

Fifth and sixth graders will go camping at Greens' camp 12 miles east of Potsdam on Route 11B. Camp will open at 11 a.m. July 16 and close July 19. All summer class reservations are to be made with Miss Mary Logan.

Belinda Koch and Sharon Koch were recent week end guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Koch.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Koch and infant son, Kenneth were recent guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Koch. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Koch of Potsdam, Mr. and Mrs. John Koch and children of Potsdam and Mr. and Mrs. William Koch and children of Canton.

Arte Pierce who has been a patient in the House of the Good Samaritan, Watertown has returned to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith were recent visitors of Mrs. Laura Bowman in Adams the past week.

Mrs. A. H. Wears is visiting Mrs. Kirk Davis of Boonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Trombley motored to Syracuse on Sunday to attend the graduation of their daughter Rosanna Trombley from LeMoyne College. Miss Trombley was graduated with a BA Degree in history.

The annual Junior and Senior Banquet held in the Madrid Library on June 4 was sponsored by the St. Lawrence District of the Wesleyan Methodist Church with approximately 50 persons attending.

Kenneth Morris of Lisbon, district youth leader for the church, made arrangements for the meeting. Rev. Charles Dayton of West Chazy, president of Champlain Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church who recently returned from a tour of Europe, spoke to the group and showed slides.

Rev. Floyd Tyler acted as toastmaster for the occasion. The banquet was served by the Madrid Grange with Floyd Beswick as chairman.

Hannawa Falls Fire Dept. Cops Honors

by Mrs. Louise Collins
CO 7-7210

Hannawa Falls — "BEST APPEARING FIRE DEPARTMENT WITHOUT BAND. First, The Hannawa Falls Volunteer Fire Department." The words were amplified to the participants and spectators at the climax of the Northern New York Volunteer Firemen's 69th Annual Convention at Clayton, Philadelphia placed second, and Potsdam took third place honors.

The best appearing fire departments with bands were Massena, West Carthage and Norwood, first, second, and third, respectively.

The Hannawa Falls Fire Department was well represented at the Northern New York Convention June 9-12 and many members participated in the huge parade that climaxed the convention. Members are extremely proud of this recognition for it is the coveted parade prize of the year.

Fire departments from all of Northern New York enter into the parade competition and large and colorful departments strive for the honors while small, well-disciplined departments strive for the honors.

Mrs. Marietta Thomas has gone to Malone to be a companion for an elderly woman.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Collins, Mrs. Hazel Hitchcock and Mrs. Louise Collins went to Lovellville Monday, June 14 to attend the funeral of Burris Holladay.
