Baccalaureate Starts Festivities

The Senior all night party will begin after graduation June 29 and last until morning. There will be food, fun and entertainment for all the Seniors and their parents. Each Senior is invited to attend and may bring a friend or relative as guest. The party is planned by the Seniors' parents who develop and carry out an original theme in secrecy. The party opens with a reception for the NNCS faculty. Then a band, records, prize drawings, food, and a movie will follow. Parents are on hand at all times during the night to act as chaperones and chauffeurs since no senior is permitted a car.

This will be the 11th annual all night party, the first one being sponsored by Mrs. Annie Doran and Mrs. Josephine Harrington for the NNCS class of 1954. Mrs. Doran had read of such a party in the "Parent's Magazine" and with the help of Mrs. Harrington, she formed the first parents committee. This party has now developed into a school tradition, and all due to a busy little mother in Norfolk who liked to see young people have a good time safely. It has become the custom for the parents of the Senior Class President to assume the chairmanship of the Senior parent's committee.

The co-chairmen for the 1965 committee are Mr. and Mrs. Baker Elliott; secretary is Mrs. George Dailey; co-treasurers are Dean Firman, Bernard LaComb and Paul Collier. Food chairman, George Dailey and Mrs. Robert Woodward entertainment, Edward Walsh, Mrs. Phil Holt; cleanup, Mrs. Walter Lacks, Lyle Wolstenholme; chaperones and chauffeurs, Merrill Warner, Phil Holt; Invitations, Mrs. Dean Firman, Mrs. Ed Belknap and Mrs. John Doran.

Graduation week activities for the Norwood-Norfolk Central School will begin Sunday evening, June 27 with the Baccalaureate services to be held in the auditorium of the Junior-Senior High School a 18 for-Senior High School at 8 and friends.

The Symphonic Choir will sing the Processional, "Land of Hope and Glory", "O Magnum Mystarium" by Burd-Holst, and "Sheep and Lambs May Safely Graze" by Bach, and the recessional, "God of our Fathers". The invocation will be given by Rev. Charles A. Stewart, pastor of the Norfolk Methodist Church. Speaker of the evening will be Rev. John V. Higgins, rector of St. Philip's Episcopal Church. The Benediction will be given by Rev. Frank I. Smith, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Norwood.

On Monday evening, June 28 the Junior Class will host the Senior Banquet in the Junior-Senior Cafeteria at 6:30. The members of the graduating class will enter to the stately "Pomp and Circumstance". Monsignor John M. Waterhouse, pastor of St. Raymond's Church, Raymondville will give the invocation, followed by a French horn solo by Maureen Calnon. Miss Priscilla Pelsue will give the salutatory address, and Miss Joanne Walsh the valedictory address.

Symbolic Ceremony

Athletic Awards Presented At N-N Moving Up Day

One of the most symbolic ceremonies involving the high school students at the Norwood-Norfolk Central School is Moving-Up Day which is scheduled for today.

The program will begin after the lunch hour and continue through out the afternoon. Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen will take their designated places on the parking lot with the seventh and eighth grades on the sidewalks. Each class will carry a pennant signifying the year of graduation. To symbolize the moving up in grades for the coming year, each class will move clockwise one quadrant. It is at this time the Juniors become Seniors, and the Seniors are, according to a school song, "gone out from their Alma Mater."

The assembled students will sing "The Star-Spangled Banner" followed by taps. The present president and treasurer of the Student Council will lower, fold and present the flag to the incoming officers of the Student Council. The Student Council will announce the alternates and Miss NNCS who will be presented with a dozen roses. The undergraduates will be led into the auditorium by Miss NNCS while the Student Council President and Vice-President will lead the members of the Senior class into the auditorium as the other classes sing the Alma Mater.

At this time the following persons will be awarded athletic honors by the coaches of the different sports and activities.

Majorette letters were awarded to Judy Arquette and Sherry Shandis; Majorette charms to Rosemary Besaw, Cheri McClure and Linda Packard; JV baseball letters went to Richard LaPoint, Lynn LaShomb, Richard Jesmer, Andrew Myers, Bruce Goodrich, Gary Gladding, James Dailey, Richard Hughes, Bart McGregor, Robert Markum, Darrell McDonald, Ronald Gladding, Tony Almasy.

The Athletic Association at Norwood - Norfolk Central School held its annual Athletic Banquet Wednesday evening, June 9 in the school cafeteria.

Richard Hann, the supervising principal at Norwood-Norfolk, began the after-dinner program by introducing the team's representatives. Each one gave a short speech telling their respective team's accomplishments for this year and thanking their coaches. Cross country was represented by Vincent Mellon, basketball by Timothy LaMay, hockey by Alan Dailey, wrestling by Art Phelix, baseball by Terry McDougall, cheerleading by Priscilla Pelsue and majorettes by Linda Packard. The coaches were then introduced by Hann. Each thanked their team and said their farewells to the graduating seniors. The Sportsmanship award for basketball and the Foul-shooting award went to Craig Mahoney. The Sportsmanship Award for hockey was presented to Michael Edwards. The All-Star hockey players from the NNCS team are Michael Edwards, playing forward, and Alan Dailey, playing defense.

Jack Phillips, the guest speaker, played professional baseball for the New York Yankees and then for the Pittsburgh Pirates. He now coaches at Clarkson College of Technology.

In conclusion, Hann extended his congratulations to the teams and their coaches for their successful year.

The four-leaf clover emblem of 4-H Clubs was developed in Iowa by O. H. Benson in 1911. Using Head, Heart, Hands and Health to the best of one's ability is the foundation of 4-H.
