Thomas LaDuke, Catherine Ann Coffey Marriage Is Solemnized

The marriage of Miss Catherine Ann Coffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Coffey of Pyrites, to Thomas Leon LaDuke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis LaDuke, 17 Larnard St., Potsdam took place on Saturday, June 26 at 10 a.m. at St. Mary's Church in Potsdam. The Rev. Francis J. Riedl, uncle of the groom, officiated at the ceremony.

The church was decorated with yellow gladioli and lavender poms. Traditional wedding music, was played by Mrs. Riedl of Potsdam.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of crystal satin with an overdress of elaborate, hand-clipped chantilly lace bodice and sleeves. The full bouffant overskirt was adorned with a cathedral train of silk chiffon. A Chantilly lace tiara-ended in a pure silk fingertip length veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, staphenates and ivy-centered with a corsage of garnet sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Joan Marie Olin was matron of honor and Francis LaDuke, brother of the groom, was best man. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ellen LaDuke, Miss Patti Joe Normile, and Miss Ethel Rowell.

The attendants wore pale yellow and lavender floor-length dresses of peau de luna with matching hats. They carried femininity bouquets of lily of the valley and lavender poms.

Miss Linda Rowell was flowergirl and she carried a basket of yellow and white daisies. John Coffey, brother of the bride, acted as ring-bearer. Ushers were James LaDuke, Ronald LaDuke and Gary Coffey.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Coffey chose a blue linen suit with a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. The mother of the groom was attired in a blue dress with a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Roman Gardens in Potsdam. The couple left afterwards for a wedding trip to Cape Cod, Mass. For traveling the bride chose a beige suit with pink accessories.

A 1961 graduate of Canton High School, the bride is employed by the New York State Telephone Company. The groom is a graduate of Potsdam Central School and is a Senior at the State University College at Brockport.

June Brides Must Notify SS

June is the most popular month for brides . . . and the Social Security Administration has an important message for all girls about to be married.

If you have a social security account number card, be sure to notify your social security office when you change your name. A new card will be issued showing your new name with the same account number, and the social security record will be changed to show your new name.

There are more than 100 million individual accounts in the social security records. Your earnings record is kept according to your name and social security number, and we want to make sure you get credit for your work.

The people in your social security office, located at 306 Catherine St., Ogdensburg, will be glad to help you change the name on your social security card or to get a duplicate card if yours is lost.

Extension Service Leaders Will Exhibit

County leaders who plan to exhibit at the Gouverneur and St. Lawrence County Fair receive excellent advice and assistance last week in Canton from Elmer S. Phillips, specialist in the department of Extension Teaching and Information, New York State College of Agriculture and Home Economics, Cornell University. Professor Phillips just recently returned from Washington, D. C. where he acted as a consultant to the Federal Extension Service on a rural civil defense slide series to be used in the 50 states.

In addition to Mrs. Clarence Porter from Norfolk Grange #541, and Mrs. Emmott Connelly of Potsdam Grange #39, there were eight representatives from 4-H clubs in the county and representatives from 12 home demonstration units.

Four of the thirty-five home units in the county are registered to exhibit this year at the fair. They are Crane, Potsdam, under the supervision of Mrs. Ronald McCasland, Mrs. George Pierre, Mrs. Kenneth Randall; Early Birds, Hannawa Falls, by Mrs. George S. Howard and Mrs. Carl Newton; Sandstone Unit, Potsdam, by Mrs. E. Verne Reid and Ogden Unit, Ogdensburg, under the supervision of Mrs. William Hollis and Mrs. Leo Valley.

These units will aim to interpret in their exhibits the unique kind of adult education that members of the Extension Service subscribe to in their quest for factual, unbiased information for knowledgeable decision making in everyday living.

He maketh the storm a calm. —(Psalms 107:29)

We can remain in charge of our emotions if we pray daily for the calm spirit and the poised manner that is becoming to a child of God. When we give conscious thought to maintaining this calm and this peace, we are never challenged to lose them. Spiritual growth brings us the faith that under God we can remain in charge of our emotions.

Daryl Sullivan Weds Miss Mary Andre In Lowville

Miss Mary Ann Andre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Niles Andre, Route 1, Croghan, became the bride of Daryl Charles Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sullivan, Route 2, Potsdam on Saturday, June 19 at 1 p.m. at St. Peter's Church in Lowville.

The Rev. Magr. Joseph Luker officiated at the ceremony. Kay Harris played the organ and soloist was Karen Preston. The Church was decorated with garden bouquets.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length princess style gown of silk peau and re-embroidered alencon lace with detachable cathedral length train. Her fitted bodice was of lace and featured a square neckline with short sleeves. Her skirt was bell-shaped with godets of lace at the sides. Her English silk illusion veil was caught to a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a cascade of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Eugene VerSchneider, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a full length blue silk peau gown with a fitted bodice, round neckline and cap sleeves. The gown was trimmed with Venice lace and had a detachable train falling from the shoulders.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Castle, sister of the groom, Miss Sharon Strife and Miss Judy Greene. Junior bridesmaids were Susan VerSchneider and Ann Andre, nieces of the bride. They wore identical gowns of contrasting blue with the bridesmaids' dresses being similar of blue with bouffant skirts. They carried crescent bouquets of pink, yellow, and white carnations and wore matching carnations in their hair.

John Henry Castle acted as best man for his brother-in-law. The ushers were Robert Brownell, David Nellis, Michael Andre, brother of the bride. Junior ushers were Michael VerSchneider, nephew of the bride and Danny Bush.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Andre chose a light green ensemble suit with green and white accessories and a corsage of yellow and white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink linen dress with matching knitted bolero, and white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

A reception followed at Ver's Restaurant in Lowville. For traveling the bride wore a raspberry-colored suit with matching accessories.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Lowville Academy and Central School and a recent June graduate at the State University College at Potsdam with a Bachelor of Arts Degree.

The groom is a graduate of Potsdam Central School and received his Bachelor of Science Degree in electrical engineering at the Rochester Institute of Technology last month.

MRS. LEO FIACCO, the former Sue Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thompson and a 1961 graduate of Potsdam Central School, was graduated June 13 from Albany State College with a B.A. degree. She will teach next year in the Junior High department of the Ravenna-Selkirk Central School system.

Miss Hilyard, Ernest Savage Are Engaged

Mrs. Madge K. O'Brien, 312 Hector St., Ithaca, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Nancy Jeanne Hilyard, Morley, to Ernest H. Savage, son of Floyd Savage, Brasher Falls, and the late Mrs. Marion Savage.

Miss Hilyard is a 1962 graduate of Potsdam Central School and a 1965 graduate of the A. Barton Hepburn School of Nursing. She is presently employed at the Potsdam Hospital.

Savage is a 1958 graduate of St. Lawrence Central School. He is a Senior at the State University of New York at Oswego and a member of the Psi Phi Fraternity.

He is also a member of the Army Reserves. The wedding date has been set for Sept. 11 at Saint Patrick's Church, Hogsburg.

Meat prices have increased during the last few weeks. All beef prices are up because fewer beef animals are being marketed. Also, as of April 1, 1965, the number weighing less than 700 pounds was 10 per cent greater than in Apr., 1964.

Prices for pork are seasonally high at this time of the year. Add to this fact, that pork supplies are eight per cent below a year ago and this will tell you why pork prices have increased. Spring lamb supplies will be three to four per cent smaller than a year ago and prices are relatively high.

Shop for "specials" in meat supplies and you may be able to save as much as 20 per cent on costs. U. S. Department of Agriculture researchers studying meat prices found the eat item on special most often was ground beef. It was offered at "special" lower prices 46 per cent of the weeks studied.
