Hurricane Winds demolish Silo and Barn at Donald Smith Farm

By Mrs. Earl Clark
DA 2-8913

Madrid — Hurricane-like winds demolished a silo and barn at the Donald Smith farm located on the Madrid-Chase Mills Road last Sunday evening, uprooted trees in the area and moved a trailer from its foundation as heavy gusts swept through the Madrid area.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Fournia, Mrs. Smith's mother, were in the barn milking the 13 head of cattle at 8:30 p.m. when the heavy winds struck. Mr. Fournia was in the house with the Smith's five children at the time; no one was injured. The family car, a 1960 Chevrolet, parked near the house, received slight damage; both windshield and headlights were smashed.

Near the Smith farm, a new trailer, owned by Mrs. Donald Rupert was moved one and a half feet off the foundation causing a gas stove to explode. The fire was kept under control by members of the family, Mrs. Rupert and her three sons, Donald J., David and Dale. Large hailstones blown with tremendous velocity left dents and scratches on the exterior.

A large tree near the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dawley, also uprooted during the storm, damaged a small portion of the roof while at the Esther Peacock home a chimney was blown down. Other residents in the area reported trees uprooted although no further damage was noted at the time.

The Clarence McAvoy's celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, not their 60th as reported last week. We regret the error.
